

SPRING AND EASTER OPENING MIMNAUGH'S

We extend to you a cordial invitation to an informal exhibition of beautiful merchandise for Spring and Easter

All over this big store Spring Merchandise gathered from home and foreign lands blooms and blossoms in all their myriads of brilliant colors. In fact, Mimnaugh's was never more interesting. In this Easter display we have striven for two results: Complete variety and lowest prices. You will find everything just as represented.

A Display of Millinery Noted for Artistic Designs:

All voicing a fashion or note in thorough harmony with the latest and most authoritative dictates of New York's and Paris' most eminent designers and creators. You must see these wonderfully beautiful hats to appreciate them.

A Variety of Ready-to-Wears Embracing Every New Style

From a house dress to those dazzling creations of Flowing Evening Dresses. There is a wide range of prices, too. We bought to suit every purse.

White Goods Sale

In Linen Sheeting we offer you the 90-inch all Pure Linen, yard 89c.

Union Linen Sheeting, 90 inches wide, offered for, yard, 49c.

Plain Luna Lawn; looks, lasts, launders like real lawn; 36-inch goods, the yard, 25c; 27-inch goods, yard 15c.

Checked Flaxon Lawn, 36-inches wide, yard, 25c.

Imperial Long Cloth is softly finished and the very best made. There are five grades and we name special prices of, the bolt, $2.25, $1.85, $1.65, $1.40, $1.10.

Prettiest Silks for Spring

You must see our line of Sedo Silks. This quality of goods is 27 inches wide and will make an excellent Easter frock, while at the same time it is serviceable. The price is only, yard 75c.

In 36-inch Taffetta, in soft finish foulard patterns, we have the best value in the city. This piece of goods is the latest creation for Spring frocks. The quality of this goods is the best; the price only, yard, $1.39.

We have many other values in Silk offerings.

Sale of Easter Linens

You will find these goods to be just what you need to spread your table Easter. See for yourself.

72-inch Irish Linen Damask (napkins to match); Damask, yard, $1.50, Napkins, dozen $4.00.

Mercerized Damask, extra good quality, offered for, yard 50c.

Hemmed Napkins, good quality, size 18x18; the dozen 98c.

Skirts for Every Woman

In our offering of newest Skirts for spring, every woman's fancy is met.

These garments are made in the over-skirt and tunic effects, fit and hang perfectly. Our line of Voile Skirts is especially desirable. The prices are $8, $8, $10 and $12.50.

Extra Large Size Petticoats. These are made of Taffetta—the kind that will not split. Price only $6.49.

Queen Quality Shoes

Your Easter gown will become your best if you wear a pair of "Queen Quality" Oxfords. This brand of shoes has been the standard since it was placed on the market. The new styles will please the women who is careful in foot dress. Prices range from $2.50 to $4.00.

MIMNAUGH'S

Order by Mail.

Columbia, S. C.

FENCIL AND SCISSORS.

Wayside Notes Gathered Here and There by a Dispatch Man.

Mr. J. S. Wessinger, president of Bank of Chapin, and a leading merchant of that town, was here on Monday.

Mr. E. Austin Smith, a progressive farmer and clever citizen of near Pelion, was in town Monday and gave The Dispatch a pleasant call.

Hon. C. M. Eford returned from Washington on Saturday evening, where he represented Congressman Lever in the negro contest case before the House committee. Mr. Eford has always represented Mr. Lever in these cases and, of course, feels confident that Mr. Lever will have no trouble in retaining his seat in congress.

The best groceries that money and experience can buy—the kind that always satisfies—will be found at H. N. Kaminer & Co's. The best at lowest prices.

Mr. R. N. Seun, of New Brookland, was in town Monday and gave us a pleasant call.

Mr. Burt Fallaw, of Sandam, one of the best and most successful farmers of that section, and a mighty good man, was in town Saturday.

Shoes of latest styles for men, women and children for spring and summer, go and look at the new stock at H. M. Wingard's.

Mr. and Mrs. Sim J. Miller spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives and friends in Richland county.

Miss Ella Earhart, returned to her home in New Brookland on Sunday, after a pleasant visit to friends and relatives here.

Miss Linnie Bachman, daughter of Mr. C. A. Bachman of Swansea, entered the Pa-metto Collegiate Institute last week.

Miss Jessie Mack and Master Albert Mack entered the P. O. I. on Monday.

Mr. Alken Pound, of near Swansea, son of James Pound, has re-entered the P. O. I. for the remainder of the season.

For your groceries of all kinds, always go to H. M. Wingard, where you find that which is good at lowest prices.

State Senator Crosson, of Leesville, was here yesterday shaking hands with his host of friends.

Hon. M. B. Edwards, ex-mayor of Batesburg, and one of the most popular young men in the county, was here on Monday.

Buy your egg dye at The Bazaar.

Those who'd like pretty and substantial shoes for Easter, in oxfords or slippers, in fact shoes of all kinds for men, women and children of latest styles, see the new stock, at Meetze & Son's.

Col. John Bell Towill, of Batesburg, was a business visitor to Lexington on Monday.

Egg dyes in all colors at the Bazaar.

WANTED—Two pigs or shoats (males), weighing 25 or 30 pounds. Apply at this office.

Try a five pound bucket of "Morning Bracer" ground coffee, for sale cheap, at M. D. Harman's, with a prize china cup and saucer.

Mr. Willie E. Harman, of Augusta, superintendent of the Augusta Lumber Company, has been visiting his parents, Col. and Mrs. M. D. Harman, for the last week.

The streets of Lexington are getting bad in some sections and needs the attention of the city fathers.

Easter cards in great variety at the Bazaar.

For your spring and summer shoes and oxfords you should inspect the stock of H. N. Kaminer & Co, before you buy. Their prices are just right.

Corn planting is the order of the day in most sections of the county.

There will be a prayer meeting held at Mrs. Nancy Corley's home next Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Public invited.

Just opened, a line of the latest ladies' white dress and waist goods for Easter and summer wear. Go and see the newest patterns out, at Meetze & Son.

Mr. J. P. Copeland, merchant and farmer of Baxter, was here yesterday and today.

The Rev. S. C. Ballentine, the beloved pastor of Luthern Chapel, Leesville, and the very able editor of the Leesville News, gave us a pleasant call yesterday while in town attending the meeting of the pastors' association.

For good coffee and groceries for your table, be sure to go to M. D. Harman's grocery where you find a lot of good things to eat.

Get your garden seed at The Bazaar if you want to obtain the best results.

Mr. Harry F. Rowl of Irvin, Fla., an old Lexington boy, has our thanks for his dollar, through his father, Mr. Jas. E. Rowl, for another year's subscription.

Old newspapers for sale at The Dispatch office at 10c hundred.

Mr. R. Glover Able, a prominent lumberman and farmer of Steadman, was in town yesterday and gave us a pleasant call.

For the newest and prettiest patterns in white dress goods, lawns, muslins, percales, linen, silks, etc., the latest from the looms that please the ladies are now displayed at H. N. Kaminer & Co's.

Mr. C. E. Jones, a popular and progressive young business man of Batesburg, was in town yesterday on matters of business.

LOST—On Saturday morning, a large dog collar bearing the name of "Prince," on nickle plate. Reward if returned to Miss Lucille Eford.

Mrs. Paul T. Brodie and little daughter, Isabel, have returned from a very pleasant visit to Mrs. F. E. Brodie, near Leesville.

WANTED—Second hand bags and burlap: any kind; any quantity; anywhere. RICHMOND BAG COMPANY, Richmond, Va.

Old newspapers 10c hundred at The Dispatch office.

A fresh shipment of hardy Wakefield and Flat Dutch Cabbage Plants, 15c the hundred, at The Kaufmann Drug Co.

Piedmont and Old Mill cigarette coupons wanted. I will redeem these in cash. Rice B. Harman.

Miss Brown Has Arrived.

Miss Anna Brown, who has been the attractive head of the millinery department at W. P. Roof's store for the past four seasons, arrived on Saturday, after spending several weeks in Baltimore learning the new styles for spring. Miss Brown is a most charming woman, and her many friends and admirers will learn of her return with keen interest and pleasure.

The Dove Law Out.

Yesterday was the last day to shoot doves, the new law having gone into effect. From now until the 15th of August hunters will have to keep their guns on the racks.

If You Are A Trifle Sensitive

about the size of your shoes, it's some satisfaction to know that many people can wear shoes a size smaller by sprinkling Allen's foot-powder into them. Just the thing for patent leather shoes, and for breaking in new shoes. Sold everywhere, 5c.

The L. D. Cullum Co.

The L. D. Cullum Co., of Batesburg, has a large and attractive display advertisement of buggies in this issue. Since buying out the immense stock of the E. Jones Co., Mr. C. Ernest Livingston, formerly with M. E. Ratland, has been placed in charge of the buggy and wagon department, and he will be glad to see all of his friends and acquaintances.

Mr. Livingstone is a young man of sterling worth, and when you make a deal with him, you can bet your boots that it will be an honest one. It will pay you to go many miles to see this firm when you want to buy a buggy.

WANTED—Some of our subscribers to bring todder, hay or prairie on subscription. Call and let us know what you have to exchange.

Watch-dog That Wouldn't Watch

Pay more for Devoo; be glad to. It is full-measure and honest. Paint is a watch-dog. How would you like a watch-dog that would't watch from two to five o'clock in the morning? That's short-measure. How would you like a watch-dog that had a way of wagging his tail at a burglar? That's false paint. The burglar is rain and snow. Go by the name: Devoo lead-and-zinc. The Kaufmann Drug Co.

Griffon & Co. Clothes

SPRING CLOTHES

Are here, also the very newest in Spring Hats, Low Cut Shoes and all Men and Boys' Furnishings. We sell the best at the lowest prices

E. G. DREHER & CO.,
Men's and Boys' Outfitters. Lexington, S. C.