We Sell "Modern Clothes"

You might, if you dropped into a shop in Broadway, be able to find just such styles as we show in our shop. You might, if you cared to, pay the New York price and obtain them. But you are not in New York and we know you prefer making a saving when you lose nothing by doing so.

The "College Chap, Sr." and the "English" are two of the most clever models which we have ever seen. They have that brisk young air about them that cannot be resisted, and which young fellows wouldn't care are dare to resist.

It would please us greatly to have you see these garments which so smack of joyous youth. Won't you see what clever wearables we have brought to town for your benefit?

We cannot bring a New York shop to your very door, but we can bring styles as clever and as fascinating as any you'll find in the Metropolis. You see these "Modern Clothes" and we'll see that you're not bored in looking at them.
