Billy Felix's Letter.
To the Editor of The Dispatch:
Everything is quite and ere long the silence will be broken by the tread and voice of the candidate. Come out, boys, "the early bird catches the worm."

The recent cold snap nipped things about, retarded the growth of all vegetable matter and stagnated the progress of all business generally. The dryness of the weather saved the fruit.
Rev. H. M. Fallaw and family of Woodruff, spent a few days here recently with relatives and friends. He preached an able and instructive sermon at Gaston on Wednesday evening.

Lester, the baby boy of our esteemed friend, G. A. Goodwin, is sick with a case of fever. Under the treatment of Dr. L. C. Brooker, we wish for him a speedy recovery.
J. F. Fallaw, who has been commissioned postmaster here, has taken charge, with Mrs. M. I. Fallaw assistant and his daughter, Miss Lula, as clerk.

Mrs. Lee N. Fallaw, of Columbia, is here for a while nursing her young brother, Lester Goodwin.
J. C. Goodwin has moved into his new residence on route 1. The next to move in will be a bride, we presume, to share his joys and sorrows.

The health of the happy Felix family is better than when we last wrote.
Hon. W. H. Sharpe passed by recently on legal business.
Butler Fallaw, Albert Cockerel and George Fallaw, of Baxter, paid these parts a visit recently, and spoke in highest terms of the hospitality of our people.

We are painfully sorry to chronicle the illness of our good friend, Mrs. D. E. Craft, of Swansea. She was our door neighbor for years prior to moving to Swansea, and we always found her to be a true christian lady.
We regret to lose our esteemed friend and patron, J. W. Reeder. He has sold out to Mr. and Mrs. John C. Shepherd, who will move in at an early date. We will gladly welcome them.
Billy Felix.

Nurse Says:
"I know what is good for young and old people," writes Mrs. Clara Dykstra, a trained nurse of South Bellingham, Wash., "and will say that I consider Cardui the best medicine for girls and women. It makes them feel like new persons, relieves their pain and regulates womanly troubles. Both my daughter and I received great benefit."

Take CARDUI
The Woman's Tonic
As a medicine for female trouble, no medicine you can get has the old established reputation, that Cardui has.
Fifty (50) years of success prove that it has stood the greatest of all tests—the test of TIME.
As a tonic for weak women, Cardui is the best, because it is a woman's tonic. Pure, gentle, safe, reliable. Try Cardui.

The Same Trouble Here.
One of the troubles in securing public roads in Newberry is that the people who use them have come to depend entirely upon the chaingang rather than work the little road along their own premises that they have occasion constantly to use; they will travel over mud holes and ditches and complain that the chaingang never came into their section, whereas, if they would take the labor that is on their own place and work it for a short time the roads would be kept in good condition. We would like to see a few of the progressive farmers of the county put the roads which pass through their own places in good condition, even if it were done in their own time. It would be a great convenience to them and an advertisement to their progressiveness and besides the good it would do them it would become contagious and others would soon do likewise. A little self-help in the matter of road building would soon work wonders. Will not somebody start this movement?—The Newberry Herald and News.

Futile
"In the spring the young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love." Gee, if I could think such thoughtlets Wage would get an upward shove. In the spring the young maid's fancy lightly turns to peek-a-bo's— There, I'm stumped; can't go no further— Same old wage, so what's the use.
