The county board of registration were in session and a number of certificates handed out.

Go, Laugh and Grow Fat.

For fun and amusement you should not fail to go to the Lyric theatre when you are in Columbia, where you can pass away an hour or so very pleasantly. Mr. Davenport is always looking out to secure the best performers on the road, and so far, he has never failed to satisfy his large audience every night. The moving pictures are of a high class and very entertaining while the vaudeville and other acts are up to the highest art and the prices 10 and 20 cents are certainly popular.
