Send Them To Bed With A Kiss

O Mothers, so weary, discouraged,
Worn out with the cares of the day,
You often grow cross and impatient,
Complain of the noise and the play;
For the day brings so many vexations,
So many things going amiss;
But, mothers, whatever may vex you,
Send the children to bed with a kiss!

The dear little feet wander often,
Perhaps, from the pathway of right,
The dear little hands find new mischief
To try you from morning till night;
But think of the desolate mothers
Who'd give all the world for your bliss
And as thanks for your infinite blessings
Send the children to bed with a kiss

For some day their noise will not vex you
The silence will hurt you far more;
You will long for their childish voices
For a sweet childish face at the door;
And to press a child's face to your bosom
You'd give all the world for just this:
For the comfort 'twill bring in your sorrow,
Send the children to bed with a kiss!

WHY HE MARRIED.

He used to dance with Annie—
She waltzed with fairy grace;
He used to drive with Fannie
She'd such a pretty face;
He used to call on Clara—
She always praised his book;
But he finally married Mary—
For she knew how to cook.
—Chicago News.

He used to flirt with Daisy,
She had such winning ways;
And paid his court to Mazie,
For days and days and days;
He much admired Estella
Beside the ocean's brink,
But he finally married Beila,
Because she had the chink.
—Birmingham Age-Herald.

He used to take sweet Alice
To hear the village band;
He used to sit with Nellie—
He used to hold her hand,
He dangled after Flora,
But he hooked up with Bess
Because of all he courted
'Twas she alone said yes.
—Houston Post.

He used to dream of Myrtle,
Whose curly hair was brown;
He used to think Anita,
The sweetest girl in town;
But he finally married Susie—
As one within a trance—
For Susie was a widow
And he didn't have a chance.
—Tennessean.

He used to hang 'round Mollie—
She had such rosy lips,
He used to swear by Dollie
And her patent-padded hips,
But he finally married Bert,
The ugliest in all creation,
Because she wore no hobble skirt
And owned a good plantation.
—Lancaster News.

He used to smile at Sarah,
Because she looked so sweet;
He used to stroll with Dinah
Away out on the beach;
But he finally married Lula,
The wheel-horse of the town,
Because she always looked so neat
And never wore a frown.

Sandel Drug Store Burned

On last Thursday between eleven and twelve o'clock fire was discovered in the Sandel Drug Store on South Main street, and in a few minutes the building was consumed. At one time it seemed as if a number of buildings would be consumed. The residence of Frank W. Shealy on the north and the residence of Miss Mary Wingard, occupied by D. B. Hattiwanger, on the south, were especially in danger. Just across the street is the Drafts hotel and the residence of Thos. P. Meetze, and it was with great difficulty that the fire was confined to the Sandel building. Dr. Sandel thinks the fire originated from a defective stove pipe.

Silence may give consent or it may give offense.

Perhaps we ought to be satisfied with present achievement. But, you know "the more a man gets the more he wants." This being true, we are then justified in soliciting new business; and especially so, since we are so well equipped to handle it.
