Foley's Kidney Pills

How The Money Goes.

United States senators appear in the role of youngsters asking Uncle Sam for all manner of luxuries and toys, from automobiles to horehound drops, in the annual report of the secretary of state, which shows that the senators cost the United States $2,012,374.52 from July 1, 1909, to June 30, 1910. This money includes everything from railroad fare to the price of bottles of perfumery, manicure scissors, lemons, sugar and soft pillows.

Any one who has a lurking suspicion that senators don't imbibe water freely should glance at the record of $1,834 spent for apolinaris water. More than $3,090 was expended for other mineral waters. Three goldframed mirrors for senators stand Uncle Sam $64 each. One day Senator Bourne called up Senator Aldrich over the long distance telephone between Washington and Providence; cost of conversation, $2.50.

The automobile of Vice-President Sherman cost $2,000 to operate. Senators are strong on telegrams. Page after page is devoted to telegraphic items. The bust of former President Roosevelt cost $300.

Debtors and Creditors.

NATURE TELLS YOU

As Many a Lexington Reader
Knows Too Well.

When the kidneys are sick, Nature tells you all about it. The urine is nature's calendar. Infrequent or too frequent action; Any urinary trouble tells of kidney ills.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure all kidney ills.

People in this vicinity testify to this. J. F. Goins, 1608 Palaski St., Columbia, S. C., says: "During the past year I suffered a great deal from pains in the small of my back, the attacks often lasting for several days at a time. My kidneys were also sore and the secretions from these organs were unnatural. Deciding to try a kidney remedy, I procured a box of Doan's Kidney Pills. In a short time after I began their use, I felt better and in a few weeks, I was entirely free from the pain. I do not hesitate to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Oh, You Spare Ribs!

In the spring the editor is sent a cotton bloom in order that it may be mentioned in the paper, but we notice we didn't get any back-bone and spare-ribs or sausage or padding at hog killing time.—Bamberg Herald.

Ends Winter's Troubles.

To many, winter is a season of trouble. The frost-bitten toes and fingers, chapped hands and lips, chilblains, cold-sores, red and rough skins, prove this. But such troubles fly before Bucklen's Arnica Salve. A trial convinces. Greatest healer of Burns, Boils, Piles, Cuts, Sores, Bruises, Eczema and Sprains. Only 25c at all Druggists.

Parson's Poem A Gem.

Suspended Publication.

The Blackville Courier has suspended publication. The Editor, W. W. Tyler, has moved his family back to Georgia. Another instance of trying to run a paper where the support was not sufficient. Everything is so high these days that it takes careful management and the hardest kind of work to keep a paper going in most small towns.—Bamberg Herald.

A murder mystery confronts the Chicago police in the finding of the body of William Rowles, former manager of the Tulane and Crescent theaters, of New Orleans, in a lake. There were three wounds in the head and the skull had been crushed.

A Reliable Cough Medicine.

Is a valuable family friend. Foley's Honey and Tar fulfills this condition exactly. Mrs. Charles Kline, N. 8th St., Easton, Pa., states: "Several members of my family have been cured of bad coughs and colds by the use of Foley's Honey and Tar and I am never without a bottle in the house. Are tonic in action, quick in results. A special medicine for all kidney and bladder disorders. Mary C. Abbott, Wolfboro, N. H., says: "I was afflicted with a bad case of rheumatism, due to uric acid that my kidneys failed to clear out of my blood. I was so lame in my feet, joints, and back that I was agony for me to step. I used Foley Kidney Pills for three days when I was able to get up and move about and the pains were all gone. This great change in condition I owe to Foley Kidney Pills and recommend them to anyone suffering as I have." Sold by all druggists.
