

100 Million Dollars Worth of Shoes

These are stupendous figures, yet this is the yearly amount that the South spends for shoes. As a curiosity these figures may attract you for a minute, but the most curious thing about them is that three quarters of this money is regularly sent away from the South and the South is that much poorer for it.

You trade at a Southern shoe store. You give the dealer your money. You probably buy a western or northern made shoe. When the dealer pays his bill, this money, less a small per cent to the dealer, goes north or west and the South is that much poorer.

Keep your money at home. Let it work for better times, better wages, more factories, more work for Southern people.

Ask your dealer for The Craddock Shoe. Made in the South, by white labor, for Southern gentlemen. The best shoe value offered by any maker in the land for $3.50 and $4.00. Money spent for Craddock Shoes stays in the South, and pays Southern labor, Southern grocers, bakers and butchers.

It builds Southern factories, homes and schools.

We can support more and better industries. Let's each do his part.

QUALITY SHOES!

You have probably bought many things that looked good, that cost a good price, but under the rugged test of service soon proved themselves worthless. It might have been shoes that soon run over at the sides, caps broke down, heels gave way, sewing gave out and soles were plated.

To guard against these things, especially in footwear, and be confident of getting the best quality footwear, wear your money can buy, take advantage of the large and choice stock constantly available for making pleasing selections at our store.

Gives Bond Not To Wed.

A Spokane, Wash., special says: When Miss Margaret Perkins went to work as telephone operator in a local hotel the management required her to give a bond not to marry within six months. This instrument, duly signed and sealed, holds Miss Perkins' bondsmen liable to the extent of $500 in the event she becomes a bride on or before June 21, 1911. The sureties are prominent business men.

The reason for this unusual requirement by the hotel management is that a half dozen telephone operators have married within as many months, the last two being Miss Florence Joyce, who recently married a rancher, and Miss Olive Bourne, who has gone to Rockland, Mich., to join her intended husband.

"I am not engaged to marry anyone, nor do I expect to enter into an engagement during the coming six months," said Miss Perkins, a comely brunette, and "for that reason my bondsmen have nothing to fear. Of course, I have received a proposal or two, but am not ready to settle down for life.

"The making of a bond is a matter of business with the management of the hotel," the operator continued. "There is more or less trouble every time a new operator is broken in, the rule being that as soon as a girl becomes efficient she deserts the switchboard to join heart and hand with some mere man.

"As I said, I am not ready to become the wife of any man; therefore the management has nothing to fear so far as I am concerned. The two young women working on the other eight-hour shifts will also be required to give bonds, I am informed."

A. G. Benson, manager of the house, believes that Miss Perkins and the other operators will carry out their agreement to the letter.

Rev. George C. Cates, the Baptist evangelist of Louisville, Ky., who was ejected from a Southern Railway train at Arden, N. C., has filed suit in Asheville against the Southern for $100,000 damages. Mr. Cates alleges that he sustained internal injuries and suffered great humiliation by being forcibly ejected from the train after he had offered a mileage book for transportation which the conductor refused to accept.

FREE ADVICE TO WOMEN

Women suffering from any form of illness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass. All letters are received, opened, read and answered by women. A woman can freely talk of her private illness to a woman; thus has been established this confidence between Mrs. Pinkham and the women of America which has never been broken. Never has she published a testimonial or used a letter without the written consent of the writer, and never has the Company allowed these confidential letters to get out of their possession, as the hundreds of thousands of them in their files will attest.

Out of the vast volume of experience which Mrs. Pinkham has to draw from, it is more than possible that she has gained the very knowledge needed in your case. She asks nothing in return except your good will, and her advice has helped thousands. Surely any woman, rich or poor, should be glad to take advantage of this generous offer of assistance. Address Mrs. Pinkham, care of Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

Every woman ought to have Lydia E. Pinkham's 80-page Text Book. It is not a book for general distribution, as it is too expensive. It is free and only obtainable by mail. Write for it today.

Quart At a Time Proposed in Texas.

Austin, Tex., Jan. 18.—The enactment of at least two laws—one prohibiting the sale of intoxicants within ten miles of a school house, the other prohibiting the vending of liquor in less quantities than a quart—and possibly the enactment of a State-wide prohibition law before the present administration retires—these are included in the plans of the prohibitionists in the legislature now in session here, according to announcement made today.

In the senate, the prohibitionists admitted they have 17 votes against 14 anti-prohibition members; in the house the standing is: Prohibitionists 75; anti-prohibitionists 58. It is asserted that Gov. Campbell would sign each or all the measures mentioned. He will retire next Tuesday at which time Governor-Elect Colquitt an avowed anti-prohibitionist, will assume office. Two-thirds vote is necessary to pass a measure over a governor's veto in this State.
