

Call Extended.

The joint council of the Lexington charge of the Lutheran church has extended a unanimous call to the Rev. D. B. Groseclose, of Earhardt, S. C., to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of the Rev. B. W. Cronk. The charge embraces four churches—St. John's, Providence, Pisgah and Nazareth, all of them strong congregations.

The Rev. Mr. Groseclose was for several years pastor of Luther Chapel, Leesville, and the effects of his zealous labors in that town and community will never fade away. It is hoped that he will accept the call.

Pneumonia Follows A Cold

But never follows the use of Foley's Honey and Tar, which checks the cough and expels the cold. M. Stockwell, Hannibal, Mo., says, "It beats all the remedies I ever used. I contracted a bad cold and cough and was threatened with pneumonia. One bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar completely cured me." No opiates, just a reliable household medicine. Sold By All Druggists.

Boatwright-Jumper.

Miss Mary Boatwright, of Leesville, and Mr. Wade Jumper, of Springfield, were quietly married in the city of Columbia on last Thursday evening. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Emelie Boatwright of near Leesville, and is a young woman of many graces. The groom is a substantial planter of Springfield. Congratulations!

Speedy Relief From

Kidney Trouble

"I had an acute attack of Bright's disease with inflammation of the kidneys and bladder, and dizziness," says Mrs. Cora Thorp, Jackson, Mich. "A bottle of Foley's Kidney Remedy overcame the attack, reduced the inflammation, took away the pain and made the bladder action normal. I wish everyone could know of this wonderful remedy." Sold By All Druggists.

Barr-Mathis.

Miss Daisy Barr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Barr, of Stedman, this county, and Mr. J. L. Mathis, of Rome, Ga., were quietly married in that city on last Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Barr has been spending the last two years in Rome. The couple will reside at their country home eight miles from Rome.

La Grippe Coughs

A piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Liniment and bound on to the affected parts is superior to any plaster. When troubled with lame back or pains in the side or chest give it a trial and you are certain to be more than pleased with the prompt relief which it affords. Sold by All Dealers.

The steele bridge at Wye's ferry is rapidly going up and will be ready for travel by the 1st of March, it is thought.

You are probably aware that pneumonia always results from a cold, but you never heard of a cold resulting in pneumonia when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was used. Why take the risk when this remedy may be had for a trifle? For sale by All Dealers.

Death of Jacob Wingard.

This community was shocked late Thursday afternoon by the announcement of the sudden and unexpected death of Mr. Jacob Wingard, one of the county's oldest and most highly respected citizens. He had been as well as usual and his family was greatly shocked when they found him in an unconscious condition.

Mr. Wingard was a Confederate soldier, having fought gallantly for the cause he thought to be right during the War Between the States. He was a member of Company K, 20th South Carolina regiment. At the close of the strife he returned to his native county, locating near the Court House, where he married and reared a large and influential family of sons and daughters, most of whom survive to cherish his memory and follow in his worthy footsteps. His wife died several years ago. Mr. Wingard was a church worker, being for several years a member of Pilgrim Lutheran church.

Surviving are four sons and three daughters, as follows: H. M. Wingard, a leading merchant of this town; Sam H. Justus J., Matthew, and Mrs. Bachman Meetze, Mrs. Sim Gross and Mrs. Hendrix Roberts. The deceased was in his 77th year.

His remains were laid to rest in the Pilgrim churchyard Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the presence of a large congregation, the last sad rites being conducted by his late pastor, the Rev. J. A. Cromer. The pallbearers were all old soldiers, making an impressive scene.

Why Suffer From Eczema?

A Georgia Man Tells His Experience.

I was afflicted with a very bad case of Eczema for twenty-five years which was in my feet, legs and hips. Through all this time I tried different remedies and Doctors' prescriptions, obtaining no relief until I used your HUNT'S CURE.

One box (50c) cured me entirely, and though two years have elapsed I have had no return of the trouble.

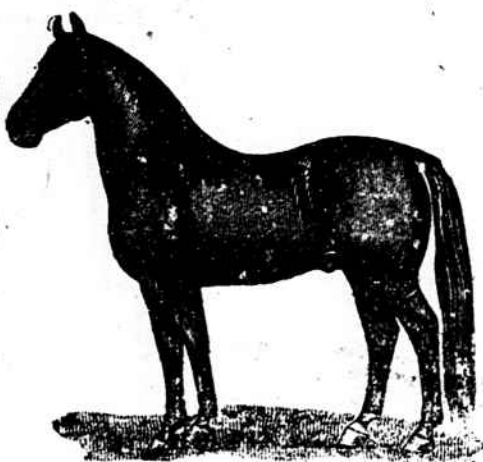

Naturally I regard it as the greatest remedy in the world.

Yours, J. P. Perkins, Atlanta, Ga.
