Some Puzzles.

Where can a man buy a cap for his knees?
Or a key for a lock of his hair?
Can his eyes be called an academy, because there are pupils there?
In the crown of his head what gems are let?
Who travels the bridge of his nose?
Can he use when shingling the roof of his mouth?
The nails on the end of his toes?
What does he raise from a slip of his tongue?
Who plays on the drums of his ears?
And who can tell the cut and style of the coat his stomach wears?
Can the crook of his elbow be sent to jail?
How does he sharpen his shoulder blades?
I'll be hanged if I know, do you?

FREE ADVICE TO WOMEN

Women suffering from any form of illness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass. All letters are received, opened, read and answered by women. A woman can freely talk of her private illness to a woman; thus has been established this confidence between Mrs. Pinkham and the women of America which has never been broken. Never has she published a testimonial or used a letter without the written consent of the writer, and never has the Company allowed these confidential letters to get out of their possession, as the hundreds of thousands of them in their files will attest.

Out of the vast volume of experience which Mrs. Pinkham has to draw from, it is more than possible that she has gained the very knowledge needed in your case. She asks nothing in return except your good will, and her advice has helped thousands. Surely any woman, rich or poor, should be glad to take advantage of this generous offer of assistance. Address Mrs. Pinkham, care of Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

Every woman ought to have Lydia E. Pinkham's 80-page Text Book. It is not a book for general distribution, as it is too expensive. It is free and only obtainable by mail. Write for it today.

Girls can exercise a lot of influence over men by not marrying them.

A woman can rule her husband without being able to do it to the children.

Telling the truth is not so difficult; it's not telling a lie instead that is so hard.

NINETEEN BOYS IN TEN YEARS.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Scott, of Highland, Kan., are seeking a home in Oklahoma with plenty of land. They will need it, for although they have been married not quite ten years they are parents of 19 children, all boys, and 13 of them living. They hold the record for triplets, having five sets to their credit, and two sets of twins. All of the 13 boys living are under five years.

Recently the Scotts, deciding that they must find more land, went to Alberta, Canada. They were not satisfied there and returned. On the return trip Mrs. Scott and her 13 children all rode on one first-class ticket. At Omaha the conductor made a vigorous protest.

"Madam, you cannot carry a whole Sunday school along with you on that one ticket," he said, "and you need not tell me those are all yours and under five years of age. You will have to pay for some of them."

Mrs. Scott dug down into her valise and brought out the family Bible, in which was recorded the names and ages of each of the children. The conductor had to give in. The mother and children occupied five double seats in the homeseekers' car and paid for only one.

The names and ages of the children are: Ashbell, Archer and Austin, triplets, four and a half years old; Arthur and Arnold, twins, three and a half; Alan, Almon and Albin, triplets, two and a half; Albert, Albion, and Adolph, triplets, 18 months; Abel and Abner, twins, six months. Mrs. Scott is 30 years old and her husband is only a year her senior.

J. A. Collins, a well known white man of Florence, was held up on his way home on Tuesday night by two negroes and robbed of all he had in his pockets. One negro held a pistol to his face while the other searched him.

H. O. Smith, aged 22, flagman of the Southern, was killed by a train at Florence, four miles north of Columbia, on Tuesday by passenger train No. 42, on its way to Asheville. The young man was from Raleigh, N. C.

Spartanburg had the sight of the first harem skirt on the streets of that city on Wednesday. It was worn by a member of a theatrical company, who is described as "pretty and petite", and created a sensation. It was no doubt worn for advertising purposes.

Frank Coffyn, the aviator, flew from Aiken to Augusta in a flying machine, a distance of 30 miles, in 27 minutes.

A six-year-old son of Mr. Hutchison, of Lancaster, died of hydrophobia last week, having been bit on the lip on February 3.

Col. James Coe, a leading citizen of Charleston, died in a Baltimore hospital last week.

One Conductor Helped Back to Work

Mr. Wilford Adams is his name, and he writes: "I was confined to my bed with chronic rheumatism and used two bottles of Foley's Kidney Remedy with good effect. The third bottle put me on my feet and I resumed work as conductor on the Lexington, Ky., Street Railway. It will do all you claim in cases of rheumatism." It clears the blood of uric acid. A Lesson From The Hen.

Mr. Merchant, take a lesson From the ordinary hen; How she loudly advertises Her great usefulness to men. Lays an egg, then tells about it— Lets the world know what she's done; She's not like the lazy rooster, Crowing at the rising sun.

Constipation brings many ailments in its train and is the primary cause of much sickness. Keep your bowels regular, madam, and you will escape many of the ailments to which women are subject. Constipation is a very simple thing, but like many simple things, it may lead to serious consequences. Nature very often needs a little assistance and when Chamberlain's Tablets are given at the first indication, much distress and suffering may be avoided. Sold by all Dealers.

It's queer how pianos in flat houses won't play till after midnight. Sometimes a man can learn to understand his family by trying to understand himself.

The Sound Sleep of Good Health

Can not be over estimated and any ailment that prevents it is a menace to health. J. L. Southern, Egan Claire, Wis., says: "I have been unable to sleep soundly nights, because of pains across my back and soreness of my kidneys. My appetite was very poor and my general condition was much run down. I have been taking Foley's Kidney Pills but a short time and now sleep as sound as a rock, my general condition is greatly improved, and I know that Foley's Kidney Pills have cared me." Sold by all Druggists.
