In another column we publish the resolutions adopted at the indignation meeting held at Chapin on the 25th of March. These resolutions speak for themselves. Supervisor Langford is severely criticised and, to our mind, rightly so. While admitting that the Fork is justly entitled to its share of the chaingang work, it must be remembered that the supervisor is doing all in his power to furnish the relief demanded. During the last eighteen months more than one hundred miles of highways have been built and repaired by the chaingang besides the five thousand dollar job recently completed at Wyse's Ferry. This is, we think, (and the records will bear us out) the best showing ever made by any official of this county.

It is, therefore, to be regretted that these people have seen fit to take this step just at this particular time when the chaingang is almost ready to move into that section of the county—there to remain for several weeks. These resolutions, then, are entirely out of place and uncalled for. The people claim, however, that a "patience" has ceased to be a virtue; that their section has been, and is still being, unduly neglected. What are the other sections saying? Are they not putting up the same howl? Indeed, they are, and the supervisor is continually kept "between the devil and the deep blue sea," so to speak. Can the chaingang work on all of the roads at the same time? We dare say not.

In nearly every section where roads have been built the people have shown their willingness to co-operate with the county officials, and many hundreds of dollars have been paid by popular subscription in addition to the tendering the use of teams.

We always believe in giving the "devil his dues," and it cannot be denied that "Old Louis," as he styles himself, is doing the best he can to give the different sections the benefit of the county chaingang, and we feel safe in assuming that the people of the Fork that will get to them at the earliest possible date. Be patient, gentlemen!

Congressman Lever has been made chairman of the House committee on education and still retains his second place on the committee of agriculture.

Columbia, like the hospitable city that she is, has extended an invitation to the Veterans of the State to hold their annual reunion in that city this summer. It goes without saying that the invitation will be accepted; for every old soldier who has tasted of Columbia's lavish hand will be glad to return to the capital city. Yes; when it comes to entertaining Columbia is great.

Y. J. Pope, former chief justice of the State supreme court and one of the best known and most highly esteemed men in the State, died at his home in Newberry on Wednesday, following a long and painful illness. A distinguished citizen has gone to his reward.

On last Wednesday Lexington made the first real progressive step, when, by a vote of 45 to 3, her citizens voted for electric lights. It is understood that the Lexington Electric Light & Power Co., will be ready to turn on the lights within four months.

In behalf of the "Red Cocks," we hereby issue a challenge to the Columbia baseball club.

Mrs. Eva C. Boozer.

Mrs. Eva C. Boozer, widow of the late Dr. J. N. Boozer, died at the home of her son-in-law, Hon. C. M. Eild, yesterday afternoon at 2:20 o'clock following an illness of several days. The funeral services will be conducted from St. Stephen's Lutheran church at 4 o'clock this afternoon by her pastor, the Rev. T. S. Brown, and the interment will follow in the cemetery.

Mrs. Boozer was in her 84th year, and the greater part of her life had been spent in this town, where her many acts of loving kindness will live long in the hearts of those who knew her best.

She was the mother of six children, two sons, W. H. and Jacob J. Boozer, both of whom died several years ago. Her oldest daughter, Mrs. J. A. ... died a few months ago. Those surviving are: Mrs. W. H. Gooding, of Charlotte; Mrs. Dr. B. K. H. Krops, of Columbia, and Mrs. C. M. Eild, of Lexington.

To Organize Boys' Corn Club, April 5th.

A meeting of the Boys' Corn Club for this county will be held at Lexington on Saturday, the 8th of April, at 11 a. m. The object of the meeting is to get the names and addresses of all boys who wish to join to organize and elect officers. We will do all we can to get Frank W. Williams to be present as a speaker, and we hope to be able to get others.

In all other counties of the State people are taking a great deal of interest in farming and there is no reason why we should not do likewise. Matters pertaining to farming and to the rules of the club, as well as the benefits to be derived therefrom, will be discussed.

"All Work and No Play Makes Jack a Dull Boy."

People realize more and more every year that all work is not good for anybody.

The proper recreation is like oiling a machine. It keeps you from wearing out, makes you do better work.

If you work from neck up; that is, do brain work, you need to keep your body in good condition, or sooner or later you will suffer from it. If you work from the neck down, you will do better work and enjoy it more.

Every man and boy should be interested in some clean, healthy sport, not only for the pleasure derived, but it makes you self-reliant and life worth living. Whatever your favorite recreation, you will find the proper equipment at our store, and this means a doubling of your enjoyment and the benefits you receive.
