Do It Now.
I know not the ways of the great beyond,
Nor seek the reason why;
Content with my earthly lot as it stands,
Gathering life's fruits as the days go by,
Condemn me not as an egotist;
But after all is said,
I'd rather have one flower now
Than a wreath when I am dead.
Write my obituary, that I may read
And judge this mortal life below;
Sing the songs that I may sing
And carry their message wherever I go;
Preach the sermon, that I may hear
Ere they place my body beneath the sod;
For then the merits of my lesser soul
Are between me and my God.

Sees No Light Ahead For Mills.
Boston, May 15.—The existing curtailment of about 25 per cent of the cotton goods industry will be increased during the next few months according to many mill officials in this city.
The treasurer of a large cotton manufacturing company in discussing the textile situation said:
"I am not yet able to see any light ahead for the cotton mills. At present throughout the United States 25 per cent is a conservative estimate as to the average amount of curtailment being enforced in the cotton mills."
"Many mills which to outward appearances have up to now been operating on full time will partially close down during the summer months."
"In the case of my own mill, for instance, I have been to outward appearance operating full time but I have 20 per cent of the looms stopped."
"In conjunction with many other mills I am going to shut down my mill for four weeks between now and September 1. That means an actual 25 per cent curtailment during the next four months. Many mills will curtail even more than that."

H. A. Howard, Lexington, S. C., says: "For eight or ten years I was afflicted with disordered kidneys and suffered a great deal from pains in the small of my back. My back ached severely, I was tired and often became nervous. Headaches and dizzy spells were common and my sight was affected. The kidney secretions caused me no end of annoyance. Doan's Kidney Pills were finally brought to my attention and I procured a supply at Kaufman's Drug Co., and a short time after I began their use I was relieved. I do not hesitate to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to my neighbors."
