Trustees' Association.

Mr. Chas. B. Kneec, president of the School Trustees' Association for this county, has asked me to announce in The Dispatch that there will be a meeting of the trustees here on the second Monday in December. It is earnestly desired that there shall be a full attendance.

All trustees should bear in mind that they would not do a better thing for the advancement of the educational interests of their county than by gathering together and discussing plans for the betterment of their respective districts. Many suggestions will be made and those who have not yet reaped any benefit from the building fund and extension acts will have an opportunity to learn exactly how to proceed in order to do so. In this connection I wish to say that the weak schools of this county will receive extension money from the State this scholastic year to the extent of $1,254-32. Besides, those districts that have complied with the building fund act will get something over $1,200 from the State and a like amount from the county this year. By getting together anyone who is not familiar with the method of proceeding under these acts, will have an opportunity to find out exactly what to do, if he so desires.

There are many other topics that will be discussed and it is vitally important that all should be present.
A. D. Martin,
Co. Supt. Education.

Wise And Otherwise.

Do your Christmas shopping early. We don't expect to.

A man who has nothing but riches is in a pretty bad way.

He who is forever taking chances seldom takes anything else.

The Christmas spirit is measured by the heart, not by the dollar.

Ever notice how easy it is for the baby to get hold of something that it shouldn't have?

If you are beginning to worry about how much your Christmas gifts are going to cost you, don't make any.

Dr. John M. T. Finny of Baltimore will probably succeed Woodrow Wilson as president of Princeton university.

A suffragette riot occurred in London and 220 women were arrested for engaging in disturbances.

Governor Johnson of California, has declared for La Follette for president and a direct presidential primary.
