Two negroes were killed suddenly, one was fatally hurt and another slightly, by a bolt of lightning while they were shucking corn in a barn on a farm five miles from Camden, in Kershaw county.

In Memoriam.

Whereas, the beautiful spirit of our co-worker, Mrs. T. H. Williams, has departed from us, we desire to record this tribute of our love and esteem for her.
 Mrs. Williams, was a woman of estimable character; devoted to her family; zealous in every department of church work. She bore the many sufferings of her long illness with Christian faith.
 We deeply sympathize with the sorrowing family, and commend them to the care of the loving Heavenly Father.
 We send a copy of this memorial to the bereaved family, and to the county papers, and Baptist Courier for publication.

Feared His Lawyer.

A young lawyer had been appointed by the court to defend a man charged with larceny. In his argument to the jury he pleaded for the acquittal of his client. He told of his innocent boyhood days, of the good character of his father, mother and brothers. In short, he launched forth into family history.
 The prisoner, an old darkey, had listened with growing uneasiness to his counsel's plea and as the attorney went on without a hint of stopping, the negro was driven to desperation. Jumping to his feet, he yelled to the court:
 "I'ee guilty, yo' honoah, I'ee guilty! De jury can't do moah dan send me to jail fo' six months, but if dat fool lawyer doan stop dey'll hang me, fo' suah."—Judge.

John R. Staton, Joyce, Ky., had an exceptionally severe attack of whooping cough. He says: "If it had not been for Foley's Honey and Tar Compound I would have been compelled to quit work. Instead, I never missed a day, and Foley's Honey and Tar Compound gave me instant relief and is the only cough medicine we ever use." Contains no opiates.

Madame Stella Durant, clairvoyant, euchered W. P. Vaughn, a prominent farmer of Greenville county, out of $100 a few days ago. He paid her that sum to find some twelve or fifteen thousand dollars that was said to be hidden on his farm; then she left for parts unknown.

Dr. J. T. R. Neal, Prop. Riverside Drug Co., Greenville, S. C., writes recently: "I have been a practicing physician and druggist for over 35 years and have sold and administered many kidney medicines but none to equal Foley Kidney Pills. They are superior to any I ever used and give the quickest permanent relief."

Lee Bamberg and Raymond Marshall, young white men of Denmark, "of prominent families," have been committed to jail on the charge of attempting an assault upon a young married woman of Olar. The occurrence took place on Thursday night while the young woman was waiting for a train at the station at Denmark.

Mrs. Rose A. Freeman, Clifford, Va., says they have long used Foley's Remedies and want to say a good word for them. She writes: "Foley Kidney Pills cured my husband of a long standing kidney trouble, after he had taken other medicines without relief. We would not be without Foley & Co's medicines in our house for many times their cost."

A man who needs the money has no time to meddle in other people's affairs.

Mrs. R. Brant, 11115 Paden St., Parkersburg, W. Va., had an attack of lagrippe which left her bad kidney trouble, and she suffered much severe pain and backache. Then she heard of Foley Kidney Pills and says: "After taking them a short time the pain left my back and I am again able to do my own house work. Foley Kidney Pills helped me wonderfully."

Some men are so skeptical that they even refuse to believe half they say.

H. A. Waggoner, Alvon, W. Va., says that Foley's Honey and Tar Compound is the best medicine for coughs and colds he has ever known. He says: "Every man and woman tells me it is the best they have ever used and whoever has used it once, always come back for it again." There are no opiates in Foley's Honey and Tar Compound and it is safest for children.

Stemming His Eloquence.

During a recent campaign meeting a speaker noted for his eloquent discourses, was expounding the praises of his favorite candidate for mayor.
 "This man," he shouted, "is the one who can most fittingly govern this haven for the oppressed, with its countless myriads of happy homes, their verdant lawns and flowers scintillating in the sunlight."
 With outstretched arms and gazing fervently upward, he exclaimed in passionate voice:
 "If I had the pinions of a bird I would fly to every ward and precinct in this wonderful city and disseminate the glad tidings that!"
 Then a voice from the back of the room piped out:
 "You'd be shot for a goose before you had flown a mile."—Kansas City Journal.

 For 18 years I was confined to my bed the greater part of the time with rheumatism. Milam has been a Godsend to me. I now walk about my farm—the swelling has left my limbs and joints reduced to normal size. F. L. Gristie, R. F. D. 1, Chocowinity, N. C.
 I have been a great sufferer with rheumatism and for several years unable to attend to my duties continuously. Six bottles of Milam made a new man of me. Claude Curling, 549 E. Main St., Norfolk, Va.
 I spent over $3,000 for rheumatism with no benefit whatever until I tried Milam. It has done all you claim for it in my case. I. H. Wade, corner Church and Lee Sts., Norfolk, Va.
 For a long-standing and aggravated case of rheumatism I am glad to say I received more benefit from the use of Milam than all the other treatment extending over a period of ten years. C. P. Barger, with W. M. Ritter Lumber Co., Huntington, W. Va.
 Since taking 6 bottles of Milam my rheumatism is entirely gone, my complexion and appetite improved—I wouldn't take $50 for the good it has done me. A. Mc Bride, Danville, Va.
