This is Democratic Year

"This is a Democratic Year," said Governor Woodrow Wilson in addressing the Democratic League of Trenton, N. J., on Tuesday.

"It is not a Democratic year because we wish it to be, but because America is responsive to the impulses of the world. Privilege is giving away in all countries to the pressure of public opinion."

The governor reiterated that he was under no obligation for his nomination to the presidency. I need not tell you," he said, "that the nomination was received without promises to anybody."

"Not even to Jim Smith," interrupted a voice, and there was a laugh.

"I never made any promises to him or anyone else," continued the governor. "I have made no promises except to the people of the United States. Every man is under bond to the people of the United States. You can't serve one class at a time and you must pick no favorites."

"The Democratic party as now controlled is in a position to put itself at the disposal of the rank and file of the American people."

The governor was given an enthusiastic reception.

ENDORSED AT HOME.

Such Proof as This Should Convince Any Lexington Citizen.

The public endorsement of a local citizen is the best proof that can be produced. None better, none stronger can be had. When a man comes forward and testifies to his fellow citizens, addresses his friends and neighbors, you may be sure he is thoroughly convinced or he would not do so. Telling one's experience when it is for the public good is an act of wisdom that should be appreciated. The following statement given by a resident of Lexington adds one more to the many cases of Home Endorsement which are being published about Doan's Kidney Pills. Read it.

Mrs. R. F. Powell, Manory Hill, Lexington, S. C., says: "A member of my family used Doan's Kidney Pills and the results were so satisfactory that we willingly endorse this remedy. Its use brought relief from backache and trouble with the kidney secretions."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Made Fatal Mistake

The mistaking of strychnine for calomel resulted in the death of Mrs. T. Berryhill and her 12 year-old grandson, residing 12 miles from Gloster, Miss. The boy died Saturday and his family was at a loss to account for his sudden demise. The grandmother suddenly succumbed and an investigation was at once begun, revealing the deaths.

Killed in Sight of Mother

Atlanta, Ga.—In the presence of his mother, who was too far away to aid him, Fred A. Smith, aged 5, was run down and killed by a street car this afternoon. The boy was trying to follow his mother across the street and a wagon prevented the motorman from seeing the child until too late. The body was badly mangled.

Probably there is nothing more expensive than the things we get for nothing.
