

THE Tri-County FAIR

--AT--

BATESBURG, S. C.

OCT. 14, 15, 16, 17.

Lexington, Saluda, Edgefield and Aiken Counties

EVERYDAY A BIG DAY

REDUCED RAIL ROAD RATES ON ALL TRAINS

Splendid Features---Liberal Premiums
Come and Bring The Whole Family

For Full Information and Premium List, write

W. J. McCARTHA, Sec.

BATESBURG, SOUTH CAROLINA

Seasonable Specials

AT

J. L. HOPKINS

It is now time of the year when everybody is looking forward to something for fall and winter wear. Look at these values.

Laces, laces, quite a lot to close out, worth up to 10c a yard, only 2 1-2c
See our line of Gingham and Chambrays in solid colors and stripes, only 8 1-3 and 10c
Percales are always good. We have them 36 inches wide, yard 10c
Take a look at our white flannels. The little fellow will need these in a few weeks, per yard 12 1-2, 15 25 and 50c
See that Table Linen, per yard, 25, 39 and 50c
10-4 Bleached Pepperell Sheeting, 10 yard limit, yard 25c
10-4 Brown Pepperell Sheeting, 10 yard limit, yard 22 1-2c
National Madras for Curtains, beautiful patterns, yard 9c
See our Bed Sheets, 72x90, only each 39c
Ratine is the very latest for early fall suits, yard 25c

OUTING

Our line is complete. We have all the solid colors, and beautiful stripes and checks, yard 10c
See our all wool blankets, pair $3.39 and $4.49
See our line of Serges for Suits and Skirts in all colors, yard 50c
Look over our line of Hose for the children. We have them that will wear that boy.

LOOK MEN!

Put on one of those North Eastern Shirts. They are beauties. 48c, $1.00
We boast of and can prove it by actual wear that we have the best Men's Silk Hose in the city for 25c
SHOES FOR THE WHOLE FAMILY.

OUR MILLINERY

is arriving every day fresh from the Northern markets. Come in and get one of those nice new white felt hats or some of the colored ones in ready to wear.

J. L. HOPKINS

1616 Main St. Columbia, S.C.

PENCIL AND SCISSORS.

Miss Elizabeth Dominick has returned to Newberry, after a delightful visit to Mrs. S. J. Leaphart.

Every Lexingtonian should endeavor to make the coming county fair the best in the State.

RUB-MY-TISM will cure you.

Get ready for the Lexington County Fair—just a little more than a month off.

Commencing Monday Oct. 1st the Bank of Western Carolina and The Home National Bank will observe the following banking hours: Open at 9 A. M. and close at 3 P. M.

5 or 6 doses 666 will break any case of Chills and Fever; and if taken then as a tonic the Fever will not return. Price 25c.

Albert M. Boozer, one of the oldest and most prominent members of the Columbia Bar, has been here on legal business this week.

Mr. "Jack" Douglass, the only and original "Jack" was in town Friday on matters of business. Mr. Douglass is in charge of the waterworks plant for the Columbia Mills Co.

FOR SALE—Homes in and around Johnston, ask for list.
Y. May, Johnston, S. C.

Do not forget the printers when you sell your first bale of new cotton. Remember they too, have to be paid.

There was almost an ice famine in Lexington on Saturday, and there was much disappointment among the housewives.

Mr. W. B. Altman, of Batesburg, a leading citizen of that town, is among the popular jurors this week.

RUB-MY-TISM will cure you.

Mr. J. H. Gunter, a substantial farmer of the Black creek section kindly remembers the printer with a renewal for another year.

Mr. W. F. Taylor, a clever and honest man, of Pleasant Hill section and a subscriber for a long time renewed for another year Monday.

When you want something good to eat always go to Wingard's grocery. Here you will find the best that is to be had at the right prices.

Don't forget to bring or send us your dues when you come to court next week.

Miss Ada Williams spent the week-end with relatives in Brookland.

Mr. J. B. Holman, of Batesburg, the popular president of the Enterprise Hardware Co., was in town Monday.

If you want to get the highest price for your cotton, always bring it to Lexington.

FOR RENT—One, two, three or four horse farm for rent. Apply to J. J. Fox. 4x49

When you sell your first new bale don't forget the printers.

Mr. J. S. Clark, one of our oldest and promptest subscribers at Irene, made us a pleasant call Monday.

Mr. T. M. Kennedy one of Brookland's best citizens, was in town Monday as a juror at Court dropped in and renewed his paper for another year.

Prof S. S. Lindler, of the St. John's section, spent the week-end with his sister, Mrs. Charlie Epting, at Pine Ridge.

Miss Eula Epting, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charley Epting, of Pine Ridge, left last week for Dorchester county, where she takes charge of the 7th and 8th grades of the St. George High School.

Mr. Holly Shealy, son of Mrs. Cora Shealy, of the Fork, left on Monday for Columbia to resume his studies at the University of South Carolina.

Ex-Sheriff Thos. H. Caughman has the finest field of corn we have seen anywhere this year. Tom is an all-round good farmer and a most excellent citizen.

Mr. Archie W. Craft, a splendid young farmer of near Pelion, spent a few days in town this week. Mr. Craft is one of the best young men of his section.

County Superintendent of Education—Elect Holly L. Harman, of the Dutch Fork, was in town Monday mingling with his friends.

Mr. O. B. Anderson, of Edgefield, court stenographer of the Eleventh circuit, is at his usual post this week. Mr. Anderson has a soul as big as his body, and is popular throughout the State.

Mr. William M. Swartz, of the Henderson—Suydam Hardware Company, Columbia, spent Sunday at his old home here.

Miss Hattie Shealy has returned from a delightful ten days visit to relatives and friends in Newberry, Peak Station and Pomaria.

Miss Ella Price returned to the State Hospital Training school, Columbia, on Sunday, after spending her vacation at home.

Miss Emmie Mae James returned to Columbia Monday, after spending a week in Lexington, the guest of Mrs. D. R. Hiltiwanger.

Misses Linnie May and Estelle Cranford have returned to Union, after a delightful visit to their cousin, Miss Mildred Hook, near Brookland.

Miss Mildred Hook, the beautiful and attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Hook, left yesterday for Greenwood, where she will attend Lander college.

Mr. B. I. Epting, the popular veteran of Pine Ridge, visited his granddaughter-in-law, Mrs. Baxter Shealy, at Knowlton's Hospital last week. Mrs. Shealy is doing very well.

M. L. Barre left last week to enter Clemson college.

Get your fresh bakers bread—the best in town—at Harman's Bazaar.

Mr. Levi Rish, one of the popular young farmers of the Sacoam section, is attending court this week.

T. C. Callison, the popular young attorney, is acting superintendent of the Casparis Stone Company while Mr. LeFevre is away on his vacation.

Subscribe to The Dispatch, only one dollar a year, and get all of the county news.

R - C - H MOTOR CARS

SPECIFICATIONS:

LOOK AT THIS EQUIPMENT

R-C-H Cars are sold fully equipped ready for the road
The equipment is as follows:

ELECTRIC LIGHTS—12 in. Bullet headlights, 6 in. Bullet sidelights, tail lights.

WARNER AUTO METER—The most reliable speed and mileage indicator made.

JIFFY CURTAINS—Can be put up or down in a few minutes time from the inside of the car. When closed, makes car nearly as rain proof or cold proof as a limousine.

BOSCH MAGNETO—Very few cars under $1500 are equipped with this high grade magneto, which is used on most of the best known and highest priced cars in the world.

DEMOUNTABLE RIMS—Makes it possible to change tires in three or four minutes time.

EXTRA RIM AND HOLDER—Attached to the rear of the touring car and on running board of roadster.

REAR VIEW MIRROR—Giving driver full view of the traffic behind.

Top, Top Cover, Windshield, Tool Kit, Jack, Tire Repair Kit, Pump, Robe Rail, Floor Mat, Tally-ho Horn.

Completely equipped with all you need and all you can use.

TOURING CAR, 5 passengers - - - $900.00
ROADSTERS, 2 passengers - - - 750.00

F. O. B. DETROIT

INDEPENDENT AUTO SALES COMPANY,

New Brookland, - South Carolina

L. HALL, MANAGER.

LEXINGTON COUNTY FAIR

October 22, 23, 24, 25, '12

FOUR BIG DAYS

Write for Premium List and Make Your Entries Early.

C. M. EFIRD, Secretary

LEXINGTON, SOUTH CAROLINA