Newberry College Has Splendid Opening.

Special to The Dispatch.
Newberry, Sept. 26.—The regular exercises of Newberry College opened on last Thursday at 8:45 in Holland hall. The address was delivered by the Hon. C. M. Efrd, of Lexington.
Mr. Efrd was selected as the main speaker and his welcomed topics related to advise to the boys. He held the attention of the entire audience for half an hour. He was followed by the pastors of the city churches, and each gave the students a cordial welcome to Newberry.
The number of new students is unusually large and the prospects are exceedingly bright for a successful session. The new students, numbering over one hundred, have been coming in regularly since the opening. Every new student has passed his examination and has been assigned to his respective class.
Nearly all of the old boys came back and the college has one of the largest enrollments in its history.
The student body met in Holland hall and again decided to cut out hazing in Newberry college this year.

Chronic Dyspepsia.

The following unsolicited testimonial should certainly be sufficient to give hope and courage to persons afflicted with chronic dyspepsia: "I have been a chronic dyspeptic for years, and of all the medicine I have taken, Chamberlain's Tablets have done me more good than anything else," says W. G.
Mattison, No. 7 Sherran St., Hornells-ville, N. Y. Sold by All Dealers.

Getting married costs much less than being married.

A Marvelous Escape.

"My little boy had a marvelous escape," writes P. F. Bastians of Prince Albert, Cape of Good Hope. "It occurred in the middle of the night. He got a very severe attack of croup. As luck would have it, I had a large bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house. After following the directions for an hour and twenty minutes he was through all danger." Sold by All Dealers.

Some girls must dread the idea of becoming old maids. Otherwise they wouldn't marry the kind of men they do.

Fortunes In Faces.

There's often much truth in the saying "her face is her fortune," but its never said where pimples, skin eruptions, blotches, or other blemishes disfigure it. Impure blood is back of them all, and shows the need of Dr.
King's New Life Pills. They promote health and beauty. Try them. 25 cents at Harmon Drug Co.

Sometimes silence is golden and sometimes it indicates guilt.
