HOW GIRLS MAY AVOID PERIODIC PAINS

The Experience of Two Girls Here Related For The Benefit of Others.

Rochester, N. Y.—"I have a daughter 13 years old who has always been very healthy until recently when she complained of dizziness and cramps every month, so bad that I would have to keep her home from school and put her to bed to get relief.

"After giving her only two bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound she is now enjoying the best of health. I cannot praise your Compound too highly. I want every good mother to read what your medicine has done for my child."—Mrs. RICHARD N. DUNHAM, 311 Exchange St., Rochester, N. Y.

Stoutsville, Ohio.—"I suffered from headaches, backache and was very irregular. A friend advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and before I had taken the whole of two bottles I found relief. I am only sixteen years old, but I have better health than for two or three years. I cannot express my thanks for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I had taken other medicines but did not find relief."—Miss CORA B. FOSNAUGH, Stoutsville, Ohio, R. F. D., No. 1.

Hundreds of such letters from mothers expressing their gratitude for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has accomplished for their daughters have been received by the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Company, Lynn, Mass.

Will Be Promoted.

Congressman Lever, who is the ranking member of the committee on agriculture, will, in all probability, be chairman when the committee assignments of the House of Representatives are made. He has been one of the hardest working and most influential members of the committee for several terms and has done as much as any member of Congress for the farming interest of this country by originating and advocating progressive legislation for the improvement of agricultural methods. He has worked not only for his own district, but for the entire South and the country as a whole, and his work is known and appreciated in all sections. For this reason his campaign tour of the West in the interest of the Democratic ticket was effective, since the farmers of the West knew him and what he had done in Congress for their benefit and were glad to hear him.—Sumter Watchman and Southron.

Mr. P. L. Lindler, of Little Mountain, recently brought to this office a curiosity in the way of a corn stalk which forked some three or four feet from the ground and on each of the two prongs an ear of corn grew and matured. Mr. Lindler was but obeying the Scriptural injunction of making two ears grow where but one grew before.

President-elect Wilson has declared it to be his purpose to redeem his campaign promises and will prosecute the campaign in restraint of trade more rigorously than they were under the Republican regime.

THE UP TO DATE FARMER.

He Was Ready For the Bond Salesman From the Metropolis.
"THE farmer is the one who is making the progress," recently remarked a bond salesman for one of the big cities, just in from the road. "I've got them to let me try eastern Kansas this trip—new territory for us. I'd heard that the tillers of the soil down there were all buying automobiles and things, and that they were a progressive lot. I found them that, and then some. Here's what happened to me in a little town up near the northeast corner of the state.

"One morning I drove about four miles out into the country to try to sell some bonds to an old farmer named Pratt who was reported to have a pot of money. The old man seemed to be thoroughly posted on the bond market—knew all about the latest of ferings, etc. He seemed to like my issue, but said he was 'hung up' with ten Wabash fours, and that until he got rid of them he couldn't buy anything else. We were doing quite a little in Wabash fours at the time, and I offered to take them off his hands at 66—just before leaving the hotel I had had a wire stating that they were 68½ bid on the exchange.

"The old man hesitated, but finally agreed to make the exchange. He was to take seven of my bonds at a little less than par and I was to take his ten Wabash fours at 66½. I fancied I saw a twinkle in his eye as I wrote down the figures.

"The deal closed, he offered to show me the house. We went upstairs and, in what he called his 'office,' what was my amazement to find a stock ticker buzzing busily away. I walked over to the machine and pulled some of the tape out of the basket. A string of quotations caught my eye. It read something like this: Wabash fours, 10 at 67, 5 at 66, 15 at 64½, 50 at 62."—Puck.

Getting It Exactly Right.
Clerk—Your ad. reads, "Plain cook wanted." They rather fight shy of that, sir.
Subbubs—How shall I put it, then?
Clerk—I should say, "Woman wanted to do plain cooking."
Subbubs—Change it, will you? Glad you mentioned it. And, by the way, instead of "woman" you'd better make it "lady."—Boston Transcript.

Trouble Maker.

"A newspaper can make trouble in a home."
"I should say so. What came near causing my first quarrel with my wife was the fact that we had only one newspaper to read, and that had the baseball news on one side of the sheet and the fashion news on the other."—Washington Star.

Declare War on Colds.

A crusade of education which aims that common colds may become uncommon within the next generation has been begun by prominent New York physicians. Here is a list of the don'ts which the doctors say will prevent the annual visitation of the cold:

- "Don't sit in a draughty car."
- "Don't sleep in hot rooms."
- "Don't avoid the fresh air."
- "Don't stuff yourself at meal time. Over eating reduces your resistance."
- To which we would add—when you take a cold get rid of it as quickly as possible. To accomplish that you will find Chamberlain's Cough Remedy most excellent. Sold by all druggists.

Flagged Train With Shirt.

Tearing his shirt from his back an Ohio man flagged a train and saved it from a wreck, but H. T. Alston, Raleigh, N. C., once prevented a wreck with Electric Bitters. "I was in a terrible plight when I began to use them," he writes, "my stomach, head, back and kidneys were all badly affected and my liver was in bad condition, but four bottles of Electric Bitters made me feel like a new man." A trial will convince you of their matchless merit for any stomach, liver or kidney trouble. Price 50 cents at Harmon Drug Co.

Twinges of rheumatism, backache, stiff joints and shooting pains all show your kidneys are not working right.
