Wednesday, Dec 4, 1912.

G. M. HARMAN, Editor and Publisher
J. W. OGILVIE, ASSISTANT EDITOR

Entered at the Post Office at Lexington, S. C., as second class matter.

CIRCULATION 2,300.

Mr. Harman, our Chief, was taken seriously ill while on his rounds with the County Treasurer last week, and since then he has been confined to his bed, Dr. J. J. Wingard, having performed a very painful operation, and his many friends all over Lexington will be pleased to learn that he is recovering as rapidly as the circumstances will allow and that unless some unforeseen complications sets in he will out again in a few days.

Governor Blease has vigorously defended his record from the attacks made upon it by his political enemies and declares that he has pardoned or paroled 400 prisoners and expects to double that number before the expiration of his term of office. The Governor is on record as declaring that the hosiery mill at the penitentiary, "the tuberculosis incubator," must go or else he would pardon every convict in the penitentiary, and we believe that he said what he meant and means what he said. It looks that way anyhow.

The Secret Terror

The haunting fear of sickness and helplessness is the secret terror of the working man. Health is his capital. Kidney diseases sap a man's strength and vitality. They lessen his earning capacity. Foley Kidney Pills bring back health and strength by healing the disease. They are the best medicine made for kidney and bladder troubles. The genuine are in the yellow package. Refuse any substitute. Harmon Drug Co.

Pleasant Hill News.

We have been having fine weather for fall work on the farm.

Mr. John Alwane has a very sick child, but it is improving now.

Mr. Frank Kelly and Mrs. Nealy Taylor, spent Saturday night and Sunday at the home of Mr. J. Z. Taylor, the son of the latter.

Miss Mattie Taylor spent a few days last week with her sister at Mr. Jim Cook's.

Rev. J. C. Holley delivered a very interesting sermon at Pleasant Hill Sunday.

We are sorry to learn that Miss Mattie Taylor's arm is not doing as well as she and her friends would like. Sunday School Girl.

Is Peruna a Laxative?

I am in receipt of a letter from a mechanic who is at the head of a prosperous household. Peruna has been used in his family for a good many years. He writes as follows: "As you know, we have used Peruna in our home for a number of years. We find it a reliable household medicine in catarrhal conditions, coughs, colds and grip, and many other ailments to which the family is subject. But since the change in the formula of Peruna I do not find it quite as useful to myself. My bowels are naturally very active. I cannot take a cathartic of any sort. It does me injury to do so. The old Peruna contained no cathartic ingredient and was therefore a very useful medicine to me. But I notice that the new Peruna has a slight laxative action, which almost makes it prohibitory for me to use. I was wondering if there was not some way in which I could obtain the old Peruna as you used to make it."

To this letter I made the following reply: "Yes, the new Peruna does contain a laxative element. You should therefore take the old Peruna (Ka-tar-no) which has no laxative quality. While prescribing the old Peruna I found it quite necessary frequently to prescribe the laxative Manalin in connection with it. Therefore Manalin was combined with Peruna, in order to meet those cases that require a laxative. But in case no laxative is required the objection to the new Peruna you speak of arises. Many of the people who used to take the old Peruna found difficulty in taking the new Peruna. To meet those cases I am having manufactured the old Peruna under the name of Ka-tar-no, and if you are anxious to get the old Peruna exactly as it used to be made you can do so."

PERUNA IS FOR SALE AT ALL DRUG STORES. SPECIAL NOTICE—Many persons are making inquiries for the old-time Peruna. To such would say, this formula is now put out under the name of KA-TAR-NO, manufactured by KA-TAR-NO Company, Columbus, Ohio. Write them and they will be pleased to send you a free booklet.

Will Call Extra Session.

Governor Wilson has announced that immediately after his inauguration as President he would call an extraordinary session of Congress to convene, not later than April 15 for the purpose of revising the tariff.

To set at rest all speculation as to what he would do with regard to tariff revision, the President-elect issued the following statement:

"I shall call Congress together in extraordinary session not later than April 15. I shall do this not only because I think the pledges of the party ought to be redeemed as promptly as possible, but also because I know it to be in the interest of business that all uncertainty as to what particular items of tariff revision are to be removed as soon as possible."

Beyond this brief announcement the Governor said he had nothing further to say. Most of the opinion he had received from public men seemed to be in favor of an extra session, he declared. The Governor did not intend to express himself about an extra session because the present arrangement would not bring the new Congress into session until thirteen months after its election he had expected to spend more time in ascertaining public opinion. With the time to be consumed in discussion, the Governor felt that if an extra session were not called the benefits of tariff revision would be postponed practically for two years.

How to Bankrupt the Doctors

A prominent New York physician says, "If it were not for the thin stockings and thin soled shoes worn by women the doctors would probably be bankrupt." When you contract a cold do not wait for it to develop into pneumonia but treat it at once. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is intended especially for coughs and colds, and has won a wide reputation by its cures of these diseases. It is most effectual and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by all dealers.
