This Will be the Last Week of Our 10th Anniversary Sale.

Next Saturday night this wonderful sale closes. You remember we told you last Sunday we had bought about $100,000 worth of new goods for this sale. We have lots assorted that came here for this sale. We started off with greater bargains than we did last week, and new goods added all over the house. The whole city of Columbia and for miles in all directions have been moved by this sale. Our Tenth Anniversary and $100,000 worth of new goods to celebrate the event, certainly brought loud huzzas from all over this State. It outweighs half-arranged sales so much the most obstinate and stupid starers are as enthusiastic and excited as the keen managers. Come, every one and shake hands with the greatest sale ever held in this city. Meet progressive prosperity and take some of both home with you. This is the last week for you to buy new goods at the price they will be sold for in this sale. We did not give this sale to make money for ourselves; that was not the idea at all. We are giving this function in honor of our customers and the big success we have attained in this city during the past ten years. We speak every word of this with caution and sincerity. Our customers are deserving of the great benefits we are giving them in this sale, for their patronage has built up this great business here. If we failed to appreciate what the people of South Carolina have done for us in a business way, we would be unfit neighbors, or citizens, of this famous State. Under the light of a thousand suns you can put to test the merchandising and methods of the Tapp Company, and they will measure up absolutely, straight, clean and right, and as the years go by we will continue to hew to the line of "justice for all."
