CIRCULATION 2,300.

On account of the annual report of Treasurer Wingard we are compelled to carry over till next week some interesting articles, among them being a lengthy article written by Senator Sharpe, favoring the dispensary for Lexington county and one by the anti-dispensary committee.

To our patrons and correspondents. We ask that all changes for advertisements and copy for new ads. be put into our hands not later than 12 o'clock Monday. Our correspondents will also please send in all matter for publication by this time. We like to come out on time and the only way we can do so is to get advertisements and all other copy in early.

TRIP TO UP-COUNTRY.

Having been sick for about eight months and recovering sufficiently for a much needed outing, Thursday of last week we left here going via of Columbia to Spartanburg where we met up with that genial gentleman, Mr. Hester, proprietor of the Argyle Hotel, who is a great host. After a sumptuous tea we repaired to the lobby to chat about the famous and growing city of Spartanburg, which has grown wonderfully in its manufacturing and business enterprises during the past few years. Today it is one of the most popular and thrifty cities of the up-country. Our stay in the Spartan City was so brief that we cannot give our readers even a bird's-eye view of its many embellishments, as we left on the early morning train for Greenville.

At Greenville we were met and entertained beyond expression by our friend, Mr. John Brandon, who is a wholesome fellow, and his kindness and hospitality was unbounded. We were conveyed by auto over various districts of this thriving business and manufacturing city, which is one of the best in the State, which the exhibits at the "big horse show" a few weeks ago evidenced. We would not attempt to give her growth in manufacturing and business enterprises since our last visit twelve years ago. Her elegant and large stores are lavishly filled with everything in the mercantile line.

Greenville has always been known as an educational centre and has an urbane and highly cultured citizenship. The business men are kind and courteous and arduous in business pursuits. It is indeed a busy city. In the residential districts we found palatial and commodious residences situated on beautiful streets, which are sanitary and up-to-date in every phase of a progressive city.

Sunday we motored out to Piedmont a little city by the Saluda twelve miles below Greenville. This is quite a noteworthy little town with a population of about three thousand. Especially did we note the fine crops between Greenville and Piedmont on our return to Greenville. Corn and cotton crops are looking fine. The foliage of the verdure fields and the gentle summer breezes soothingly greeted the passerby. We could almost see the lightning bugs and hear the "Sweet Whippoorwill Song."

We could not leave Greenville without shaking the hand of our venerable friend Col. Geo. R. Koester, publisher of the Greenville Evening Piedmont. His familiar laugh is the juvenescence for an old man, at any rate, is good for one with indigestion. A man of his characteristics and temperament could not do otherwise than give Greenville her deserts in journalism. "Uncle Josh" wishes him continued success.

Monday evening in the moonlight we had a most delightful auto ride out to the Southern Power plant on the Saluda river which furnishes "juice" for the city of Greenville. To say we enjoyed our visit is expressing it mildly. We were glad to get there and loath to leave. G. M. H.

Still An Old Bachelor.

While in Greenville last week it was indeed a pleasure to meet our old friend and kinsman, John McCracken, who has accumulated some property there and is doing well for an old fellow. In fact he is second chief of Stadler's Hill. He is still an old bachelor and is as genial and clever as of yore, sits on his porch and cheerfully whistles, "Hard Times Come No More."

The Markets.

Lexington.—Cotton, middling, 12c. Savannah.—Turpentine 36c.

On His Return.

Brooks J. Wingard, the eldest son of our citizen, Col. J. Brooks Wingard, who is the regularly appointed private secretary to Congressman Lever, but was granted a leave of absence from his duties as secretary in order that he could tour Europe as secretary to the rural credits commission is now on his return to this country. We received a postcard from him mailed at Paris. "Brooks" is one of our home boys who is winning fame for himself. He graduated at the University of South Carolina and studied law at Georgetown University of Washington and is bound to make a useful man.

A. T. Mack Dead.

Albert Taylor Mack, a son of Dr. B. S. Mack, of Leesville and brother of Mr. P. J. Mack, died in Birmingham, Ala., at the home of a married sister who resides there, on last Thursday. His remains were brought to Leesville accompanied by his brother, Mr. P. J. Mack, and interred in the cemetery at that place Saturday. He was about nineteen years old, a clever young man and had many friends. He was guard on the chaingang of this county when Capt Mack had charge and was well liked by our people. The cause of his death was meningitis.

Jacobs Second Inquest

The inquiry, or second inquest, consuming two days brought out little new testimony as to the Jacobs tragedy. The verdict of the second hearing is that of the first jury: "During the night of June the 27th the said deceased persons came to their death at the hands of a party or parties unknown to this jury." The death of the family is still unexplained. What, if any, will be the next step in the investigation is not known. Magistrate Frick dismissed the jury subject to call and this may indicate a possible further inquiry later.

A Good Selection.

We learn that Mr. G. Heber Ballentine, who recently graduated at Newberry College, has been elected principal of Little Mountain high school for ensuing session. He is a bright young man who has attained success under difficulties and we predict a future for him untold.

A Good Place To Stop At.

HERE AT HOME

Lexington Citizens Testify and Confidently Recommend Doan's Kidney Pills.

It is testimony like the following that has placed Doan's Kidney Pills so far above competitors. When people right here at home raise their voice in praise there is no room left for doubt. Read the public statement of a Lexington citizen:
H. A. Howard, Lexington, S. C., says: "For eight or ten years I was afflicted with disordered kidneys. I suffered a great deal from pains in the small of my back. My back ached and often became nervous. Headaches and dizzy spells were common and my sight was affected. The kidney secretions caused me no end of annoyance. Doan's Kidney Pills were finally brought to my attention and I procured a supply at the Kautmann Drug Co. Harmon Drug Co., Successors. In a short time after I began their use, I was relieved."
For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.
Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other. 39 adv.

Crops are suffering seriously for want of rain and the outlook at present is very discouraging.
A fine crop of small grain, oats and wheat have been threshed, and if rain comes soon a fair crop of corn and cotton can yet be produced.
J. E. Shealy is erecting a handsome residence in the town of White Rock, which, when finished, will be the most imposing structure in town.
A considerable number of the members of the churches served by the Rev. V. L. Fulmer met at the parsonage at White Rock Thursday to meet him and his bride, the latter being before marriage Miss Shell of Hickory, N. C. A. beautiful picnic dinner was served in the grove near the parsonage and was enjoyed by the pastor and people.
Mr. Fulmer enters upon his work with the hearty cooperation of his people and his prospects are very encouraging for a successful ministry in his charge.

IN SUCH PAIN WOMAN TORE HER CLOTHES

Testifies She Was Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Malone, N. Y. — "Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has certainly done me a lot of good. I first heard of it when I was a girl and I always said that if I ever had female trouble I would take it."

"I suffered from organic inflammation and would have spells when I would be in such pain that I would tear my clothes. One day my husband got the neighbors in to see what the matter was but they could not help me. My first thought was for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I sent my husband out for it and took it until I was entirely cured. I am a woman of perfect health and my health and happiness came from Lydia E. Pinkham's medicine. You may rest assured that I do all I can to recommend your wonderful medicine to my friends." — MRS. FRED STONE, Route No. 3, Malone, N. Y.

The success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, is unparalleled. It may be used with perfect confidence by women who suffer from displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the standard remedy for female ills.
