Commissioners Meet.

The Board of County Commissioners, Supervisor c. E. corley, John W. Smith and W. L. Addy, met in regular session here Monday and transacted a large amount of business for the time of year. A large amount of checks were paid out of the commutation tax fund for building and repairing bridges, road work, lumber, etc., besides a considerable amount on contingent accounts.

Suffered Eczema Fifty Years---

Seems a long time to endure the awful burning, itching, smarting skin-disease known as "tetter"—another name for Eczema. Seems good to realize, also, that DR. HOBSON'S ECZEMA OINTMENT has proven a perfect cure.

Mrs. D. L. Kenney writes:—"I can not sufficiently express my thanks to you for your Dr. Hobson's Eczema Ointment. It has cured my tetter, which has troubled me for over 50 years." Harmon Drug Co., or by mail, 50c. PFEIFFER CHEMICAL CO., St. Louis, Mo. Philadelphia, Pa. Adv.

Minister Praises this Laxative

Rev. H. Stubenvoll, of Allison, Ia., in praising Dr. King's New Life Pills for constipation, writes:—"Dr. King's New Life Pills are such perfect pills no home should be without them." No better regulator for the liver and bowels. Every pill guaranteed. Trythem. Price 25c at Harmon Drug Cc.

Gone to Baltimore.

Miss Liela Rhoden, who has been running an up-to-date millinery parlor here for the past season, is visiting ther parents at Wards for a few days. While away she will go to Atlanta and Baltimore for her next season's hats and notions. Her sister, Miss Pearle, will take charge of her parlor while she is away.

Board of Registration.

Messrs. L. W. Wise and Hollie Shealy, members of the Board of Registration, were here Monday, but as the law forbids the issuing of certificates within thirty days of an election, the board had no business to transact and the meeting was dispensed with.

Postmaster Antoine Deloria, Gardner, Mich., speaks for the guidance of those troubled with kidney and bladder irregularities, and says "From my own experience I can recommend Foleys Kidney Pills. My father also was cured of kidney disease, and many neighbors were cured by Foley Kidney Pills." At Harman Drug Store.

Two Neighl. re.
Two neighbors kept hens and quarreled because they scratched each other's potato rows up. One sold his hens unknown to the other, who made a large run and fastened his hens up,

"Now the first hen I see in my ganden I shall shoot."

Next day he saw a hen scratching as usual, so he got the gun and show it, then threw it over his neighbor's rails, saying: "Take your hen!" The hen was picked up, taken in, and cooked.

The following days the same thing happened. Still the neighbor took them up and said nothing, till the seventh came over and hit him on the head. Then he picked it up, and threw it back at his neighbor, saying: "Eat your own hens. We are tired of eating them, and prefer a little pheasant. I sold my hens over a month since!"

"Comes Before Meat"

"Grace Before Meat."
On the strength of the fact that they eat bread in the school playground without first saying grace, the children of Dunfermline have been charged with irreverence by Rev. Jacob Primmer.

Doubtless Mr. Primmer would gladly revert to the custom that prevailed during the time of Cromwell, when, according to Bishop Burnet, people
"said grace both before and after meat, sometimes for the length of a whole hour."

An Ayrshire minister who died a few years ago once dined with a lady of the old school who requested him to say grace. This he did in a petition of two sentences. But to his surprise and humiliation his hostess darted on him a glance of contemptuous amazement, and then, turning to her husband, said, in tones that brooked no denial: "Go on, yersel' gudeman."—Glasgow News.

Kitchen or Pulpit,

In preaching the minister had been rather long winded, when the young bride remembered that she had left the Christmas dinner in the gas range without regulating the flame. She hastily wrote a note and slipped it to her husband, who was an usher. He, thinking it was intended for the minister, calmly walked up and laid it on the pulpit.

The minister paused in the midst of his sermon and took the note with a smile which changed into a terrific frown as he read:

"Please hurry home and shut off the gas."—Ladies Home Journal.

PROCLAMATION.

State of South Carolina, (County of Lexington.)

WHEREAS, a petition has been filed with me, from which it appears that 2073 electors residing in Lexington county have signed the same, praying for an election upon the question of "Dispensary" or "No Dispensary" in Lexington county, in accordance with an Act passed by the General Assembly of this State at its 1912 session,

AND WHEREAS, under the said act I am appointed to investigate and report whether or not the petitioners constitute one-third of the qualified electors of said county,

AND WHEREAS, after a full and careful investigation I am led to believe that this number would be one-third of the qualified electors of Lexington county,

NOW, THEREFORE, I. C. E. Corley, Supervisor of the county of Lexington, in the State of South Carolina, by virtue of the power conferred upon me by the Act of the General Assembly of this State at its 1912 session, do hereby order.

hereby order,

1. That an election be held in Lexington county on the third Tuesday in August, (the 19th day) 1913, upon the question of "Dispensary" or "No Dispensary" and at the said election the qualified electors within the county shall vote upon the question, those favoring the Dispensary shall vote "For sale of Alcoholic Liquors and Beverages," and those opposed, "Against the sale of Alcoholic Liquors and Beverages."

2. That the Commissioners of State and County Elections of Lexington county do make all necessary arrangements for holding said election at the polling places now established by law in said county, and do all other things necessary and required of them by law for the holding and conduct of said election;

3. That said election shall be held and conducted under the same rules and regulations that are provided for by law for regular and general elections in this state; that the managers of said election shall make a written return of the number of votes cast for and against the Dispensary and together with the ballot box, ballots and poll lists, the same shall be turned over to the Commissioners of Elections for Lexington county as required by law; Chat said Commissioners of Elections shall in accordance with the law, tabulate the votes and declare the result of said election and make proper returns thereof as required by law, to the Governor of the State and to the Secretary of State, also file copies of the same in the office of Clerk of Court of Common Pleas and General Sessions for Lexington County.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the Supervisor to be affixed at Lexington, S. C., this the 30th day of June, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, and in the one hundred and thirty-seventh year of the Sovereignty and Independence of the United States of America.

Barbecue--Farmers' Institute

In order to accommodate the people attending the Farmers' Institute to be held on our farm, four miles west of Pelion, on August 20th, we will on that date, furnish one of the best 'cues of the season.

The Institute will be held in a big, shady grove, entirely surrounded by fields, where their will be nothing to prevent you from getting a good breeze while you are eating a good dinner, or sitting and listening to the speakers of the day.

You should be sure to come to this meeting as it is the first of this kind to be held right out on the farm with the farmers. We will have a good shade and a cold drink for the warm and thirsty traveler, a good dinner for the hungry, good speaking for all who wish to listen and a good band to furnish the music while the young folks talk. So come out and look and listen for yourself.
