Mysteriously Disappears.

Mr. Haskell Lucas, a young farmer living in the Gaston section, carried a bale of cotton to Columbia last Monday and mysteriously disappeared in that evening. He was last seen by Lawrence Mack near the "Gut" south of the Congaree bridge. Whether he was murdered and robbed of money he had received for his cotton is not known. He had threatened suit against the Bell Telephone Co. for injuries received in the early spring from a wire hanging across the road in which What it takes to ride you easy and he was traveling, belonging to the company. It is said that the company had agreed to compromise the case and that young Lucas might have received the money and boarded the train on his way home for parts unknown, as he had talked of doing on several occasions. The team was found in the ### Elegant Apparel Fresh From the Needle-Big Diversity in Style and Price-If from Mimnaugh's it's Correct. Suits! Suits!

To tell you that we have gathered greater numbers of more beautiful dresses this season than ever before is but to tell you what will probably be the first expression of those who know us best.

The styles are not simple, the richness of fabrics, of colors and the masses of laces and nets rob the evening and afternoon dresses of simplicity and create glory that is new.

The word "Fancy" fits in with the new styles, as the cutaway coats, the draped skirts, the trimmings (fur bands, skunk, fitch, broadtail, chinchilla and ermine, tapestry and velvet vests, velvet buttons, collars and cuffs) and the fabrics-velour, matellasse, diagonals, wool failles, wool crepes, duvetyne and peau de peche-all these tend to make suits this season fancy and the colors, rich mahogany shades, the greens-bottle and bronze-the prune shades, tete de negre.

New Silks and Crepes.

These are the fabrics of the season. See the big display now on. 25,000 yards of silks, Broche, Poplin, Crepe de Chine, Charmeuse Satin, Silk and Wool Poplin, Crinkled Crepe and other plain and fancy silks; 40 to 42 inches wide. Regular prices, yard, 75c, $1, $1.50 and $2.

15,000 yards of silks, Egyptian Crepe, Crepe de Chine, Crinkle Crepes and Canton Crepes in over 150 shades.
