

George Baxter, Captured

Lexington, S. C., Oct. 13.—George Baxter, a desperate negro who escaped from the Lexington county chain-gang four years ago last February, was captured in Wilmington, N. C., by Sheriff Sim J. Miller on Saturday, after a search of more than four years. Baxter had served but one month of a three-year sentence for larceny of live stock, he having been convicted of having stolen two cows from the pasture of a Lexington county farmer. Baxter, along with three other negroes made a dash for liberty while the chain-gang was located in the Dutch Fork, and made a successful get-away. Two of the other three have been captured, and with the capture of Baxter, leaves only one of the four at large.

Sheriff Miller caught Baxter in less than thirty minutes after landing in the North Carolina city, the officer having previously located his man.

Baxter is one of the most desperate men with which the county has had to deal in many years. Previous to his trial he made a fierce attack on Sheriff Miller in an effort to escape jail, but the Sheriff's wonderful presence of mind and absolute strength subdued the prisoner.

"I am sho" glad to get back, boss," said Baxter yesterday afternoon as he alighted from the sheriff's automobile. "I have not seen a bit of pleasure nor peace of mind since I left, and I'm going to be good from this on. I was looking for Sheriff Miller every minute, for I knew that he was on my trail and would catch me sooner or later. I just decided that I would not try to hide further, and when I saw the Sheriff in Wilmington on Saturday I was the happiest man in town."

Baxter was carried back to the chain-gang in the Dutch Fork to-day.

Governor Blaise is still emphatic in his declaration that he will not sign any more bonds or have anything to do with the matter of bonds until after the next general assembly has taken some action.

Quick Help to Backache and Rheumatism

The man or woman who wants quick help from backache and rheumatism, will find it in Foley Kidney Pills. They act so quickly and with such good effect that weak, inactive kidneys that do not keep the blood clean and free of impurities, are toned up and strengthened to healthy vigorous action. Good results follow their use promptly. Harmon Drug Store. adv.

Messrs. Carl Counts, H. P. Williams, Ellis Eford and Norman Westinger went to Columbia Wednesday to represent Newberry college at the annual conference of the Young Men's Christian associations.—Herald and News.

Henry A. Johnston, a business man of L'Anse, Mich., writes: "For years Foley's Honey and Tar Compound for coughs and colds has been our family medicine. We give it to our children, who like it on account of its pleasant taste. It is a safe cure for coughs and colds." It contains no opiates. At Harmon Drug Co. adv.

Reel-Callison.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Reel, of Edgefield, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Margaret Elizabeth, to Mr. T. Cleveland Callison, of Lexington, the marriage to take place in December. No announcement in recent years will call-forth more sincere and genuine congratulations. Mr. Callison is the junior member of the Lexington law firm of Messrs. Thurmond, Timmerman & Callison, and, since coming to Lexington two years ago, by his gentlemanly manner and christian bearing has endeared himself to every one with whom he has come in contact. He is a graduate of the University of South Carolina, and is a young lawyer of rare ability, having but few equals as an advocate, and being a wise and careful counsellor. He has many friends throughout the State who will learn of his approaching marriage with keen interest and pleasure.

Miss Reel is one of the most talented and charming young women of Edgefield, and is equally as popular as the intended bride-groom. All Lexington, in advance of the happy event, extend to these popular young people most cordial good wishes.

DECIDE YOURSELF

The Opportunity Is Here, backed by Lexington Testimony.

Don't take our word for it. Don't depend on a stranger's statement.

Read Lexington endorsement. Read the statements of Lexington citizens.

And decide for yourself.

Here is one case of it: George B. Lee, Factory Hill, Lexington, S. C., says: "I still think highly of Doan's Kidney Pills and confirm all I said in their praise some years ago. I suffered from attacks of kidney complaint for many years. Doan's Kidney Pills, which I procured from the Kaufmann Drug Co., were the first remedy that helped me. I shall always recommend them when I have an opportunity."

"When Your Back is Lame—Remember the Name." Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mr. Lee had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50c all stores. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. adv. 51
