

Edisto Dots.

(Crowded out from last week.)

Everything on the Edisto is very quiet.

Several fat hogs were slaughtered the first of last week and we thought pudding, sausage, chicken, etc a very nice dish to set before a gentleman in time of a big snow.

Mr. Webster Frick spent the greater portion of last week in Columbia on business.

Miss Nealie Peel is spending some time in and around Sally among relatives.

Mr. Oscar Senn and family spent the day Sunday at the home of Mr. Jinks Jefcoat.

Mr. Leroy Derrick, of White Rock, was the guest of Miss Leila Peel.

Mr. G. H. Wingard and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Yonce, of Pelion, made a flying trip Sunday over to Hopewell in Mr. Wingard's car.

Miss Josephine Kirkland spent a week with her friend, Mrs. Clarence Jefcoat near Swansea.

Mr. Gary Toole and sister, Miss Annie Toole, of Sally, spent a day and night with their Uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Peel.

Messrs Willie B. Drigger and Wolfe Jefcoat made us a pleasant call Saturday.

We were glad to see at church Sunday our friend, Miss Tattie Cooper, of North.

Mrs. Mary Jinks Jefcoat was the guest of Mrs. Minnie Senn last week.

Mr. Willie M. Laird spent a night with Mr. Webster Frick last week.

Mr. George W. Jefcoat and uncle Dick Peel, made a flying trip recently to Lexington C. H. in Mr. Jefcoat's car, Uncle Dick says that Lexington is the place.

Mr. Otis Kirkland has purchased a pair of fine mules.

Messrs. Charlie Cooper and Otis Peel visited at Sally one day last week.

We are very glad indeed to know that little Mrs. E. O. Sharpe who has been quite sick is so improved as to be able to be up again. Mrs. Sharpe is one of the most estimable women of our community and we do hope that very soon she may be enjoying her usual good health.

We wish to thank our good mail carrier, Mr. C. M. Staly, for the many sweet kisses that he brought us a few days ago sealed up.

Little Johnnie.

The Junior Handicraft Club.

Last Saturday afternoon, Feb. 28th, 12 young girls met with Misses Katie Lou and Blossie Clark, and organized a club to be known as the "The Junior Handicraft Club". These girls will sew, embroider, stencil and block-print. A part of their work will be given to "The Ladies School Improvement League" for their Christmas Bazaar this fall. The work of this club will be conducted by Miss Pearl Clark, who has studied Manual Arts in Winthrop College. The following are the officers and members: President, Miss Pearl Clark; Vice-President, Miss Blossie Clarke; Secretary, Miss Edith Lyles; Treasurer, Miss Sarah Mildred Berley; members, Misses Sarah Black, Sarah Mildred Berley, Mary Bibb, Blossie Clark, Katie Lou Clark, Annie Corley, Annie Laura Oallier, Pearlie Caughman, Edith Lyles, Marguerite Lorick, Marguerite Dent, Jannita George and Sarah Meetze.

Mad Dog Bites Mrs. Mitchell.

Anderson, March 5.—Mrs. Newton Mitchell, who lives on the place of Mr. G. W. Tucker in Varennes township, six miles south of this city, was attacked and bitten by a mad dog Sunday afternoon. The dog, which was a gray fox about the size of a fox, scampered away before she could get assistance, and so far as is known it is still at large.

Mrs. Mitchell is at her home, but Mr. Tucker came to the city today to telegraph to Columbia for the necessary medicine for Pasteur treatment. This medicine should arrive tomorrow, and Mrs. Mitchell will begin her course immediately.

The last seen of the little gray dog was shortly after the attack made on Mrs. Mitchell. The people of that community made an exhaustive search, but without success.

Before leaving the community the dog succeeded in biting several other dogs. Some of these have been put to death, and the others have been put up to await developments.

Mule-Footed Hogs Common.

South Boston, Va., March 9.—E. B. Craddock of Chester Springs, Va., has been raising mule-footed hogs in quantities for four years. He sells them for a big price although they do not seem to differ much from ordinary pigs.
