Look out for the mark; it signifies that the paid time of the Subscriber receiving it has expired.

Advertisers are respectfully informed that their favors must be handed in by 12 o'clock on Tuesday of each week, to insure insertion.

Post masters are requested to act as Agents for the Herald for which we will allow the usual commission.

The press upon our columns for advertising space excludes a variety of inter-

SALE DAY .- Town was crowded Monday last. Land, Furniture, horses, mules,

A great deal of land was disposed of at excellent prices. One tract brought something over sixteen dollars per acre, in gold. Who'll best that? DAN CASTELLO'S CIRCUS drew an immense concourse of people to town last Friday. The troupe is well appoint-And the performances generally, brought him much persecution. 'LUCK .- It is always better to be born lucky than rich; riches take wings and fly away, but luck sticks to one, be it good or bad. There are folks who live in the hope of something turning up which never does, but with us luck is not so shy, and why? we carry a lucky penny, and then besides we are lucky in making it a point to look at the new moon always straightforward, never over the left shoulder, for reason of which, big potatoes, big turnips, big links of fat, juicy sausages, big pieces of cake and various other big things are constantly being crowded upon ms. The big potatoes brought in this week are something to crow over, one weighing 82 and another 7 pounds, and from our very estimable friend and Pomaria, to whom we return many

P. S. That good farmer and clever man, Mr. J. K. Schumpert, will accept our thanks for a fine mess of big turnips.

THE SOUTH .- The South is receiving about this time a good deal of advicesome of it is wise, and some of it otherfrom an article in the Mcbile Times, stands, we suppose, in the former classi-

Let us, therefore, be patient; nations are not erased from the face of the world at the word of a parcel of petty tyrants. Two millions and a half armed men have passed like a scourge over our land, and aiready their fiery track is covered with bluoming harvests. What these hordes could not accomplish with the sword and torch is not going to be accomplished by the verbose declamations of a Sumner or the mad and rabid divagations of a Stevens.

Let the South, we sav, stand aloof from the theatre of national politics; let her avail herself of this time of repose, to revise her domestic code. Let her turn to intellectual pursuits, from which she has allowed herself to become estranged, and, uniting her efforts on the great sheatre of industry, retrieve her wealth and prosperity, and come out of this trying period like gold from the crucible, clear from all its native inherent im-

JOHN G. MILNOR & Co. - The return of its. the Fall Trade and the restoration of the health of this city have witnessed the resumption of business by many of those of our merchants who have most largely contributed their perseverance and energies to the material prosperity of this city, but by none whom we more heartily congratulate than MILNOR & Co. Establishing, anterior to the war, by their integrity and enterprize, a large and successful trade, the gentlemen composing this firm had acquired a reputation for skill in their management which had age to their House, and which, but for find, elsewhere. the financial disasters that ensued, upon the fall of the Confederacy, would doubtless have made them, in a very few years, cies of trade. In common with all of us, however, they experienced calamitous reverses which appear to have interrupted their usefulness, only long enough to Weare happy to notice that MILNOR & Co., have engaged and are now occupying establishment on Main street. the large and spacious building No. 183 Meeting-street, where they have prepared facilities and accommodations for the conduct of the Auction and Commission Business, to which Mr. John G. MILNOR, the senior partner, will deve chis personal attention. The Wholesale Dry Goods the satisfaction of an ocular examination. Business will hereafter be carried on under the name of MILNOR, WILBUR & any kind of work done in this line to send MARTIN, at the old stand, No. 135, where | their orders direct to him, as thereby desirable stock of Fancy and Domestic | where such orders are sent to the North. Dry Goods of every variety, and of J. MENDELL-Has just opened a first qualities unsurpassed by any which class dry goods house, his goods having have ever been offered in this market.

ably known in this city and elsewhere, might be profited by a visit to his store. of the young ladies in that town for the but we cannot refrain from commending them unreservedly to our readers as, in every way, courteous, reliable and liberal in their transactions.

[Charleston Courier.

A common sense writer of the South says "we can no longer afford to buy spite of the politicians.

Visit to Columbia and its Results. Our visit to Columbia last week revealed the pleasing sight of beautiful and commodious structures fast taking the place of blackened walls and piles of rubbish. On every hand are buildings under course of erection, and many of them exceeding in beauty and uniformity those of former days. But with all these signs of activity, energy and enterprise, the saddening sight of ugly gaps are many, and will long remain a monument of shame to the perpetrators. Among the things of a pleasing character we might allude to, was an hour spent at Nickerson's, with Hamilton of that House, and the witty and gentlemanly reporter, Mr. Sparnock, of the Charleston Courier, and another hour at Mrs. Speck's, known as the Shiver House, at both of which and a thousand so forths were sold .places, eloquence, elegance and plenty. prevailed to a degree unsual to poor upcountry editors, but we cannot dwell upon this or other pleasures, sights or scenes; our principal business was with the enterprising, liberal merchants of Columbia, and owing altogether to the flattering notices of Mr. DeFontaine of the Carolinian, and Mr. Selby of the were very creditable. Dan is said to be Fonix, who made mention of the distina Tennesseean by birth. His affection guished arrival of our important self in for the South during her struggles that city, and our business, the representative of the Herald was largely 1eceived, as the several notices of cards found appended will show. We were glad to note the prosperous condition of the Carolinian and Phœnix, the liberality with which they are patronized shows a just appreciation of these two excellent papers. Mr. Selby has just removed to his large t' .ce story building on Main street, which for admirable inside arrangement in all business details, is gratifying to a printer's eye. His energy and perseverance under difficulties, show him to be possessed of the stuff that men are sometimes made of. But to our friends the merchants: C. F. Jackson. - This gentleman has but lately taken possession of a commodious building on Main Street, and shows to advantage a stock of dry goods, staple subscriber, Mrs. Christian Suber, of and fancy goods, which would ravish the up-country eye in point of elegance and beauty. A tew purchases made there showed that the prices of his goods were by no means out of the reach of persons of limited pecuniary advantages.

R. & W. C. SWAFFIELD. - We know not where we can better recommend gentlemen in need of outfits than to These enterprising young gentlemen this old and well known clothing house. have formed a copartnership in the Gro On looking over the stock we were struck | cery and Dry Goods business. with the variety of styles and the tasty | JOHN RISER, Admr. - Calls attention display. Visitors to the city would do well to call on them and examine before purchasing elsewhere.

Maj. J. Meighan-In the boot and shoe line, occupies a convenient and attractive location. His acquaintance is so extensive, and his information in this branch of business'so well known, that we deem it only necessary to inform his friends that he can be found on Main street, opposite the beautiful China Hall of our old friend Capt. Stanly.

M. A. SHELTON-Almost immediately opposite, has just opened an elegant assortment of boots and shoes, and but that we fear giving offence to the Major, and getting up a difficulty between the gentlemen, and thereby lose a future advertisement, we would say the same of him as the other.

J. C. DIAL-The Hardware man, is absolutely surrounded, piled up, with hardware of every pattern, use and kind. Front store, back store and cellar covering over two hundred feet. Two hundred feet of hardware to select from is an inducement to country purchasers, sel- moral skirts. This movement results dom offered, and we predict speedy vis- from the manifest advantage which must

S. T. McCAUGHRIN & Co. - In the Grocery and Commission business appeal in the first to the softer senses, and fill you with good things ad infinitum. As commission merchants too we recommend free of the heavy revenue charges which them to the favorable notice of the pub- would be levied on the same goods if

P. B. GLASS-The book and stationery man, is the occupant of the cosiest and showiest room ever seen, and his display is alike flattering to his taste and pleasing to the eye of visitors. We remem-ber Peter B. since his boyhood, and would like to say something flattering, out that he might think hard of it, and will only remark that he's gentle and attracted an exceedingly enviable patron- he's kind, and his like you'll no where

E. E. JACKSON .- We were pleased to find this old friend so well fixed and driving a fine business in Drugs, Medicines, Perfumery, &c., but not surprised independent of the pecuniary contingen- at his popularity. Affable, kind and attentive with his qualifications as a Druggist, no wonder he has worked himself nto public favor. Mas. C. E. REED-In the milinery and funcy line claims a large share of attenenergize them to the further development tion. Her business qualifications and of their business qualifications and re- long acquaintance in this branch gives her peculiar advantages. Her stock is full and complete, embracing everything that ladies usually require. Visit her

E. R. STOKES-Announces his re-establishment in the Book binding business, after being Shermanized, and is now better prepared than before to execute work in his line, having the latest improved machines and the best of material. We can youch for the truth of this, having had It is a fact worthy the attention of all persons wanting blank books made, or they have now in store a very large and they will save perhaps an item of charge,

J. MENDELL-Has just opened a first been all purchased at first hands and have ever been offered in this market.

It may be superflous for us to say anything of the personnel of a firm so favorthing of the personnel of a firm so favor and Forwarding Merchants, Gervais St., Columbia, S. C. Planters will find it to attractions, adds that instead of the de-

Browne & Schirmer-Though last are RAIL ROAD OBSTRUCTIONS.-Some mawith ready money every lucifer match, by no means least. This firm though licious individuals built, some day last nail, axe, shoe-peg, saddle wagon, hat young have by an active and well turned week, a fence across the Railroad track, and everything else we need, from the Morth." That's it, make such things, and if you display half the genius and industry you exhibited during the war industry you exhibited the house of the your industry your exhibited the your industry your exhibited the yo Charleston and other Advertisements.

HUNT & Bro-Commission merchants, Charleston are agents for the concentrated corn and cotton fertilizer, which having been tested is proved to be equal to Guano used in the same field. This fertilizer is highly recommended and planters will do well to send on their orders which will be promptly filled.

MILNOR, WILBER & MARTIN-Dry goods house, Charleston. A flattering notice of this house will be found in another column as also their advertisement, to both of which attention is called.

PAVILION HOTEL-This hotel is still open and conducted as of old in the best manner, and the travelling public in search of comfort or convenience cannot do better than visit it.

MERCHANTS HOTEL, Charleston, The friends of this old favorite will be pleased to learn that it is under the efficient management of Messrs. Savage & Ensign and open for their accommodation

Messes. Johnston, Crews & Co .-This well known wholesale firm, No. 41 Hayne st., Charleston, are direct importers of staple and fancy dry goods. Mills House.-Mr. Purcell has again efitted and refurnished his splendid

J. T KERR & Co., Kerr's Wharf, advertise pure Peruvian Guano, at lowest market prices. A large supply will always be kept on hand.

MESSRS. CARWILE & McCAUGHRIN, Banking and Insurance Agents, at Newberry, are prepared to buy and sell Exchange on Charleston and New York ; this is important to the business community. They are also Agents for some of the very best Insurance Companies now extant. Now is the time to insure your buildings, cotton, merchandize, etc., etc. Insurance is the best investment that can be made. See to it in time.

MR. RICHARD DAVIS advertises his plantation near New Market Depot, Abpeville Dist., for sale. It is said to be as handsome a place as can be found in the up country. Superb (fire proof brick) dwelling, elegantly furnished; barn, stables, Gin house, servants quarters, etc., etc. The grounds contain 820 acres, 400 of which is cleared.

MESSES. WILLIAMS & FERGUSON, have eft their notes and accounts in the hands f Y. J. Pope, Esq'r., for collection. See ad and govern yourselves accordingly. MR. CHAS. M. JONES has re-opened his carriage shop, and will make and repair all work in his line with neatness, cheapness and dispatch. MR. ROBERT STEWART, advertises a superior quality of axes and shoe thread, fore purchasing elsewhere. Messrs. Girardeau & Kittleband .-

persons indebted to the estate of G. A. Riser dec'd who are called upon to make payment of their indebtedness:

S. W. SPEARMAN-Will sell at his residence on the 22d of Nov., valuable property, for an enumeration of which see MESSES. ANTHONY & Co., New York, manufacturers of all kinds of Photographic materials, and have for sale, a great variety of Photographic and Stereoscopic views, Albums, &c. See card.

G. D. SMITH, notifies parties indebted to the firm of G. D. Smith & Co., that heir notes and accounts have been placed n the hands of Y. J. Pope for collection. W. H. WEBB, Esq.-To all whom it may concern.

MAYES & MARTIN. - Mules wanted.

THE MOUNTAIN COMING TO MAHOMET .-The Buffalo Express notices the removal of a large woolen manufacturing establish ment from Scotland to that city. It is proposed to manufacture woolen goods on a large scale, making a speciality of Balaccrue to the British manufacturer, in lacating his factory convenient to the raw material, thus avoiding heavy freights and also enabling him to put his goods in the hands of the American consumer manufactured abroad.

The advantages which have induced this discerning Scotchman to transfer his woolen mill to Buffalo, which is a desirable wool market, should also influence the lords of Manchester to establish factories in the cotton districts of the South. Would it not be wise for our State Legislatures to offer some special inducement to such investments, | pay it. by exempting capital invested in manufactures from taxation for a certain period? This idea was entertained with considerable favor years ago, and it applies with increased weight to our

MADAME RISTORI'S STREET COSTUME.-

A New York journal says: While on her way to the photographic gallery, Madame Ristori was attired in one of the most magnificent costumes ever seen in Broadway. Her dress was of the heaviest black damask silk, with large white stars woven into the texture of the fabric in a manner which made the stars look as if they were made of silver. This dress has been chosen in Paris as a peculiar compliment to the H. S. Iron, tastes of the American people, who are supposed to be so proud of seeing the Blue Stone.

stars of the flag displayed on all occasions. The head dress consisted of white lace Sugar Brown,... Refined, lappels of the msst costly and fairy-like workmanship, hung pendant and covering the ears, reaching down to where the dress was faster 1 at the throat. The head-dress was surmounted by several beautiful marabout feathers, and from each ear hung pendant a string of diamond drops, four in number-valued at $12,000 -very massive in their appearance. The parasol was one of the finest and beaviest white silk; in her hand she carried a Chinese fan of intricate workin the manufacture of powder and other &c., and, we can readily say that any this act, ought to be hunted up, and if war material, you will be constructed in order sent there will be satisfactorily found visited with condign punishment.

GRAESER & McJunkin, Commission purpose of giving themselves a clear their interest to intrust their business to sired result it gives them a "deadly, these gentlemen. See card in another waxy, whitey look, like a varnished corpse."

So far as we have been able to see and learn the tone of the press of the State and of the South is totally in opposition amendment. The Baltimore Evening Transcript of Times, as follows:

sadly disappointed. We can assure that Journal and the North in general that the South will never conseut to among hosts of others, will not abandon go down to thy grave well stricken in such living herces as Forrest, Hampton, years and full of honors."—Griffin Star. such living herces as Forrest, Hampton, Johnson and Lee. Never! No Never!!

An editor of one of our Florida exhanges reinarks that he admires tilters. because he likes to see as much of his lady friends as possible. He ought to be in their hearts, if they will not confess hung. We don't object, ourself, taking it with their lips, that from the day that an occasional peep at a strip of dimity or an inch or two of white stocking, but then we don't like to go the whole hog. Our Florida brother must improve his taste. - Waynesboro Times.

Miss Rye, the English agent for female emigration, has just sent out to Melborne one thousand young women the majority of whom are English, a considerable number Irish, and a few Scotch They are all girls qualified by physical health and moral character to take positions as servants of various ranks.

A chap inquired at the post office in Erie, the other day, for a letter for"Enery Hogden." He was told there was none. "Look ere," he replied a little angrily, "you've hexammened a hodd letter for my name. It don't commence with haitch! It begins with a ho! Look in the ole that's got the ho's !"

COMING IT ON THE ASSESSOR. - A bold assessor in Michigan notified an amateur midwife to pay her license; she answered that whatever she did in that way was to "accommodate" her neighbors, and heaped coals of fire upon the official's head by offering to bring him through gratis if he should ever be "in that precarious situation."

At the celebration of a marriage, a arge number of young ladies present, the minister said: "Those wishing to be joined in the holy bonds of matrimony will please stand up," and nearly all in to day's paper. Those in want of the above had better examine the same, be- the young ladies arose.

Nearly two thousand Germans leave Europe every week, for the United States, in the Bremen and Hamburg mail steamers. A company is established at Copenhagen to encourage the emigration of United States. The National Intelligencer publishes a list of ninety Generals who support the restoration policy of the President. Among them are Generals U.S. Grant, Wm. T. Sherman, George B. McClellan and other names of distinction. It is said that Confederate notes are vet taken by some country traders, under the impression that in some way or other the South will yet achieve inde-We have the authority of the Boston Transcript for saying that "the black neck chains worn by young ladies are the most uscless, 'dowdy' ornaments ever worn except by Indian squaws." London Jones, freedman, convicted ast week of the murder of Mr. A. D.

Walker, has been sentenced to be executed on Friday, the 30th of November. Mrs. Eva Lancaster, wife of an Edi tor in Texas, is conducting the paper while her husband is avoiding arrest by the Freedman's Bureau. There is a shop kept by a lady in New York, in the window of which appear these words: "No reasonable offers re-

It is estimated that three thousand emigrants have been killed on the route to Montana, this season.

The Illinois girl who lately lost her speech (save whispering, has had fortytwo offers of marriage. A Flemish newspaper actually bears the name of the Rousselærschleuwæodig-Why is the indorser of a note called a surety? Because he is almost sure to

A girl baby has been born at La Crosse with two tongues. Won't her husband catch it if she lives to have one. Junius says that a pretty woman is the only tyrant that man is not author! zed to resist.

Was Washington a conservative? [Parkersburg Times. No. He was a Virginia rebel.

Markets corrected weekly by Mayes and Mar-Produce Market-Wagon Price.

NEWBERRY, Nov. 6 .- Cotton market | facturer, a large lot of superiar Axes, equal, closed brisk at 311; Sales of week 150 or superior, to any Axes in the market. COLUMBIA, Nov. 6 .- Cotton 33 to 35,

Corn $1,60, Flour 12 to 18. New York, November 5-Noon. -Gold 48. Sterling dull, at 93, for sixty days. Cotton firmer, at 39 a 41.
7 P. M.—Gold 483. Flour quiet.

Wheat 2 a 3c. better MOBILE, November 5 .- Cotton sales today 1,500 bales-middlings 86. Market

Clinton True Witness. | 151d. - sales to-day 16,000 bales.

THE REV. LOVICK PIERCE. - This eminent divine and remarkable man, who has been filling the Methodist pulpit in to the acceptance of the Constitutional | this city for several days, is physically, mentally and morally a study for the thoughtful. He has few if any living the 26th irst., concludes an article on peers. He has been preaching the gosthis subject, in reply to the New York | pel constantly, faithfully and ably for sixty-two years, having commenced his "We hardly know how to reply to labors in 1804, being now 82 years of this article in a serious vein. Does the age, yet, on Sunday last, he preached Times really hope that the Southern two sermons of over an hour's length People are going to turn their backs up-on those who fought, and bled, and gave besides. What a living hero? Let the their all to their cause? If so, it will be youths of the present day behold and listen to this exemplification of the man of God-take heed to his counsels, and live as he has lived. "Then shall thy throw coloquy upon the graves of their days be long in the land which the Lord cherished and illustrious dead, and, thy God giveth thee." and "thou shalt thy God giveth thee," and "thou shalt

> "THAT'S WHAT'S THE MATTER?"-Why are the Mongrels so fearful lest all their work will be undone, that they work to blind this generation and all future ones not to disturb it? Because they know Mr. Lincoln called out 75,000 men to coerce the Southern States, to this, they have done scarcely one constitutional act! That's what's the matter!

CARWILE & McCAUGHRIN,

Banking & Insurance Agents,

NEWBERRY, S. C.,

Buy and Sell Exchange on Charles-ton and New York.

Insure Buildings, Cotton, Merchandize and other property, against loss or damage by fire. Nov 7 2mo.

Carriage Shop,

C. M. JONES, Newberry C. H., So. Ca.,

Respectfully informs the citizens of Newberry and surrounding country that he has re opened his carriage shop, and is now prepared ta execute all work in his line in the neatest manner, and with dispatch.

Carriages, Buggies, Wagons, &c. Nov 7 6mo

Will make and repair

Copartnership Notice. THE undersigned have this day formed a partnership, under the name and style of Girardeau & Kittleband, for the purpose of carrying on a general Grocery and Dry Goods business, in the Town of G M. GIRARDEAU, Newberry. S. D. KITTLEBAND. Nov. 7. 3t. Notice.

PERSONS indebted to the late firm of Williams & Ferguson, Druggists, will find their notes and accounts in my hands for collection. Dr. Edward Ferguson, to whom all the assets of this firm have assigned, MUST have the money before the 1st of January next. Office over Fair & Moorman, Law Range. Nov. 7th, 1866

To All Whom IT MAY CONCERN!

Know all men by these presents, that I. WM. H. WEBB, of the Village of Newberry, State of South good health, do by these presents declare that I have been accused of putting the prices of goods down much to the detriment of both JEW and Gentile.

I W. H. Webb, therefore, do from this date declare that I have made arrangements, by which I will be able to supply | Cotton sent to our care will be forwarded all who favor me with a call, with goods at a still GREATER REDUCTION in prices. I have a large stock of goods on the way | their business. and shortly to be opened at fabulously low prices, and to convince the public of this it will be only necessary for them to Very respectfully,

W. H. WEBB. Nov. 7, 45-tf.

WANTED 12 Number One

MULES. MAYES & MARTIN.

SMITH & CHRISTIAN'S SALOON,

ON MAIN ST., NEWBERRY, IS now handsomely furnished and well supplied with all kinds of pure liquors.

NOTICE. ALL persons indebted to the Estate of

Geo. A. Riser deceased, are requested to make payment on or before the first day of January next. And those having demands will please present them on or JOHN RISER, before that day.

AXES, AXES. Just received and direct from the manu-

Shoe Thread.

Just received a lot of the very best Shoe bread imported. R. STEWART. Thread imported.

Nov. 7 45 4t. NOTICE.

All persons indebted to the late firm of

G. D. Smith and Co., are notified that they will find their Notes and Accounts in the hands of Y. J. Pope for collection, as further indulgence can not be given, owing to the death of R. M. Norman.

G. D. SMITH.

Nov. 745 1m.

R. & W. C. Swaffield, Old Established

Clothing House.

BEDELL'S ROW,

Columbia, S. C. A full assortment of Fall & Winter Clothing, for Men and Boys, at very low prices. Clothing made to order as usual on short notice.

MILLINERY, Mrs C.E. Reed.

November 7 3mo.

Main-st., Columbia, S. C.,

(Next to Fisher and Lowrance,) Calls the attention of the Trade and the Ladies Visiting Columbia, to examine her superb stock before purchasing Wholesale and Retail. Ladies Curls and Hair in all shapes. Nov 7 3mo.

New Dry Goods House, J. Mendell,

Under Carolinian Office. MAIN STREET,

COLUMBIA, S. C.

CHEAPER THAN THE CHEAPEST.

Dry Goods, Fancy Goods, Clothing, Boots & Shoes.

STOCK NEW and constantly replenished from first class houses, and sold at very low November 7 1mo.

P. B. Glass.

Books and Ciationery, PLAIN-ST., (a few doors west of Main-st.,

COLUMBIA, S. C. Wholesale purchasers, Schools, and Libraries supplied on Special Orders by mail attended to carefully and promptly at New York prices.

J. MEIGHAN,

Blank Books made to any pattern at low-

Boots, Shoes, Hats, Caps and Leather.

First Store above the Court House, COLUMBIA, S. C. November 7 1mo.

Graeser & McJunkin. Commission & Forwarding

MERCHANTS. Gervais Street, Columbia, S. C.

WOULD respectfully inform their friends and the public generally that they will attend personally to all business in rusted Carolina, being of sound mind and in to them. They will BUY COTTON ON ORDER OR SELL IT or any of the PRO-DUCTS OF THE COUNTRY, on as favorable terms as any house in the city. They are also p epared to STORE or FORWARD Cotton, to be sold either in Charleston.

New York, or Liverpool. Being familiar with all necessary details in relation to the Internal Revenue Tax, without delay. Planters and others will find it to their interest to entrust to us the transaction of C A GRAESER

W. S. McJUNKIN.

PLANTATION

TERMS CASH

FOR SALE.

On the first Monday in December, 3d prox.,

Will be sold on the premises, my Plantation, containing 820 acres, situated in Abbeville District, S. C., within 4 miles of New Market Depot, 7 miles below Greenwood, and 7 miles above 96 Depot, G. &. C. Railroad. There is about 400 acres cleared, the balance woodland.

The improvements on the place are not surpassed by any in the up country, consisting of a Fire Proof Brick Dwelling, (9 rooms,) all nicely furnished (Gothic style,) Barn, Stables, Gin House and Servants' Quarters, all in good repair. Any further information can be obtained by calling on, or addressing the subscriber.

Richard Davis. New Market, Abbeville District, S. C.

NOTICE.

I WILL SELL at my Residence on Thursday, 22d of November, the following property, viz:
Corn, Fodder, Shucks, Mules, Cows,
Hogs, Plantation Tools, Household and Kitcehn Furniture.

Terms made known on day of sale. S. W. SPEARMAN. Nov. 7-15-3t.

JOHN C. DIAL. (Late ALLEN & DIAL.)

Importer and Dealer in English and American HARDWARE

Cutlery,

Iron, Steel, Nails, Castings, Mill Stones, Bolting Gloths, Circular Saws,

Mill Irons, Sugar Pans, India Rubber & Leather Belting,

Carpenters', Blacksmiths' and Tanners' Tools,

Housekeeping and Furnishing Hardware,

Agricultural Implements, Lime, Cement, Plaster, Paints, Oils, French and American Window Glass, Guns, Rifles, Pistols, Shot Belts,

Powder Flasks, Powder, Shot, &c. Wholesale & Retail,

At the Sign of the GOLDEN PAD LOCK, Columbia, S. C. November 7 6m.

S.T. McCaughrin & Co., GROCERS

Commission Merchants,

Keep constantly on hand, and at LOW PRICES, a full and well-selected Stock of FAMILY GROCERIES, to which they invite the attention of their friends of Newberry, on visiting the City. They pay the highest market price for all kinds of Country Produce, and request those having such to sell, to give them a trial before selling elsewhere. All orders for goods promptly filled. They would also respectfully solicit orders appertaining to the COMMISSION BUSI-NESS, and pledge themselves to a faithful discharge of all matters entrusted to their Buying, Selling, Shipping or Storing. Main-st., Columbia, S. C. November 7 1mo.

18567 Established Shermanized, February, 17, 1865. B. R. STOKES,

Opposite J. C. Dial's Hardware Store, MAIN STREET,

COLUMBIA, S. C. Blank Books manufactured in the best and most substantial manner. Having purchased Superior Ruling and Pag-ing Machines, Clerks of Courts, Sheriffs, Ordi-naries, and other Public Officers can have their naries, and other Public Officers can nave them Blank Books, and all other work executed in any style and pattern they may desire, and in the shortest possible time. A large stock of Blank Book and other Paper of the best quality always on hand. Music, Periodicals, Law Books, and all: other works bound to suit customers.

FLOUR, CORN, BACON, &c.

1000 BUS. WHITE CORN, 500 " Mixed Corn, 10 Hhds prime Bacon Sides & Should'rs, 10 Bags Rangoon Rice, 50 Barrels Super. Extra Flours, 50 Sacks Salt (Liverpool,) 50 Bales Eastern Hay, (Prime,)

To barter for Cotton or Cash, Grain of all descriptions constantly on hand. Orders promptly filled. BROWNE & SCHIRMER, Main Street, Volger's New Store. Columbia, S. C., Nov. 1 1866.

C. F. JACKSON,

Main Street, Columbia, S. C. (Next door to Messrs. J. & T. R. Agnew,) Has constantly on hand a full and well

Staple and Fancy DRY GOODS, AT GREATLY REDUCED PRICES. and persons visiting the City will find it to their advantage to give him a call. CALICOES, from 121c. to 25cts. Alpacas and Poplins, from 30c. to 75. Ladies Kid Gloves, $1.00. Breakfast Shawls, from $2.50 to $8.00. Ladies Cloth Cloaks, from $6.00 to $25.00 Hoop Skirts, from $1.00 to $4.00. My stock is too varied to give a list in detail, but simply present the above as a specimen. C. F. JACKSON.

Nov. 7, 6mo.

E. E. JACKSON, DRUGGIST AND CHEMIST, Plain Street,

COLUMBIA, S. C.

Keeps on hand a choice selection of DRUGS, MEDICINES, FANCY ARTICLES.

FOR SALE AT LOW PRICES.

NEW Boot & Shoe Store.

The undersigned takes pleasure in informing the citizens of Newberry, that he has opened a general

Stock of Boots & Shoes, In the new Bank Building, Opposite the Court House, Columbia, S. C.

Where he will be pleased to see all who are in want of the above goods. His aim will be "Quick Sales at Small Profits." M. A. Shelton.

November 7.1m.