Under the caption, "Returning Refuges," the Charleston News of the 2nd inst., uses the following language:

"They are here once more, and the horrors of refugee life are for a moment forgotten. The trading of furniture, clothes and jewelry, at one-fourth their value, to hard-fisted old farmers, for corn at two or three prices, is like a troubled dream."-"To whisper the word up country in the ear of a sleeping ex-refugee, would give him the nightmare.'

Now, we don't speak for the whole up-country. But as far as lieve the above remarks, like most dreams, are untrue. Perhaps the News man had the nightmare when he wrote them.

by the announcement that a nobleman was about to take a ster which would help to break down the high barrier which now separates the nobility from the mercantile world. Lord Archibald Campbell. second son of the Duke of Argyle. is about to enter a large business, establishment as a partner. Hitherto all traffic has been stigmafized in Great Britain as unworthy of gentle blood, but here we have a scion of the great house of Campbell boldly becoming a tradesman.

Hear what a crushed mother says, after the last battle fought in Germany near Prague, where the Austrians suffered so severely:

Deeply afflicted, I announce to our relatives and friends that my beloved husband died yesterday morning from the terrible agitation caused by the death of our children. Our five sons, Francis Joseph, Ernest, George, Leopold and Henrich de Stovolinski, have all laid down their lives for their beloved Empefor and master. Four young widows and an only sister mourn with me." What a picture! But such is war. May a kind and merciful Providence guide our people for all time to come in paths of peace, love and unity. DRIED FRUIT IN TENNESSEE. - The Jonesboro' Tenn., Flag, of the 28th ult., says of dried fruit: "The greatest abundance of this staple has been disposed of to our merchants by the farmers during the past week, the prices ranging at $6 per bushel for peaches and $2 for apples. Thousands of bushels yet remain unsold, many holding their fruit back in the hope that prices will take a rise. The fruit crop has been ensually good this year, while the season has not been surpassed for drying

A writer in the Richmond Christian advocate proposes to drop the word "Methodist" altogether, and make the title of the Southern branch of that the "Evangelical Episcopal Church," assigning as a reason for this advice the fact that the name "Methodist" has become opprobrious on account of the political preaching and political action of the Northern branch of the church.

It is estimated from Washington that next, as a set the President will, in his forth-coming message to Congress, lay before that body an amendment to the Constitution similar to the one passed at the last session of Congress, with a few modifications.

Rev. Dr. Baldwin, author of "Armageddon, or the United States in Prophecy," a distinguished Methodist divine, died of cholera at Nashville on Friday.

They have revived the ancient order of the "Sons of Malta" in Memphis, Tenn.

The initial meeting took place on Friday evening last, many of the old members in of Newberry.

Is hereby given that application will be made to the next session of the Legislature, for a renewal or extension of the charter of the Town of Newberry.

The American Jewelers' Association calls your attention to the fact of its being the largest and most popular Jewelry Association in the United States. The business is and always has been conducted in the most candid and honorable manner. Our rapidly increasing trade is a sure guarantee of the appreciation of our patrons for this method of obtaining rich, elegant and costly goods. The sudden stagnation of trade in Europe owing to the late German War and recent disastrous financial crisis in England, has caused the failure of a large number of Jew-elry Houses in London and Paris, obliging them to sell their goods at a great sacrifice, in some instances less than one third the in some instances less than one third the cost of manufacturing. We have lately purchased very largely of these Bankrupt Goods, at such extremely low prices, that we can afford to send away Finer Goods, and give better chances to draw the most valuable prizes than any other establishment doing a similar business. Our aim is to please, and we respectfully solicit your patronage, as we are confident of giving the utmost satisfaction. During the nest year we have forwardtion. During the past year we have forwarded a number of the most valuable prizes to all parts of the country. Those who patron-ize us will receive the full value of their money, as no article on our list is worth less than One Dollar, retail, and there are no blanks. Parties dealing with us may depend on having prompt returns, and the articles drawn will be immediately sent to any ad-
