

Prospectus
THE BAPTIST.

We propose to publish a Weekly Paper, devoted to the diffusion of the principles of religion and the interests of the Baptist denomination. We have been moved to this undertaking by the solicitations of brethren in various portions of this State, as well as of other States, among the readers of the late Confederate Baptist, and by our own conviction that a paper of a high character would contribute largely to the intellectual improvement, the religious progress and the general welfare of the churches. The field is large, affording ample room for all sincere and zealous laborers.

The Baptist will be printed on a sheet about twenty-two by thirty-four inches, and will contain twenty-four broad columns, mostly in Long Primer type, clear and legible, so that it may be read with comfort, even by the aged. Its entire mechanical execution will be of the highest order. Our columns will be enriched by correspondence and contributions from the other Southern States, and occasionally from Europe and our missionary stations abroad. The entertainment and instruction of the young—especially the children—will not be forgotten; and our venerable friend, "Uncle Fabian," so well and favorably known to the readers of the Confederate Baptist, will resume his labors in their behalf. In short, we possess all the facilities requisite to produce a paper of the first rank. As such, we offer it to our brethren, and solicit their generous co-operation.

The Baptist will be issued as soon as a sufficient number of subscribers have been secured.
Terms—$3 a year, payable on the reception of the first number.
All communications will be addressed to "The Baptist, Columbia, S. C."
