Thoughts on this Beautiful Spring.

GILBERT HOLLOW, April 5th, 1899.
 The little birds are wooing, among the leafy boughs,
 The lonesome doves are cooing, 'mid the wildwood flowers—
 And the busy bees are on the wing,
 This bright and beautiful day of Spring.
 Then why is my heart so lonely and sad,
 Oh, I think of the lost and gone;
 Of the ruthless foe, who in ashes laid,
 My beautiful, happy, home?
 For this I am weeping, and cannot sing,
 This bright, and beautiful day of Spring.
 The ploughman sings, as he toils along,
 And the echoes ring, with the joyous song,
 As he labors for bread, with the drops on his brow,
 This beautiful day, as he follows his plough,
 And the bending trees, their shadows fling,
 O'er the murmuring Brook, this beautiful
 Spring.

The crocus and blue bells, are peeping forth
 Their tiny petals, from out the earth;
 And voices are murmuring in the breeze,
 O'er the hills, and through the trees;
 All nature, with happy voices sing,
 This bright, this beautiful day of Spring.
 I stand by the spot, where my little cot
 Once stood, so quiet and best,
 There is not a tree or flower left
 To mark its place of rest.
 'Tis of the past, a forgotten thing,
 This bright and beautiful day of Spring.

The widow's sigh, the orphan's tear,
 Still falls its silent sorrow here,
 As they think of the noble and brave—
 Of the Father, and son, of the Brother that is gone,
 And who—oh a bloody grave;
 Of the tyrant who led his hostile host,
 Of Demons through our land,
 Who plundered and robbed, and burned our homes,
 A murderous thieving band.
 As David prayed, we pray for him,
 This bright and beautiful day of Spring.

O may the vengeance of the Lord,
 O'er take him in his pride,
 And may he perish, with fire and sword,
 And die, as Judas died,
 We think of our country, how it bled,
 We think of our lost and early dead,
 And still we hear, and know, and feel,
 The thumping of the oppressor's heel;
 We hate and despise the loathsome thing,
 As we remember our wrongs, this beautiful
 Spring.

Ruthless tyrant, savage foe,
 Thou hast filled the Southron's cup of woe,
 Run it over, fill it up,
 Even now, we drain it, drop by drop,
 Drink to our shame, and buried glory,
 And let them tell the coward story,
 Of our property stolen—our homestead
 barred,
 And Southern boys to traitors turned,
 Southern boys have bled and died,
 And Southern hearts still bleed;
 As we think of our Southern friends,
 And recall the accursed deed;
 For like Esau, some have sold
 Their birthright, for the Tyrant's gold.
 The Spring-time of life my # past,
 The Summer too is gone;
 And Autumn is here, all faded, and ere,
 The Winter soon will come—
 No home, no where to lay my head,
 No earthly place of rest,
 No hope but in the grave, a bed,
 In Heaven, a home with the blest.
 Throughout eternity, to sing,
 In Heaven, an everlasting Spring.

The "CAROLINA FERTILIZER" is made from the Phosphates of South Carolina, and is pronounced by various chemists one of the best Manures known, only inferior to Peruvian Guano in its Fertilizing Properties. These Phosphates are the remains of extinct land and sea animals, and possess qualities of the greatest value to the Agriculturist.

We annex the analysis of Professor Shepard

THE LEADER COOK STOVE.

WITH AND WITHOUT EXTENSION TOP.

The most beautiful Cooking Stove now in market. Will bake as quick, boil as fast, broil as nice, and do all kinds of Cooking with as little fuel as any stove in use. It has many advantages which no other stove has. It is very heavy and durable, and is not so liable to crack as many stoves are. Besides the LEADER, I keep constantly on hand a large assortment of other patterns, all of which are warranted to operate well. Out of the many Stoves I have sold, not one to my knowledge has failed to give entire satisfaction.

The Tin Business is still carried on in its various branches, and all work will be done at short notice.
