"Quite Run Down." How often is this expression used by persons whose bodies and minds are exhausted by the toils and anxieties of business life. More stimulants do no good in such cases. The first effect is transient. The reaction disasters.
Tarrant's Seltzer Aperient, the true remedy for this breaking down of physical energies, and the animal spirits is provided. It renews and refreshes the stimulating organs and the nerves, while it carries off, without violence or pain, all the impurities which clog the bowels and vitiates the blood. In indigestion, biliousness, constipation, nervous weakness, and hypochondria, it has no rival, except the water of the Seltzer Springs itself, of which it is the exact and perfect equivalent.
SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS.
