A PARODY.

Oh, barber, spare that young moustache,
Touch not a single hair;
Your razor, brush, and other trash,
Must never venture there;
At last the bud has blossomed out,
By much caressing taught,
Its frail tendrils how they sprout,
Then barber touch it not.

Though well laid out and wide the field,
Where this young moustache shoots,
The sickly soil no more can yield,
Oh then guard well its roots,
For should thy murderous blade sweep o'er
That curved lip's shadowy mist,
The tender plants would bloom no more.
Then, barber, oh desist.

Think of the dear young girl, whose lip
Was wont so oft to press;
That budding mouth its sweets to sip,
Oh, think of her distress;
'Tis unfledged manhood's pride and joy,
With sighs and tears 'twas bought,
Let no rude stroke its life destroy;
Oh, barber, touch it not.

The Dress of Civilized Women.

I do declare that I think it would be better to die and get out of torment at once than to have to rise every morning for some forty or fifty years and box one's body up in a sort of compressive armor, hang weights to one's hips and more weights upon one's head—which last are supported by the roots of the hair; put one's feet into shoes a number too small, and not of the right shape, and with heels like stilts; and then set about doing the whole duty of women with a cheerful face and a spry air, for from fifteen to seventeen mortal hours out of the twenty-four! That there are so many women who are not frightened into a decline at such a prospect, and that they bravely undertake to do it—nay, more, that they even dream that under such disadvantages they can work side by side with unshackled man, and that they die in trying to do it, certainly says much for their courage, but very little for their common sense.

A man's dress to a great extent is fashioned for comfort. He has contrivances for suspending the weight of his clothing from his shoulders. If the east wind blows he can turn up his coat-collar, button himself up snugly, slouch his hat over his eyes, thrust his hands into his pockets and brave the weather. But imagine a woman removing her hat or bonnet from the angle at which fashion says she must wear it on account of the weather, or turning any of her "fixtures" up to protect her neck and throat, or buttoning up anything that was unbuttoned before, or sticking her hands into her pockets! She would be taken for an improper character out on a mild spree, or for an escaped inmate of a lunatic asylum, should she endeavor by any impromptu arrangement of her habiliments to save her health.

[From The Science of Health.

A Good Joke.

A capital joke, and all the more palatable because it is true and can be vouched for, took place, a few Sundays since, at one of the prominent Fourth street churches. It seems that a worthy deacon has been very industrious selling a new church book, costing seventy-five cents. At the service in question, the minister just before dismissing the congregation, arose and said: "All you who have children to baptise, will please present them next Sabbath." The deacon, who is a little deaf, having an eye to selling his books, and supposing his pastor referred to them, immediately jumped up and shouted: "And all who haven't any can get as many as you want by calling on me, at seventy-five cents each." The preacher looked cross-eyed at the deacon; the audience punched each other in the side, the bubble grew larger until it burst into a loud guffaw, ladies colored up and blushed, and thanked the Lord for the low price of peopling the earth. There was no benediction that morning worth speaking of.—Grass Valley (Cal.) Republican.

GREELEY'S MISSION.—"The mission of Horace Greeley is to blot out the name of rebel from the books of the land." Thus spoke Senator Trumbull to a Northern constituency a few days since, and the sentiment met with a fervid response from the hearts of those who support Mr. Greeley for the Presidency. It is because the people of the South believe that the mission of Greeley is "peace" that they give him their earnest support; and when a leading and conspicuous leader of the Liberal Republicans, and a supporter of Greeley, gives public expression to such sentiments as we have just quoted, the Southern people take new courage in the conflict which lies before them. We have suffered under the government of hate for more than seven years; we now give our support to a man who comes to us with words of conciliation and peace—who asks us to clasp hands with the North over the bloody chasm made by the war, and let "the name of rebel be forever blotted from the books of the land."

DWELLINGS FOR THE POOR.—A new experiment has been made near London, with the view of meeting the great demand existing in that city for dwellings for the humbler classes. A new town is to be built in the suburbs, close to a line of railway, and to consist entirely of workmen's houses—1200 in number. One feature of the project is that each of the tenants, after a time, is to become the owner of his house, by paying a certain sum in addition to the rent. In the centre is a large plot for a recreation ground, and there are also to be lecture halls, schools, clubs, reading rooms, baths, and other conveniences. Public houses are not to be admitted. The experiment will be watched with great interest in England and doubtless in this country also.

WHAT IT COST TO PREVENT SCOTT'S IMPEACHMENT.—A Charleston, (S. C.) correspondent of the New York World writes: Among the expenses of the House, which Mr. Gorbin estimates at $1,000,000 for the last session of the South Carolina Legislature, are the amounts paid to defeat Scott's impeachment, which foot up, according to Speaker Moses' admission, $203,000. $140,000 it cost to buy the members of the House, and $63,000 were paid to lobby-men and stool-pigeons. It is also claimed that $83,000 were drawn for this purpose from the amount appropriated to support an armed force—a force intended to over-awe the Ku Klux, but which never was organized, though the money appropriated, $112,000, was expended. Of this I am convinced by undeniable proofs. When Treasurer Parker was informed in his office that articles of impeachment would be presented in the House concerning Scott, he exclaimed, "The Governor shan't be impeached!" and he wasn't, and the above exhibit tells us why.

The foregoing statements were scarcely needed to convince the country of the utter unworthiness of the present State administration, for the system of bribing, by which it controlled the Legislature to carry out its corrupt schemes, to fill its private coffers, was far too patent and flagrant to require proof.

MAY BE WORTH PRESERVING.—The Medical Home has the following recipes, which may be of value.

A tea made of chesnut leaves, and drank in the place of water, will cure the most obstinate case of dropsy in a few days.

A tea made of ripe or dried whortleberries, and drank in the place of water, is a sure and speedy cure for scrofulous difficulty, however bad.

A tea made of peach leaves is a sure cure for a kidney difficulty.

A plaster made of fresh slack lime and fresh tar is a sure cure for a cancer, which, with all its roots, will soon come out.

For the cure of small-pox, apply raw onions halved, under the arms, in the hands and on the bottom of the feet; change often; diet, chicken broth. Do not poison the blood by vaccination, and leave posterity to reap the rotten fruits of our stupidity. Consumption, scrofula, and other loathsome diseases, are thus impregnated into the system. Better by far, have the small pox and be free from a living death.

MORE WHEAT THAN CAN BE SENT TO MARKET.—A San Francisco journal says: There is no prospect that the greater part of the wheat of San Josquin Valley can be brought down to tide water before the rainy season sets in. The river is falling rapidly and the boating season on the upper waters will soon be over until the rains come. One large landholder has 300,000 bushels in the valley, and having no prospect of getting it to market at present, is making arrangements to store it in temporary sheds where it will remain until another season. This necessity may not work any special hardship for men of large means who are in no hurry to realize; but farmers who are in debt, and are paying heavy interests need the full money value of their wheat at once. Most of these can obtain advances, but many such have already anticipated this advantage and now want the balance to make ends meet. The grain product this year in California is in excess of all the means of transportation.

Christians need to institute a new and higher standard of giving. If the missionary work is a duty, it ought to be provided for on a more generous scale than at present. It ought to bear some relation, in the liberality with which it is conducted, to the means of Christ's disciples, and to their modes of conducting important secular business. If it is a work bringing a great income, it should be deemed worthy of a great outlay. If it is Christ's work, it ought to claim and receive Christly gifts. The common question, How little can I give? should give place to the nobler question, How much can I give?

George Gordon, a colored man, who killed Levi Garrett, a white man, near Newberry, about six months ago, and broke jail, was arrested near Columbia on the 19th, says the Phœnix.

INSURANCE NOTICE.

THE undersigned having established his office at Edgefield, as General Agent for the Cotton States Life Insurance Company, invites attention to one or two of the advantages offered those who may desire to effect insurance on their lives in a safe Home Company:

The Board of Managers at a recent meeting, passed unanimously the following resolution:

"Resolved, That in view of the fact that there are unusually large sums paid for Life Insurance, to the Companies of the North and East, which sums, being there invested, contribute to the enrichment of those sections, whilst our own South is greatly in need of cash capital to prosecute successfully our Agricultural and Mechanical enterprises; it is ordered, that for the purpose of retaining these sums in our midst, hereafter a certain proportion of the net cash receipts from premiums, amounting to not more than 70 per cent. of the same be invested in such manner as may be in accordance with the regulations of the Company, in those sections from which the said premiums are attained."

(Signed) WM. B. JOHNSON, Pres't.
GEORGE S. O'BEAR, Sec'y.

The Financial strength of the Company places it in high rank. Its last Annual Statement shows that the Company possesses, besides its large Guarantee, $170 for every $100 of its liability.

M. W. ABNEY, General Agent.

To carry into effect the foregoing Resolution of the Managers, the Company proposes to establish Boards of Supervisory Trustees in each County and Village in the State, who will supervise all investments.

Seventy per cent. of all the NET PREMIUM RECEIPTS, from any locality where there is a Board of Trustees, will be returned and invested with its Policy Holders; thereby making the "Cotton States Life," a HOME COMPANY to every Policy Holder. Applications for loans from any locality will be made through its Board of Trustees, whose approval will secure a loan at moderate rates, and for any period, provided the collaterals are acceptable by the Directors at the Home Office in Macon, Ga. No safer investment of the accumulating assets of a Life Company can be made than with its Policy Holders, and the above plan, so liberal and just, is now offered to the people of Newberry. The privilege of using a portion of the Company's assets, is extended to every one of its Policy Holders. I therefore propose to establish a Board of Trustees here in Newberry, and at any other point in the District where desirable.

The Christian Neighbor

Is published every Thursday, in Columbia, S. C., by SIDI H. BROWNE, Editor and Proprietor.

THE NEIGHBOR, now in its fifth year, continues an Advocate of Christianity against all other religions—"war" religions in particular. As a CHURCH paper, it is not bigoted, but Methodist.

Though it has never aspired to the honors or profits of an "official," yet the NEIGHBOR is a Church paper, and an organ of edification to the FAMILY, the SCHOOL and the CHURCH—to ALL who may read it.

Excepting the publications at Nashville, Tenn., the CHRISTIAN NEIGHBOR, like all the other periodicals in the interests of the M. E. Church, South, is private property. And excepting a weekly of the African M. E. Church, there is not, besides the NEIGHBOR, a Methodist paper of any sort published in South Carolina, or within a hundred miles outside.

Only select Advertisements, and limited in number, will be admitted.

TERMS: One year, in advance, $2.00; six months, $1.00. If payment be surely made within three months, it is accepted as in advance.

Any person sending $5.00 for others, shall have his own paper a year for $1.00; for $10.00 sent for others, the sender shall have his own paper a whole year free: or, on all amounts above one's own subscription, a commission of 20 per cent. will be allowed.

The NEIGHBOR, circulating at present in thirty States of the Union, wants an ACTIVE agent for every town and neighborhood in South Carolina and beyond.

Address: CHRISTIAN NEIGHBOR,
May 22, 21—tf. COLUMBIA, S. C.
