

FRIENDSHIP.

A tiny, slender, silken thread,
Is friendship, and we make it
Bind hearts and lives to hearts and lives,
But 'ere a breath may shake it,
And often it takes but one word—
But one wee word—to break it.

It draws the lips in smiling shape,
It draws the look of pleasure
From eye to eye when hands touch hands,
When two hearts beat one measure;
And draws a meaning from a word
Which makes the world a treasure.

Like string of a tinsel harp or lute
Between glad souls 'tis holden,
And love's fond fingers on the thread
Make music rare and golden—
Make music such as tender hearts
Could live, and ne'er grow old in.

But if a breath may shake it, let
That breath come near that word,
And never spoken be that word,
Which friendship's tie might sever,
But let the cord grow stronger till
The dawning of Forever.

Speech Making in Prayer.

There is a great deal of praying in public that closely resembles speech making. When the preacher says "let us pray," the people bow their heads as if in supplication, but it is too often the case that the prayer offered in public is only an oration.—We recently heard of a minister who commenced his prayer with an eulogy upon human nature, setting forth its dignity and independence. Then a description of the horrible and enslaving effects of superstition, and of false views of the character of God, which have always been entertained by some in the Christian church. He then tells God who he is—enumerating His attributes, reminding Him of His capabilities and great powers. After this, the results of modern and theological criticism were summed up, and the prayer concluded with a sketch in outline of the state of things in the "good time coming, when man will be emancipated from the bondage of traditions and rites, and superstitious usages, and will reverence and worship only the Divine Being in His own nature." Prayers offered in public should never be an oration, nor should they include everybody and everything in detail, the world over, in the space of three to five minutes, which is ordinarily considered sufficient time to occupy in one prayer.

There is but one way to make public prayers interesting and profitable, and that is to make them local, personal and sympathetic, and they will take hold of our hearts. But to do this, the minister must first take into his own heart the every day life of his people. If he knows them well, and feels for them as one should feel for his own soul, he can and will take them to God, in his arms, in the warm embrace of his fervid soul.—When a minister brings the business cares, perils and successes, the home-life, the little every day trials of his people, the personal joys and sorrows of the aged, of the children, of the youth, of those who are weak, before God, and interprets and presses them for divine sympathy and help, in the light of a deep religious insight and powerful love and faith, no one will be indifferent or unpropitiated. They will find his pleading taking hold of their own souls, and they, will plead; the prayer, will be their prayer, and the blessing will come to them like "cold water on a thirsty soul." And prayer will no longer be an indifferent part of the public worship to them; they will look forward to it with the same interest that they do to the sermon and recall its influence upon their hearts after many days.—N. C. Christian Advocate.

A well posted Liberal Republican, writing from Connecticut, says that 3,000 voters who have heretofore acted with the Republican party have already enrolled themselves in the Liberal ranks. The writer continues: "If the Grant defect should stop even where it is, the State would be lost to Grant by 10,000 majority."

A good sign for a harmonious settlement.—The dining and wining which for some days past have prevailed at Geneva. We are reminded by these diplomatic dinners of the feasting and toasting all round which at Washington carried the High Joint Commission so splendidly through their arduous labors.

The pleasantest period in love-making, says Anthony Trollope, is that in which lovers can converse about the little ordinary matters of life. Simmons' Hepatic Compound, or Improved Liver Cure.

For all Derangements of the Liver, Kidneys, Skin, Stomach and Bowels.

This is an improvement upon the original receipt of A. Q. SIMMONS, of Georgia, put up in liquid form, already prepared for immediate use, thus saving time and trouble, and insuring proper proportion of each valuable ingredient.

It is mild and gentle in its action. It removes the bile from the system. It gives tone and strength to the whole frame. It gives the liver a healthy character and restores the sinking and drooping body to health and strength. This medicine has been tried by thousands, and never found wanting. Under its influence the face will have the bloom of health, the eye its lustre, the brain its power. It will invigorate the feeble, and prove the greatest blessing to those who suffer.

Try it for yourselves and you will recommend it to your friends.

LECTURE TO YOUNG MEN.

A Lecture on the Nature, Treatment and Radical Cure of Spermatorrhoea, or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Emissions, Sexual Debility, and Impediments to Marriage generally; Nervousness, Consumption, Epilepsy, Fits, Mental and Physical Incapacity, resulting from Abuse, &c.—By ROBERT J. CULVERWELL, M. D., Author of the "Green Book," &c.

This world-renowned author, in this admirable lecture, clearly proves from his own experience that the awful consequences of Self-Abuse may be effectually removed without medicines, and without dangerous surgical operations, bougies, instruments, rings, or cords, pointing out a mode of cure at once certain and effectual, which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically. THIS LECTURE WILL PROVE A BOON TO THOUSANDS AND T. OUSANDS.

Sent under seal, to any address, in a plain sealed envelope, on the receipt of six cents, or two postage stamps. Also Dr. Culverwell's "Addressing Guide," price 50 cents.

The Christian Neighbor
Is published every Thursday, in Columbia, S. C., by

SIDH B. BROWN, Editor and Proprietor.

THE NEIGHBOR, now in its fifth year, continues an Advocate of Christianity against all other religions—"war" religions in particular. As a Church paper, it is not bigoted, but Methodist.

Though it has never aspired to the honors or profits of an "official," yet the NEIGHBOR is a Church paper, and an organ of education to the FAMILY, the SCHOOL, and the CHURCH—to ALL who may read it.

Keeping the publications at Nashville, Tenn., the CHRISTIAN NEIGHBOR, like all the other periodicals in the interests of the M. E. Church, South, is private property. And accepting a weekly of the African M. E. Church, there is not, besides the NEIGHBOR, a Methodist paper of any sort published in South Carolina, or within a hundred miles outside.

Only select advertisements, and limited in number, will be admitted.

Terms: One year, in advance, $2.00; six months, $1.00. If payment be surely made within three months, it is accepted as cash.

Any person sending $5.00 for others, shall have his own paper a year for $1.00; for $10.00 sent for others, the sender shall have his own paper a whole year free; or, on all amounts above one's own subscription, a commission of 20 per cent. will be allowed.

The NEIGHBOR, circulating at present in thirty States of the Union, wants an ACTIVE agent for every town and neighborhood in South Carolina and beyond.

INSURANCE NOTICE.

THE undersigned having established his office at Edgedale, as General Agent for the Cotton States Life Insurance Company, invites attention to one or two of the advantages offered those who may desire to effect insurance on their lives in a safe Home Company:

The Board of Managers at a recent meeting, passed unanimously the following resolution:

"Resolved, That in view of the fact that there are unusually large sums paid for Life Insurance, to the Companies of the North and East, which sums, being there invested, contribute to the enrichment of those sections, whilst our own South is greatly in need of cash capital to prosecute successfully our Agricultural and Mechanical enterprises; it is ordered, that for the purpose of retaining these sums in our midst, hereafter a certain proportion of the net cash receipts from premiums, amounting to not more than 70 per cent. of the same be invested in such manner as may be in accordance with the regulations of the Company, in those sections from which the said payments are attained."

(Signed)
GEORGE S. O'BRA, Sec'y.

WM. B. JOHNSON, Pres't.

The Financial strength of the Company places it in high rank. Its last Annual Statement shows that the Company possesses, besides its large Guarantee, $170 for every $100 of its liability.

M. W. ABNEY, General Agent.

To carry into effect the foregoing Resolution of the Managers, the Company proposes to establish Boards of Supervisory Trustees in each County and Village in the State, who will supervise all investments.

Seventy per cent. of all the NET PREMIUM RECEIPTS, from any locality where there is a Board of Trustees, will be returned and invested with its Policy Holders; thereby making the "Cotton States Life" a HOME COMPANY to every Policy Holder. Where approval for loans from any locality will be made through its Board of Trustees, the same will be made at moderate rates, and for any period, provided the collateral is acceptable to the Directors at the Home Office in Macon, Ga. No safe investment of the accumulating assets of a Life Company can be made than with its Policy Holders, and the above plan, so liberal and just, is now offered to the people of Newberry. The privilege of using a portion of the Company's assets, is extended to every one of its Policy Holders. I therefore propose to establish a Board of Trustees here in Newberry, and at any other point in the District where desirable.

JAPANESE WOMEN.—The Japanese women are not pretty; but they have charming natural manners, with beautifully shaped arms and tiny hands. The young women are all as remarkable for their superb white teeth as the married ones are for their hideous black ones. This custom originated some two or three hundred years ago, and is supposed to show the wife's devotion to her husband. One of the Mikado's wives (so goes the legend) was very lovely, and to show her indifference to her personal appearance, and to prove her love for her husband, blackened her beautiful teeth and shaved off her eyebrows. This was considered such a sacrifice, that all living wives (not to be outdone by Mrs. Mikado) followed her example. The custom has become compulsory.

The vast majority of the carpet bag party in South Carolina, and the consequent sense of impunity felt by its leaders, have brought about a spirit of insolent lawlessness which may be strong enough to wreck the organization. The candidate for State Treasurer on Saturday spoke with great candor of the thefts of his friends and rivals, and certainly made damaging statements. The Bolters' Convention, under Gov. Orr, was rather better composed than the regular one; but as they have not sufficient pluck to defy and repudiate the great central source of corruption, they will accomplish nothing of importance. If anything is done for the suffering State, it must be through the Liberal and Democratic coalition.—N. Y. Tribune

Life is like a theatre. During the play, we take higher and lower seats; but when it is over, we mingle in the common stream and go home.

Man's chief wisdom consists in being sensible of his follies.
