A WEEK OF DISASTERS.-The past week was one of marine horrors. On Wednesday, the steamship Perseverance was lost in a fog off Lisbon, and thirty persons were drowned. On Thursday, the steamer James Stephenson was climate, and sold by On Friday, occurred the terrible disaster by which the Metis went down, and a large but still unknown number of lives were lost. The same day the Aspinwall steamer, Bienville was burned, and here also were several casualties through drowning, after the people had left the ship. A gale is reported on the Northern lakes, attended with loss of several schooners. These, with the sun-strokes in St. Louis, the yellow-fever at Carthagena, the numerous boiler explosions, deaths by lightning and railway accidents in different parts of the country make up a gloomy record for the week just sped into eternity.

Ohio Shaken to its Core. A HIGH-TONED WHITE GIRL ELOPES WITH A NEGRO.

The Columbus, Ohio, Dispatch says: That portion of this world's society living in this county, and in the im-mediate vicinity of Dublin, has been shaken to its foundation, and the vibration has not yet ceased. The cause of this remarkable condition of things is the elopement of Miss Mary Everett, a member of one of the oldest and most Corded Alpacca. respectably connected families in the The Ku Klux are captured, the niggers all county, with Frank Thompson, one of the most ill-shapen negroes in the coun-

The blow is a very painful one to the family and relatives, and everything possible is being done to save the infatuated girl from a life of misery and degradation. Detectives are on their track, and they will be hunted to the death. Frank Thompson, who has induced the young lady to share his fortunes, is a blinky-eyed, round shouldered negro, with a purely African counte-

He has been working on the Everett farm for about three years, and has conducted himself, generally speaking, in a manner in consonance with the position of a hired man. No one ever entertained a thought, or even a shadow of suspicion, that there existed between the negro and the girl any state of feeling calculated to lead to the present un fortunate state of affairs.

The Everett family is connected by marriage with some of our prominent citizens, and the mortification is keenly felt. Miss Mary Everett is a young lady of about 19 years of age, and, although not prouounced handsome, was endowed with certain qualities popular to her sex that endcared her in the hearts of all who knew her.

How she ever became infatuated with, or was brought about to leave home, at Mendon, El Dorado county, friends and society, for Thompson, is one Cal., exposes a good deal of the of those inexplicable circumstances that has bothered the wisest heads since the world began. A Lecture on the Nature, Treatment and Radical cure of Spermatorrhea, or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Emissions, Sexual Debility, and Impediments to Marriage generally: Nervousness, Consumption, Epilepsy, and Fits; Mental and Physical Incapacity. resulting from Self-Abuse, &c.—By ROBERT J. CULVERWELL, M. D., Author of the 'Green Book," &c.

The world-renowned author, in this admirable lecture, clearly proves from his own experience that the awful consequences of Self-Abuse may be effectually removed without medicines, and without dangerous surgical operations, bougies, instruments, rings, or cordials, pointing out a mode of cure at once certain and effectual by which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may care himself cheaply, privately and radically. THIS LECTURE WILL PROVE ANDS.
