Editors and Proprietors.

Tebus, $3 Per Annua. Invariably in Advance. The paper is stopped at the expiration of time for which it is paid. The M mark denotes expiration of sub-

HARVEST HOME.

All safely gathered in Is Autumn's golden grain ; How sweet to hear the ringing cheer That greets the last full wain !

We may not even call An ear of wheat our own, But where's the heart that takes no part In hailing Harvest Rome.

Then let thanksgiving songs Be o'er the country spread, To Him to whom the praise belongs For sending daily bread.

For He whose gracious eye Has slumbered not nor slept, Again has sent a rich supply, And well His promise kept.

So let thanksgiving songs Both far and wide be spread, To Him to whom the praise belongs For sending daily bread. From the South Boston Inquirer.

THE DEVIL'S FOOTPRINTS -:0:--

BY J. A. JOHNSTONE. --:0:---

Yes, this is a queer old house. and there is a story connected like to hear. It is a bitter night, only daughter. When they were particular? quite young, they were bright. handseme lads, and seemed to well merit the loving pride, with which | brilliant than she, who unconscious- saying it had been used for the their grandfather regarded them. ly opened his eyes to the value of purpose of preserving winterstores put out the lights and restored of age and but six months older thing in comparison. He felt him- amining the well, to his satisfaction, carefully washed the glass Wilthan his cousin, betrayed the self drawn more and more towards instead of proceeding with his liam had drank from, put it in its Spanish blood which he derived her. She was to him like a new work, he left it as it was, and place, half filled the other with from his mother in his clear olive volume, whose every page reveals busied himself with other matters wine, commenced a letter to "My skin, and dark curling locks; some unexpected novelties. while the ruddy cheeks, frank blue Saxon descent.

and as the latter had no idea of sary to his life and happiness.

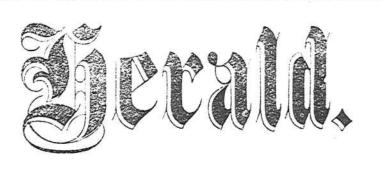

some distance from home, he gave | deserved.

tastes. Maurice would often be take as long as three months. seen on the wharf watching the When Maurice heard of this, he his own fortune, with no cousin in morning stole in upon him. ing be was missing.

at the ungrateful behavior of Man- you again," said William. "I key turned in the lock of the out- for him for her; therefore he and judicious legislation. at the ungrateful behavior of Manrice, left the whole of his estate to think it has; but I shall charge side door, footsteps moved along deemed it his duty to inform her line this connection he refers faHere's a true tale of woe, all about compact and to reduce expenses: William. The will was opened in you both with the cause, for I the hall, the door of this room of his melancholy end. Such was vorably to the proposed route to a beautiful and abandoned wife in nor is it probable the tariff act this very room by the family at should not have thought of it if opened, and William entered. He the substance of the letter. torney. As he was proceeding to you had not spoken of going away started as if he saw a ghost be- (To be concluded in our next.) read it, before the assembled friends and youthful mourner, a footstep was heard in the hall, the door opened, and Maurice with sun- cessary. Maurice suggested the Maurice broke the silence. burnt face, and sailor clothing, stood before them. William start- vants and closing the house, as it but you need not tremble any childish in the idea of the Cincinnati stood before them. William started forward to receive him; but was impossible for him to tell how longer for I am flesh and blood. person chuckling over the thought that are Falls. He says that there to New York, and put up at the the greatest heroes of the past; stood before them. William started forward to receive him; but with a cold gesture the other waved him back, and motioned the law-yer to proceed. As soon as the yer to proceed t a dark frown settled itself upon The vessel Maurice engaged pas- no other ship was in readiness to sidered that the Boston conflagration the face of Maurice.

your rights. In our childhood night, where he proposed to sleep, a glass of wine," said Maurice, must remain beyond all comparison." we were taught to share alike, and start fresh again the next pushing towards him the decanand thus it shall be now. In a morning. and thus it shall be now. In a little same time taking up ter, at the same time taking up ter, not act as such. Will you not be sible of the cheering of the throngs seated himself by the fire. ished the sheriff my friend?" Maurice turned has gazing after her. Friends strain. At first he seemed much revived, for five dollars.

SIRWIE COM

Vol. VIII.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 11, 1872.

No. 50.

William looked hurt; his face ed way. the cousins were left alone. What sengers. his cousin was more trusted and key.

loved than himself. fair-haired bride to his home. - been left secure, he retired to rest; world. Never did the house seem so full but in William's room instead of Maurice left the room, lighted of sunshine before. Everything his own. that was staid and ugly was metamorphosed beneath her touch; collecting a number of bricks to- one in the room with the brick and it was a delight, to hear her gether, and mixing a certain quan- flooring. Returning he attempted as she passed through the rooms. Maurice who had ever regarded with it, which, perhaps, you would woman as a sort of useless creation, began to notice the unusual place in the centre consisting of strength dragged it across the so draw your chair near this crack- brightness around him, and in re- wooden planks, covering the open- room all through the hall, and ling wood fire, and don't start so flecting on the cause, turned his ing to a long disused dry well .- down the kitchen stairs; the heavy every time old Boreas whistles eyes on his cousin's wife. Ah! As these boards were a step lower boots on its feet dropping with through the hall, or sends his imps why is it, that some unseen pow- than the sarrounding floor, Wil- thug, thug, from stair to stair to beat tattoo on the window er seems ever to encourage the liam's wife had often expressed a which chilled even the heart of panes. Now you look comfortable, evil within us, impelling us on to desire to have it filled up even the murderer. our fate? Why could not Man- with bricks, in order to make the At length Maurice reached the An old gentleman and his two rice perceive that it was to the room more convenient for use .- opening to the well, and without grand-sons once lived here, sole magical touch of womankind in William had neglected doing this, pausing to rest, lowered the body survivors of a numerous family. general we owe that enjoyment of and now Maurice proceeded to into it, with a rope he had pre-One was the son of the old man's comfort and refinement, which take up the boards and examine pared. Then replacing the boards eldest boy, and the other of his surrounds us, and not to one in the well. He found it to be about he filled up the space even with

Every day bright glances were sonry all around. thrown upon him from those more | He remembered his grandfather the morning. The eldest who was ten years woman. To him they were as no- of perishable articles. After ex- them to their places. Next he eyes, and finely cut lips of the strength, the jealousy of his cous- inaugurated; for the wind howled about him, and glancing about the and exhibited no more of the eleyounger equally denoted the pure in roused itself within him; but round the house, and the rain beat room to see if all was as he wish this time it was hand in hand with against the window shutters as if ed, his eye fell on the window As time passed on, the grandfa- deceit. He dared not show his it would burst them in. ther became uneasy at observing feelings, for to quarrel with Wilthe domineering spirit of Maurice liam would be to banish himself this very room in which we are horror for he fancied he saw two the strife were standing in the the elder, over his cousin William; from her who had become necessitting; he had not done so before, eyes glaring at him. He strode same attitude as for a long time eclat and success to the altercations arose, which seriously picturing to himself what life chimney. He let the heavy curturned round and hastily left the among the strongest causes of the In regard to civil service, he enduring affection between them. object of his unholy passion, he from without. He then placed a he walked the remainder of the and the institution of other re- gests that there should be direct He attempted to make them dared not breathe a word of his light on a stand which he drew night, unheeding the wild storm forms there could not fail to ad- action of Congress to make the share everything in common, and thoughts, for she was purity itself, near the fire, and also rolled for which pelted against him. but. vance the restoration of peace and system binding on his successors, as the school they attended was and would have scorned him as he ward a lounge.

them a pony which one was to The young couple occupied the and filling a decanter with wine, eyes upon him. In the morning ment of Spain will voluntarily ing faithful and efficient officers ride a certain part of the way and room over this, opposite which is brought it with glasses, and placed he took the first conveyance for adopt that view. then fasten to a tree for the other's a covered stairway, outside the them on the table. Just here he the west, in his consin's name, afbenefit. He soon found, however, house, leading directly to the garthat when Maurice started first, it den. Maurice had the back room, first time with some inward emo- unknown, and travelled night and was all ride, and no tie with him. and as he sat there one winter Thus it was in all things. The might something like this, when selfishness of Maurice seemed to demons seem to laugh and shriek grow with his growth, and as the round the house, in a fit of pas- time into the fire. At length he ters to the unconscious wife, suctors. determination of William was con- sion, he vowed he would sell his roused himself with an impatient cessfully imitating his victim's stantly opposing it, they became soul to the devil, if he could rid exclamation, and filling a glass handwriting, and when the sweet more and more estranged from himself of his now hated cousin. with wine drank it off at once. replies came, would smother his

to gravely censure Maurice. This caused a fierce icalcast to take mother who lived a considerable to take mother who lived a c caused a fierce jealousy to take mother who lived a considerable in his hand threw himself on the member, before the day of railpossession of the latter, which distance from the city. William sofa with his face towards the roads. Maurice busied himself no more legislation be had on that tics, what part of the debt is legal or illeplanted the seeds of a hatred which was quite willing she should do so door. All was silence now save buying the swiftest horses he subject, except to correct errors gal. Such a commission to avail should afterwards sprung up and bore bit. as there was trouble about some the crackling of the fire, and could find and directed them to of omission or commission in the be selected from the tax payers, and The cousins now sought com- what was then the far west, which Time seemed an eternity to should call for them. Thus he es. shall have elapsed to prove that It should be such a commission as will at ent fiscal year at $105,000,000, The cousins now sought com- what was then the lar west, which panions to suit their different needed his presence, and might that gloomy watcher, whose ev- tablished a direct and rapid line of the whole State. The tax of twelve with a parional instance of the whole State. The tax of twelve with a parional instance of the whole State. The tax of twelve with a parional instance of the whole State. The tax of twelve with a parional instance of the whole State. The tax of twelve with a parional instance of the whole State. The tax of twelve with a parional instance of the whole State. The tax of twelve with a parional instance of the whole State.

incoming or outgoing of some ship tossed all night on his pillow, at ly of every day importance. Now, vessel would leave for Europe, he or else listening to some wonder. the thought of the separation .ful sea yarn told by a garrulous At last he started up wildly, lean- and he but awaited his victim, a letter in a cramped illiterate a fine thing to run away and push remained until the gray light of the way for a stumbling block. It | At breakfast he laughingly said, follows, of course, that one morn- "they seemed bent on forcing him to keep bachelor's quarters; but and compressed lips. You will in such a manner that it was imwas discovered up to the death of the grandfather, who, indignant the grandfather, who, indignant the grandfather, who, indignant the grandfather who is the g sage in, would sail two days before sail, I returned home." William noticed this, and step. William left for the West. Wil-thing to our mutual satisfaction. Maurice off. The ship moved viously filled. William did so, smoked his cigar to the foot of land and Australia, also an in- him again and carried him off. pany, and the subject of conversa- of fuel is burned yearly in the Uni-We are children no longer; let us proudly from the wharf, as if senwe are children no longer; let us proudly from the wharf, as if sennot act as such. Will you not be sible of the cheering of the throngs seated himself by the fire.

Ition, and thus become contented ted States, and $90,000,000 worth ished the sheriff sold the "stub" bureaus. He favors the abolition Corn is cheaper than wood for and happy, intelligent, wise and of lumber-is used in building and tily away, muttering something ed their eyes, and waved their thanked his cousin for the warm about his cousin "always making handherchiefs till the vessel dis- reception he had given him, but fine speeches when he thought appeared from view; then they said, "why did you not open the any one was round to hear them." separated, each going his appoint- shutters, and put back the cur-ensued, and then one by one, the he quietly stepped into it, as a re- Maurice replied that he wished to American people have enjoyed that the subject can receive prop- said to be sick or milky. This friends took their departure, and turning friend of one of the past surprise him and did not think of the past year, the only exception er consideration at this session, appearance is due to the accumu-

known; but it was understood they reached it, but Maurice fold- he had never felt so sleepy before tion and its satisfactory results, action may be had, fair to the of a creamy consistence of color. that some kind of a reconciliation ed a large cloak about him and in his life; Maurice said it was which left the two Government and the private par- When the spat is natural, it ashad been effected. They went in- drew his cap over his eyes lest he probably the effects of the wine America and England, without a ties concerned. to society together, where Maurice should meet some acquaintance, and heat of the fire, and advised shadow on their friendly relations, He calls attention to the alarmings of a slate pencil; the parent when he chose, made himself quite He then made his way to a hotel him to lie down on the lounge for which it is hoped may forever re. ing falling off in the American ovster then opens its shell. brilliant. The demon jealousy, where he was unknown, and wait- awhile. William complied and main unclouded. It recommends carrying trades, and says that a and a kind of mistiness is observahowever, was but sleeping. Once ed there until night-fall; under was soon asleep. Maurice stood the immediate creation of a board yearly expenditure of five million ble in the surrounding water. in a while, one might see it flash- cover of which, he returned home, over him watching him intently. of commissioners to decide upon dollars for the next five years to This is caused by the myriads of ing from his eyes, as he saw that letting himself in with a duplicate In about half an hour the muscles | the amounts to be paid to indus- restore that trade would be a young oysters scattered in every into a room called the buttery.

fifteen feet in depth with solid ma- the flooring with the bricks he till night again closed in, and with | Dear Wife," on it placed a balt In proportion as his love gained it a witches' revel seemed to be smoked eigar, threw his cloak tion had gained no advantages lest the neighbors should observe to the window, but it only threw past. The continuation of slavery tamely submitting to imposition, He would sit in his room, often, the the smoke rising from the back his own reflection, so he in that Island, he regards as seemed to be overcome for the ter assuring himself that he was seemed to be overcome for the ter assuring himself that he was China and Japan, the President one hour and ten minutes. tion. Leaning his arms on the day, until he reached his destina-

not help approving many times of up by a mysterious voice, but he poured into it a small portion of a in the thought of how soon he ter, at the same time taking up John Strong, of Weschester, Pa., for Steamship lines to Brazil, and left."

flushed, and he seemed ready to Maurice watched the movements pared then to have found some was received and read at 1:40 p.m. graph lines now in operation and thereby dely all our arts to wile a retort; but with an effort restrain. of the pilot, and when his boat one here, but never would have It commences with a recognic connecting that service with Post secret from him. When spatting ed himself. An awkward pause came alongside to take him ashore, dreamed of its being yourself." tion of the blessings which the tal service. It is not probable time with the oyster comes, it is lives:

his being frightened. passed between them was never | The whart was deserted when | Soon William exclaimed that It refers to the Geneva Arbitra- might be initiated, so that future earlier stages of its development. of the face worked convulsively. All was cheerless and deserted, a shiver passed through the form At length William brought a After seeing that everything had and William was no more for this three lamps, and placed one in The next day he busied himself the hall, one in the stairway, and merry laughter, or sweet singing, tity of mortar, which he carried to lift the body, but found himself unable to do so. He then placed This room had a brick flooring his arms under those of the corpse. with the exception of a square and with almost super-human had brought for the purpose in

He then removed all the debris ever and anon looking round as order. It was greatly to be hoped Then he went to the sideboard if he felt again the gaze of those that the present Liberal Governmantle with his head resting up- tion. Arriving there he transacton them, he stood gazing a long ed his consin's business, wrote letery action up to this time, had been as coolly performed as if on- seaport. Ascertaining when a self in the clammy moisture of his fallen from a precipice and was

was not one-half so great an affair, William endeavored to recover measured in any way, as the Chicago the skill of engineers ping to his side, laid his hand on liam was to take his wife to her himself and greet his consia pleas. conflagration. The latter must still be his shoulder, saying: "Cousin, do mother's, and leaving her there, not think I would defraud you of would reach home at ten the next

President's Message.

Washington, Dec. 2.

trials. It compliments Messrs, profitable investment. Adams and Bancroft upon their to our relation with the British North American provinces. The President says that he has recived notice that the Imperial Parliament and the Dominion Government had passed laws to arry the provisions of the Treaty of Washington into operation, and ie, therefore, recommends the egislation of Congress in the same direction. He speaks of the friend relations of the United States with all the Governments of Euope. He refers to the Vienna International Exposition, recommends the fitting up of two National vessels to convey the goods of exhibitors to Trieste, and suggests that a proposition be made to have the next great exposition in this country in 1876, at the time of the Centennial Celebra tion in Philadelphia. He refers to the disturbed condition of Cuba and says that no advance towards pacification in that Island has been made while the insurrecments of power or prospective

Referring to our relations with recommends provisions for maintaining four American youths in

He gives details of the revenue received in the past year, and of ficient revenue to meet current with the Atlantic at Charleston who loved her money not wisely, and Savannah by way of the Ohio but too well. When he got the IMPORTANCE OF READING.—No The Chicago Times thus indignantly and Savannah by way of the Unio but too well. When he got the money, he loved somebody else, matter how obscure the position just been mulcted in a considerable sum for turning a vonted lady traveler away. cles to be overcome being within

He calls attention to the weak- arms again." ness of the American Navy, and This is what she wrote back. endorses the recommendation of of the franking privilege, and re- fuel in Iowa lime kilns.

commends a modification of its existing evils. He also recommends the adop-

Referring to the Kn Klux out- tiny creatures free from their minent services in the matter of rage, the President expresses his mothers, than they assume the he Geneva and the San Juan ar- conviction that the time is not most active state of life and motion. sitrations. The decision in the far distant when the obvious ad-dancing and gyrating up and down atter case leaving the United vantages of good order and peace in concentric columns, as midgits States for the first time without will induce an abandonment of all play in evening sunbeams. Unthy question as to disputed boun. such combinations, and when it der the lens of a microscope you to be taken against it with intent therewill be unnecessary to carry on will see how exquisitely these lit-In regard to the fisheries, and prosecutions or to inflict punish- the fellows are fashioned. A pair tors, or to defeat or delay the operation ment in order to protect citizens of tiny shells, the counterpart of of the bankrupt act? from the lawless doings of such those of the mature oyster, in combinations.

them in fee and in severalty.

Congress be made under it.

extinguishment of poligamy.

Washington for work done in growth they are considered mar. stead of a jury,) I have not been able to success than a year ago. Neither front of the public reservations, ketable. where the curtains had fallen had Spain succeeded in repressing and for the embellishment of the He favors action to give greater of the Centennial anniversary of American independence.

so as to secure to the public service a practical method of obtainand employees.

The reading of the message was completed at 2:50, having occupied .....

the diplomatic family of minis- has been declared unconstitutional. It 17. Between 35 and 40 years of appears, from the special telegram to the age the mortality per 1,000 is: son, "but you'll find it very pow-Courier, published this morning, that Married men 1, bachelors 13, and erful; be careful how you use it." the administration to be inaugurated proposes a tax for State purposes of widowers 17. Continuing these more and more estranged from missen of the interest of the reduction to the amount of twelve mills on the dollar, exclusive of calculations through different sephial and feeling himself proof over $100,000,000 of the public the tax for County purposes, which is to ries of years, the advantage are on against any quantity of raw whisthe conduct of William while at laughed and shook off the fancy. | poured into it a small portion of a laughed and shook off the fancy. | colorless fluid from a vial which would teach that sweet voice to | debt. He expresses a doubt | be three mills more. No provision is to | the side of the married men. whether any further reduction in be made for the payment of the interest be left at certain places until he present laws, until sufficient time should be above suspicion or reproach. expenses, pay interest on the pubhe debt, and provide for the sink- daty of the hour is retrenchment, rehowever, when all was prepared, calculated his time, and then wrote ing fund. He suggests, also, that trenchment in the number of employees the currency shall be as soon as and in the long sessions and pay of the collected, being accumulations on sailor, till he thought it would be ed his head on his hand, and thus Nature would have her sway; and style addressed to the wife of Wil. the battle between right or wrong going on within him, showed it gold. He says that various enterprises will be brought to the attention of Congress for the cheap- as possible within the same congress for the cheap- before the late war. Hundreds of thous: the late law of Congress, and therebrow, and alternately quivering crushed to pieces. He had fallen ening of transportation of produce and sof dollars would thus be cut off soon see which spirit gained the possible to recover the body. He coast, and suggests that steps penses. This would afford the highest that any modification of it will be from the West to the Atlantic sea from useless and unnecessary annual ex-

the Secretary of the Navy in that case delay. I've gone to have a no human voice cheers him with ander Pope, just after buying a good respect, he recommends subsidies loaded head put on the cane you the animating tones, if he has family hoss."

Oyster Bables.

An observer of the ovster says The following is a synopsis of tion by Congress of the best me- he is not as stupid as he looks. tains? I would have been pre- the President's message, which thod of acquiring title to all tele- He can keep his mouth shut, and being the great fire in Boston .- but he thinks the movement lation of the spat, which is, in the sumes the appearance of the scrap-direction. No sooner are these

close the yet rudimentary organs, He makes suggestions in regard while affixed to the mantle is a to the Indians, that they shall be kind of tiny coronet, composed of confined to the territory south of minute, hair-like appendages (ci- the Attorney-General, vs. the Greenville Kansas, and that farms be assigned lia.) The violent and ceaseless and Columbia Railroad Company? vibration of these living paddles | As to the first question, I hold that He recommends that a further serves to row the infant ovster whatever the interest or lien the State census be taken in 1875, but that rapidly from the place. Should it no reappointment of members of become the destiny of one of these fragile beings to become a steady. bankrupt, the jurisdiction of the bank-In only one of the Territories- well-behaved oyster, it finally Utah-is the condition of affairs settles itself on some suitable rest- State is a creditor. regarded by the President as un- ing place, to which it makes itself | As to the second question, I hold that satisfactory. It had seemed to be fast-no one ever clearly knows the Greenville and Columbia Railroad, the policy of the Utah Legislature how-by the under valve or shell. under the act and decisions upon the to evade all responsibility to the The bristle-like pores or cilia, no visions of the bankrupt act. Government of the United States, longer of any utility, disappear, As to the third question, I hold that and even to hold a position hostile and now a permanent fixture, the the interest coupons severed from the He recommends a careful revis- about a fortnight old it is not Greenville Railroad were "a banker, ion of the present laws, and the much bigger than a fair-sized pin's broker, merchant, trader, manufacturer > delight in statistics have been investigating the effect of marriage out of 1,000 widowers 22 deaths. thus:

Between 30 and 35 the deaths in "Stranger, I'll thank you for a each of those countries, as part of REST ON THE BONDS: - The recent tax levy men 7, bachelors 11, and widowers kind o' curious to try it."

CHANGES IN EXISTING LAWS TO BE beef rather bountifully with it, PROPOSED.—Washington, Novem. and forthwith introduced it into ber 12.—The commissioner of in- his capacious mouth. ternal revenue estimates the receipts of the bureau for the presof the whole State. The tax of twelve with a national increase anreceipts of the first quarter were screamed "fire." larger than those subsequently fore there is no reason to believe ner of administration and reor-A FORGIVING WIFE DESERTED.— ganization of the districts, in order to render the system more connect the Mississippi Valley New York. She married a wretch will undergo any material change.

squelches a Cincinnati journal for daing proposed extension of the Kanato in sinuate that Boston had gone shead to insinuate that Boston had gone shead wha and James Canal and the ries of the West. His earthly posterable to the may at will put himself from his hotel because she was unactive of a configuration of the state of the west. His earthly posterable to the may at will put himself from his hotel because she was unactive of the west. of Chicago in the matter of a conflagraChesapeake and Ohio Canal and to sessions were burnt up in the Chiin the best society the world has companied by a gentleman, the act being the proposed Canal around Niag- cago fire, and then he came back ever seen. He may converse with publicly done and creating considerable part of the route, and the obsta- ful partner, he thus wrote her: | blessings, present and future, to "I am here and penniless. For- himself, He may reside in a de- to pick out a good hoss," says: "Good give the past, and come to my sert, far away from the habitations of man; in solitude, where An honest man iz the noblest work of no human eye looks upon him God,' this famous saying was written in "I'll come as soon as I can. Ex- with affection or interest, where great auguish of heart by the late Alexbooks to read he can never be

The Greenville Railroad Case. Judge Bryan has made the following decree in the case of Charles Madsen and thers, petitioners for the involuntary nankruptey of the Greenville and Colum-

ADVERTISING RATES.

Advertisements inserted at the rate of $1.50 per square—one inch—for first insertion, and $1 for each subsequent insertion. Double

Notices of meetings, obituaries and tributes of respect, same rates per square as ordinary

Special notices in local column 20 cents

Advertisements not marked with the number of insertions will be kept in till forbid

Special contracts made with large adver-discrs, with liberal deductions on above rates

JOB PRINTING

Done with Neumess and Dispatch.

Terms Cash.

and charged accordingly.

It will be seen that the issue made by the pleadings in this case are as fol-

1st. Whether this court has jurisdiction, the State of South Carolina having instituted proceedings as guaranter upon he bond, of the respondent, and in the State court, under which all the property of the company has been taken pos-

2d. Whether the Greenville and Columbia Railroad Company is a corporion surgect to the provisions of the ankrupt act?

3d. Whether the interest coupons severed from the bonds are commercial paper, and the non payment thereof for fourteen days is an act of bankrupt.

4th. Whether the Greenville and Coambia Railroad Company was bankropt and insolvent at the time it suffered udgment to be taken against it by de-

5th. Whether being bankrupt and insolvent, the defendent suffered payment by to give a preference to those credi-

6th. Whether the respondent has suffered its property to be taken on legal process with intent thereby to defeat and delay the operation of the bankrupt act in the case of the State ex-relatione, may have in or upon the property of the said Greenville and Columbia Railroad Company, if said company be rupt court is not ousted because the act, is a corporation subject to the pro-baby oyster, begins to grow. At bonds are commercial paper, and if the enactment of laws that will secure head, and at three months about peace, the equality of all citizens that of a split pea. Having at of bankruptey; but as it does not (in before the law, and the ultimate tained a year's growth under fav- my opicion) fall within any one of these orable conditions the young ovster classes, the spenalty for such stoppage He recommends an appropriativill become as big as an ordinary does not attach.

tion to reimburse the City of half-penny; while at four years | As to the fourth question, (acting infind the insolvency of the company, or decide that it is insolvent.

MARRIAGE AND CELIBACY. - As to the fifth and sixth questions, Those dry but useful people who not having found the Greenville and Columbia Railroad insolvent, it is un necessary that I should decide them.

and celibacy on mortality. They A young parson of the Univerhave demonstrated to their satis salist faith, many years since, faction the beneficial effect of when the Simon pure Universalantercations arose, which seriously all the strongest causes of the strongest causes of the says he will carry out the rules alarmed the old gentleman, as he was anxious to foster a close and not exist. To her who was the fear a ray of light should be seen Up and down through the streets thinks that the abolition of slavery last parson who has described is marriage upon longevity. The last parson who has described is marriage upon longevity. last person who has devoted his ward to attend a convention of his attention to this subject is M. brethren in the faith. He took Bertillon. His statistics cover the precaution to carry a phial of the States of France, Holland and Cayenne in his pocket, to sprinkle Belgium. According to M. Ber- his food with as a preventive of tillon, between the ages of 20 and fever and ague. The convention 35, out of 1.000 married men met, and at dinner a tall Hoosier there are 6 deaths; and out of observed the parson as he season-1,000 bachelors 10 deaths, and ed his meat, and addressed him

> THE TAX TO BE LEVIED AND THE INTE- the san a number are: Married little of that ere red salt, for I'm "Certainly," returned the par-

> > The Hoosier took the proffered key, thought that he could stand WHISKEY AND TOBACCO, NO accordingly sprinkled a junk of

It soon began to take hold. He shut his eyes and his features began to writhe denoting a very in-Finally he could stand it no longer. He opened his mouth and

"Take a drink of cold water from the jug," said the parson. "Will that put it out?" asked the martyr, suiting the action to

In a short time the unfortunate man began to recover, and turning to the parson, his eyes yet swim. ming in water, a "Varselit, I believe?" "I am," mildly answered the parson.

"Wall, I want to know if you think it consistent with your belief to go about with hell fire in your breeches pockets."

A virtuous landlerd in Louisville has Josh Billings, in his directions "How hosses are skarse, and good men, that deal in enny kind of hosses, are skarser.

tion, and thus become contented ted States, and $90,000,000 worth in manufactures.