LANDS FOR SALE IN GREENVILLE COUNTY.

THE subscriber expecting to move his Machinery offers FOR SALE the place where he is now living, with

Two Hundred Acres of Land attached. The Dwelling House is a two story building, one of the most comfortable and best looking country residences in the County, containing seven rooms, lathed and plastered, immediately attached to it. The out-buildings are commodious--the stables, barn and crib, covering about one-third of an acre, are all under one roof. The soil is good and water most excellent. The place is about six miles from the spot where arrangements have been made to locate a Depot on the Air Line Railroad.

Also, Twenty lots adjoining same, containing Fifty Acres of Land, more or less. These lands lie in the fork between Thompson's and McCool's Beaverdam Creek, and contain some bottom as well as upland. They are mostly uncleared and are well adapted to the raising of cotton, corn, wheat and other grains. If a purchaser desire he can obtain a larger or smaller number of acres than the above.

Also, One tract on Mack's Creek, at the head of Jenkins' (formerly Barrett's) mill pond, containing about Seventy Acres--twenty acres or more of bottom land, which will be rendered as productive as formerly, need re-ditching. These bottoms have produced over sixty bushels of corn to the acre.

Also, To an approved Co-partner, (a Millerwright preferred) one-half interest in the Water Power Mills and Buildings known as Willden's Factory, (Factory Machinery, &c., excepted,) and Two Hundred Acres of Land, lying around and adjoining the same. The land is of excellent quality, containing both upland and bottom. The water power is a very safe one with a fall of twenty feet or more.

For terms, which will be reasonable, apply to R. FULMAN WHILDEN, Whilden Hall, P. O., Greenville Co., S. C.
