Prof Schmitt-Concert Lovelace & Wheeler--Bring in your Cotton.

Just received at R. C. Shiver & Co.'s the first new goods of the season, for fall and winter, cheaper than ever before.

Mr. W. H. Harris, it will be seen by reference to card, has opened a Cabinet work shop, for the making and repairing of furniture, stocking of guns, &c. He is a skillful workman and full of inventive genius. Give him work

M. Riser, who is prepared to execute in handsome style any work in his line, which may be entrusted to him. His gallery is on Plain Street, between Shiver's and Dr. E. E. Jack-A NUISANCE .- Can't the Town Council pass an Ordinance to put a stop to rolling wheelbarrows and trucks over the pavements? It would be a very laudable act and would receive the hearty approbation of all, for this nuisance is very annoying to pcdestrians. Do take some action on this matser, gentlemen of the Town Council!

One and all are respectfully invited to call and examine our Stock and Prices before buying. Polite and attentive Salesmen in attendance. R. C. SHIVER & CO., 38-tf. Newberry, S. C:

REGISTERED. -Our polite Clerk of Court Capt. Smith, through Mr. J. F. Kilgore, furnishes us the information that up to Monday night, the 29th, the total of claims registered amounts to $18,862.74, of past due County indebtedness. The limit for registration expired on the 30th, and it is thought the final amount will be $20,000.

RETURNED .- Lt. Anderson, after an absence of some months spent in doing a considerable portion of the 'old country,' has returned to his post.

The Judge of Probate, J. C. Leahy, Esq., is again to be found in his office prepared for business. Judging from his improved appearance he has had a splendid time abroad.

THE 3D OF OCTOBER.-Don't forget the frolic at Pomaria, on Friday, the 3d. The entertainment will be of the best kind. Good speaking, fine music, grand tournament, eatables of the best kind, and a display of beauty and fashion such as has not been seen in Newberry for a long time. Trains will leave Newberry in the morning and return in the evening.

A COLUMBIA HOUSE.—The house-furnishing establishment of Messrs. Kingsland & Heath, Columbia, and under the Columbia Hotel, is one of the attractions of the city. There is no article outside of cabinet furniture and cooking stoves, but which can be found in it. Ladies visiting it are always "carried away" with delight, and seldom fail to carry away a host of things to the infinite satisfaction of the proprietors.

KNIGHTS OF JERICHO. -On Monday evening, the 22d ult., O'Neall Lodge, Knights of Jericho, was organized in Temperance Hall, numbering-sixteen members. The following officers were elected: J: E. Chapman, Chief; W. H. Harris, Vice Chief; Miss Mary Mc-Coy, Preceptress; J. I. Houseal, Sec.: O. B. Butler, Treas; L. C. Moore, Marshall; T. A. Thompson, Herald; G. E. Summer, Guard; J. N. FORE ASSORTMENT.-An inspection of Dr. Fant's Pocket Cutlery and Razors proves the truth of the advertisement, that the assortment is very superior, and notwithstanding this, that the prices are exceedingly low. If any one is in want of a handsome pocket knife, large or small, for a gentleman or lady, and of good metal, accommodation can be had at the Doctor's. His rezors, too, are as keen as a Damascus blade. He will accept our thanks for one of the best of pocket knives.

Chorning,-Mr. Patrick Scott, the veteran Merchant Tailor and experienced clothier, we are pleased to see, is back from his Northern trip, and that he has brought with him a fine lot of gentlemen's wearing apparel. Mr. Scott's ability to make good selections is undoubted, and his prices, beside, are known to be reasonable. His present lo cation is diagonally opposite his old place of business, on the south-west corner of Caldwell Street. Our thanks are hereby tendered him for, he knows what.

Each and every Department of our in mease establishment has been thoroughly overhauled and replenished with new and de sirable goods. R. C. SHIVER & CO., Newberry, S. C.

CLEARING AWAY .- We are pleased to no tice that the financial cloud is clearing away, and that the night-mare which almost for a time paralyzed trade is broken. Our merchants have heavy stocks of goods, (look in the HERALD for their advertisements), and they had reason to fear, likewise the farmers with their cotton, but the crisis is passing away, and all, we trust, will soon be well again. and trade open with redoubled activity. We saw faces smile yesterday that a few days ago looked as if the night of despair had settled over them. Cotton is selling again.

THE CONCERT .- Agreeably to promise given in the last HERALD, Prof. Schmitt will repeat his Concert on this Wednesday night, at the Town Hall, on which occasion he will be assisted by the same talented amateur performers. We would bespeak for him a large turn-out, a hall full of the beauty, fashion and intelligence.of Newberry, that his heart may be made light and his pockets heavy. To use his own language, ladies and gentlemen, if you give him a large house he will assuredly "make him all right. Don't forget the time, and turn out promptly

A LARGE STOCK .- A visit to the store of our fellow-townsman, Mr. Thos. F. Harmon, just now in the full tide of receiving and unpacking late purchases, is sufficient to impress beholders not only with surprise but delight-Surprise, at the vastness and variety of goods which fill the store from centre to circumfer. ence, and delight that so many of the multitudinous wants of the great public can be supplied. NEW FURNITURE .- One day last week we visited the Furniture rooms of Mr. R. Y. Leavell, but further than the opening passage we could not penetrate, by reason of the arriva; of an immense stock of new furniture, at which, between the coming and unloading of the drays, he was busily engaged, in opening and setting his house in order. His assortment of furniture embraces various styles, from plain and single pieces, to the most exquisite bed-room and parlor setts, and in such numbers that the tastes and pockets of all can be suited. The confused ondition of the piles of boxes, loose pieces, and the noise and dust, drew largely on our sympathy for our enterprising young friend, for it really looked as if he had too much elephant' on hand, but we know that all will be straightened ere this paragraph sees the light, and he be ready to show his goods Call and examine his stock.

LEGAL NOTICES .- Persons having claims against the estate of George Morris, are required to present them before the twentieth of October, and all persons indebted will make payment to Thos. R. Morris, adm'r. The kindred and creditors of Sam'l H.

The Board of County Examiners will mee at the office of the School Commissioner, on Saturday, 4th October, at 11 o'clock, a. m., at which time all persons desiring certificates as Teachers in the Public Schools will present themselves for examination.

RELIGIOUS .- The community will regret to learn that the Rev. John Stout, who has for nearly two years, efficiently and acceptably discharged the duties of pastor of the Baptist Church of this place, has been forced by the delicate health of his amiable companion to resign his pastorate. The resigna tion will take effect in December. On the last Sabbath in that Church, it was determined to hold a ten o'clock-morningprayer meeting hereafter. The order of exercises will therefore be, public prayer meeting at 10, regular morning service at 11. and Sabbath School in the afternoon at 4 o'clock. Wednesday afternoon prayer meeting at 4.

Services were held in the Episcopal Church on last Sabbath, the Rev. E. R. Miles preaching at the morning hour, and Bishop Howe in the evening. There was a confirmation in the evening.

An interesting and profitable prayer meeting was held by members of the Methodist Church on Sunday afternoon, at the residence of Mrs. Harp. This lady has been for some length of time confined to her house. These meetings it is thought will be repeated. The young men's Monday night prayer meeting is continuing to grow in interest. arge numbers attend regularly. A GOOD PAPER.-We have been pleased to hear from our friend, McD. Metts, and more so for the testimony which he bears as to the merits of the Newberry HERALD. We sometimes despond, and think that it is not appreciated as it should be, and just then, as in this instance, a cheering word is received, which lifts the cloud. Hear what he says: "The HEBALD has just come, and has saved you no end of scolding and myself from oodles of mosquite bites. I would not be without the HERALD in this sea-girt city for any consideration." We have always thought the paper invaluable in many renew virtue touches us tenderly, and we can't help feeling a greater degree of pride as we look upon its wide pages and long columns. As an antidote for mosquito bites, we dared not hope that it would prove effective, but McD, says it saved him from oodles of bites, and he is a truthful man, and our good friend. We know of nostrums which are efficacious for all the ills which man is heir to, but 'tis seldom a newspaper can be made to subserve other than the legitimate purpose of disseminating news. The HERALD goes bewond that, it has saved a reader from pain and annoyance, and in the gratitude of his heart he tells us of it. Thank you, good friend, and on the strength of it, we shall edouble our exertions in making the HER-LD more acceptable to friends, and a greater terror to enemies-mosquitoes especially; and to carry out that purpose, as soon as we can raise the means sufficient, which will be directly—for everybody promises to pay in a short time—we shall add to its length and its readth, and increase the power of its tone. We hope our friend will write again and tate how it was accomplished, whether its oothing editorials put him to sleep, its lively locals set him to laughing, at which the pestiferous insects were driven away, or whether the paper was used as a fan. It is important that it be known. In the mean-time we advise our friends and readers to eco amend the HERALD to all such as are

Natural Decay-Protect the Systom,

The human body is a machine, and there fore cannot endure forever; but, like a watch or a sewing machine, it will last much longer if properly regulated and duly repaired, than if no pains were taken to keep it in order. The great object of avery one who desires a spects-but somehow the knowledge of this long and healthy life should be to put his body in a condition to resist the life threatening in. fluences by which we are all more or less surrounded; and no invigorant and corrective at present known so effectively answers this purpose as the vitalizing elixir which under the unpretending name of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, has been for more than twenty years the standard tonic of America. In crowded cities, where the atmosphera i from large populations; in marshy regions, where the soggy soil reeks with miasma; on the prairies and in the forests, where every all the air is tainted with exhalations from rotting weeds and grasses, or decomposing leaves—in short, in every locality where ma-laria exists, this powerful vegetable antidote is urgently needed. Fever and ague, bilious fevers, 'dysentery, congestion of the liver, jaundice, rheumatism, and all diseases which are generated by infected air, impure water, or sudden changes of temperature may be averted by strengthening and regulating the ystem in advance with Hostetter's Bitters. Autumn is always a season of peril, especial ly to weak, susceptible organizations. Even the more vigorous are apt to be in some measure depressed by the humid atmosp oaued with deleterious gases produced by vegetable decay. The fall is a period of the year when the renovation and regulation of the living machine is peculiarly important, and the Bitters should therefore he taken not subscribers. There is no telling how | daily at this critical season.
