

Special and Local.

LEGAL NOTICES—Persons having claims against the estate of George Morris, are required to present them before the twelfth of October...

INDEX TO NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—J. C. Wilson—Family Groceries, &c. R. Y. Leavelle—Furniture.

Attention is called to the notice of Messrs. Maybin & Chick, surviving partners of R. Moorman & Co. Parties indebted will find it to their interest to settle on or before the time named.

HANDSOME.—We are pleased to notice that our townsman, C. G. Jaeger, Esq., Registrar in Bankruptcy, has fitted up, and is now occupying, a conveniently arranged and neatly furnished law office, opposite the Post Office, on Caldwell Street.

PIANO TUNING.—We take pleasure in stating that Mr. R. H. Feaster, well known and highly respected by dealers in pianos, as an accomplished tuner and repairer of that instrument, will be in Newberry in a few days, prepared to execute satisfactorily and promptly any orders entrusted to him.

Ladies and gentlemen, if you want Dry Goods, Embroideries, Furs, or anything else, that is good, and at shrinkage prices—15 per cent. off for cash—make your purchases at the first-class Dry Goods Emporium of McFALL & POOL.

FINE COTTON.—Mr. Jordan Pool's old field cotton, near the College ruins, is produced by those who are judged to be the finest in this whole section. It was planted in four feet rows, well manured and thoroughly cultivated. About one month ago the caterpillars stripped the stalks of every vestige of leaf, leaving nothing but the strong branches and innomerable bolls, and now with nothing to intercept the view, the field looks like a wide waste of snow.

SAD MORTALITY.—We regret to learn that Mr. Thos. F. Tarrant, residing on the line of Newberry and Edgefield Counties, a few days ago lost by congestion his last of three children, which have died in the short space of a year, two having died within eight days of each other. Singular to say the second death occurred just one year from the first, at the same hour, and at night. We sympathize with the parents in this their sad bereavement.

TEMPERANCE ADDRESS.—On Friday night last, a large and respectable audience filled the spacious Town Hall, now known as Temperance Hall, and had the pleasure of listening to an eloquent and able address on the above named subject, by the Rev. W. D. Kirkland, of Columbia, who had been invited here for that purpose by the Order of Good Templars. The address was a capital one, abounding in strong appeals, touches of pathos, as well as happy humorous illustrations, and was well received. Mr. Kirkland is a young minister of great promise, and the Good Templars made a very happy selection in their choice for an orator. At the conclusion of the address, the acting Worthy Chief, the Rev. J. L. Shuford, took the stand, and brought the house down by some happy hits. We advise the Order to call on the latter gentleman often, as he lives within convenient reach. The results of the address and the transportation of the signatures of several persons who determined to throw themselves into the banner of Temperance.

The panic is over, and forbearance is ceasing to be a virtue. Parties indebted will look out for the red-headed, freckled face man who is on the war-path. Delinquents will sell themselves in the mountains of Hepzibah, where the lion roars, rather than in the presence of the double-jointed collector, employed by McFALL & POOL.

NOT THE MEN.—We had no idea when writing our notice of the Defunct Domestic Sewing Machine, published in last issue, that there were so many Domestic men in the County. We first hear from Mr. M. M. Buford, who complains of people twitting him with cheating his washerwoman, and defrauding the widow of her rent. Secondly, we hear from Mr. W. M. Watson, at Chapel Hill, who says that the old mamas look daggers at him, while the ladies all enquire who washes for him at present. We regret all this deeply. Both of the gentlemen named are domestic men of good and amiable qualities, and would soon wear an unpaid for garment, and having a stake of their own would not occasion to hire. To their own wives they look upon as a crime of deepest dye. Gentlemen and ladies of Newberry County, and all washerwomen, know, that Messrs. M. M. Buford and W. M. Watson are NOT THE MEN. The person alluded to hailed from Augusta, and was not half as good looking as either of those named above.

RHEUMATISM CURED.—That rheumatism can be cured, is reduced to certainty. A German invention—a sort of needle instrument—has been tested by numerous citizens throughout the State, and it has been clearly proven that it almost immediately relieves the pain and stiffness. During the past summer, we were for ten days in company with a gentleman from Newberry, who had, only a few days before, been relieved by this instrument, and so thoroughly relieved that he perambulated the streets of New York during a wet spell of several days' duration, without inconvenience. Two well-known rheumatic gentlemen of this city have been relieved of this painful complaint. Messrs. Webb & Bruce, of Newberry, are the owners of the patent right for the Southern States. We clip the above merited tribute to the efficacy of the Bismarck instrument from the Columbia Phoenix, and take pleasure in adding our testimony to it. The gentleman alluded to, is none other than Capt. Webb, one of the proprietors, and it is needless to say here, that he suffered from an attack of the severest character, and is now completely restored. Since then numerous bad cases have been relieved in this community. We mention this for the benefit of suffering humanity, that those who know not of the means at hand, may avail themselves of it.

COLUMBIA KU KLUX.—The editor of the Union-Herald, in the most wanton and cold-blooded manner, deprived Mr. Homer P. Tarrant, formerly of Newberry, of his life on Thursday last, and the Phoenix man with his bloody-mindedness thinking the gentleman not quite dead enough, gave him the final stab. We charge them both as being Ku Klux of the worst stripe. Of the two, however, the former is more guilty. He may plead that the act was unpremeditated, and done under the influence of Sogor's best Lager, which flowed so freely and abundantly about that time, and on the opening of that gentleman's new house, and that coming into his sanctum immediately after, his eyes, in a flash plenary rolling, lighted on the Newberry Herald, and seeing a paragraph announcing the departure of Mr. Tarrant, the idea seized hold of his imagination to kill the innocent gentleman. It was a cruel thing, not only to the gentleman himself but to his wife and family, luckily, however, they understood it at once—that the Union-Herald evidently saw through dark glasses, and took the Newberry Herald's lament in the local as an obituary—and further had been just apprised of the fact that Mr. T. was alive and kicking in the city of Augusta. Now had the Union-Herald, who stated in the same issue of our paper that he was dead, it would not have been so bad, but Mr. Tarrant was in good health, in a fine situation, and living on the fat of the land, with no prospect of starvation staring him in the face. To kill him under such circumstances is an offence against himself and his community.

Weather delightful. Some one has been frost. FEVERS abating.—Even the panic is subsiding. And business is looking up. As an evidence look at the new advertisements in the Herald. Another in the many improvements going on in town. Mr. Jordan P. Pool is increasing the capacity of his livery and sale stables. Mr. J. N. Martin has improved the appearance of his residence very much. There will soon be a first class restaurant opened in this town, and by that popular gentleman, Mr. Wm. M. Moreau.

Mr. Thos. F. Harmon's looking glass gallery acts like a charm. The handsome people in town pronounce the views charming. Harmon knows how to draw folks, no need of Hurst-guns customers. It is clearly proven that the "absolutist and abstracted Elementarism of being echoes or reappears by analogy within the related and concreted elaborism."

The freighters over the Greenville and Columbia Railroad continue to be very heavy, but notwithstanding they come through satisfactorily. When are men like eye-glasses? When they make spectacles of themselves. We advise all such to wear Speck's improved spectacles. The meanest man in town is the man who doesn't subscribe for a paper. Don't forget that among other improvements the Herald is to be enlarged, and the editor expects every man to do his duty. Come up and examine some pretty specimens of Job Printing done at this office.—Wedding Cards and Invitations can be printed here as well and as cheaply as elsewhere, and a little quicker.

A man who will send a Job of Printing to Columbia, Charleston or New York, is starving Printers at home need work, is not carrying out the right principle of live and let live. The idea of patronizing home industry never enters his head except in his own case. He expects people to buy at his store. Of course that is right. We are pleased to state that it is in contemplation to place a bell tower in St. Luke's Church, for the accommodation of the bell. In this connection we learn with regret that it is probable the Rev. E. H. Miles, will have to give up his charge of the Church, the coming year, in consequence of bad health.

On Wednesday afternoon, a small fire was discovered in the garret quarters, which, fortunately, was soon extinguished. It was accidental. Judge Moses and family are enjoying themselves at Spartanburg, where they will remain until the Fall Term of Court. We regret to learn that Dr. J. P. Johnson, living at Marlinton, lost an infant child last week. Mr. D. W. T. Kibler, a well to do farmer of this County, says there is no need of foreign labor. Farmers are advised to adopt his plan and raise domestic labor. Last week he was presented with a pair of bouncing boys. Mother and children are doing well.

Miscellaneous.

TOURNAMENT. A GRAND TOURNAMENT will come off at CHINQUAPIN, about 41 miles from Newberry, near Mr. Hope Buzard's, on the 6th of NOVEMBER. The following are the Prizes: First Prize, fine Saddle, Bridle, Blanket, and Martin-Gales, price, $200.00. Second Prize, $100.00. Third Prize, $50.00. Fourth Prize, $25.00.

THE WEED SEWING MACHINE at Vienna. (Extract from the Hartford Daily Contract.) In yesterday's issue we announced the return home of Mr. George A. Fairfield, Superintendent of the Weed Sewing Machine Company, who has represented that company at the Vienna Exposition. A personal interview with him satisfies us of the justice of the company's claim to the HIGHEST HONORS AT VIENNA.

SOMETHING DESIRABLE. In addition to my large stock of DRUGS and CHEMICALS, PERFUMERIES, etc., which has been lately replenished, I have added A Fine and Elegant Assortment of POCKET KNIVES AND RAZORS, of warranted material and superior finish, which I can safely offer to my friends and customers as worthy their attention.

EXECUTOR'S SALE OF LAND. I will offer FOR SALE, on the FIRST MONDAY IN NOVEMBER NEXT, at NEWBERRY COURT HOUSE, all the REAL ESTATE belonging to the Estate of WASHINGTON FLOYD, dec'd., consisting of over Sixteen Hundred Acres, lying in Newberry County, on Sandy Run Creek. Said lands will be sold in SIX SEPARATE TRACTS, of which will be exhibited on day of Sale, and can be seen at any time by calling on the undersigned.

Commercial. WEEKLY REVIEW.—Notwithstanding the enormousness of money, trade of all kinds opened lively at the beginning of the week, but toward the close fell off, and now we note a stringency quite unexpected and depressing. We feel confident, however, that business will soon improve. In cotton the transactions have, all things considered, been moderately lively, a good demand prevailing. If the farmers, who are their crop steadily to market, we feel confident that trade will at once revive, and the results of the late panic will soon be overcome. We are pleased to hear that the merchants are not only willing, but are making liberal offers to the planters to aid them in their time of difficulty.

THE WHEELER & WILSON SEWING MACHINE DEFIES ALL COMPETITION! AS A PROOF No lady who has one would willingly part with it. And every lady who has not, anxiously desires to have one. The W. & W. runs easily and with but little noise. And physicians recommend them for ladies in preference to all others. This Machine took the premium at the Vienna Exposition. Buy one and you will not regret it. Sold by L. H. REDUS, Agent for Newberry, who can be found at Dr. D. Mower's Store. He can furnish to those who prefer them, Howe's, Singer's, Domestic and many other machines, at reduced rates. Local Agency at the Store of Mrs. D. Mower. L. H. REDUS and W. C.
