They will also be held responsible for the publication of all notices in Bankrupt cases. Transient advertisements of any kind must be paid for in advance, if the parties advertising do not reside in town.

RELIGIOUS—A protracted meeting is now in progress at Trinity Church, in this County, under the charge of Rev. J. L. Shindler, and we understand that up to Sunday last there had been sixteen conversions. During one of the services there were seven infants presented at the altar for baptism.

All Taxpayers should attend the meetings of the Board of Equalization and show why the valuation they fixed upon their property should not be changed.

AN UNMARRIED THREE—We regret to notice by the Columbia paper, that the Drug Store of our esteemed friend and ex-citizen, Dr. E. E. Jackson, was entered a few nights ago and his money drawer robbed of greenbacks and a watch. We did not suppose that Columbia contained a rogue base enough to rob a man who does so base enough for the impemptions. His charity work is almost equal to that of certain country editors we wrot of.

A full assortment of Millinery and Millinery Goods, constantly on hand at Mrs. D. Mower's.

Attention is called to the advertisement of the Eriton Fertillizers, as offered by Messrs. W. C. Bee & Co., Charleston. These fertillizers comprise Eriton Guano, Dissolved Bone, and Ground Bone, and are well known to the farming community.

THE BENEFIT OF ADVERTISING.

The Publishing News, London, is responsible for the following: An English country gentleman recently became tired of his house, and determined to sell it. He instructed an auctioneer, famous for his descriptive powers, to advertise it in the papers for private sale, but to conceal the location, telling persons to apply at his office. In a few days the gentleman happened to see the advertisement, was pleased with the account of the place, showed it to his wife, and the two concluded it was just what they wanted. He and she would secure it at once. She went to the office of the auctioneer and told him the place he had advertised was such a one as he desired, and would purchase it. The auctioneer burst into a laugh, and told him that was the description of his own house, where he was then living. He told the advertiser to apply to him for the advertisement again, and he would give him the price for three times what it cost him.

CALICO BALL—GLENN'S SPRING.

The lady managers will accept our thanks for an invitation to attend a Grand Calico Ball to be given at the Glenn's Spring Hotel, on Thursday evening, August 18th, in aid of the Ladies' Memorial Association. It is expected that this will be the grand affair of the season, as most liberal arrangements have been made for this ball. The different lines of national and local leading aid in passing guests to be for one fare, the gathering will be very large.

The proprietors of the Hotel, Messrs. Cozart & Calnan, will also accept our acknowledgments of a tender of the hospitalities of their popular hotel, and we again believe that the success which has so far crowned the efforts of these gentlemen to restore Glenn's to its ancient prestige is highly gratifying to the people of this section and the State at large.

As this and the next months are the most trying to invalids, we urge the merits of the health-giving properties of this famous Spring upon their consideration. A month or two spent there, with proper use of the water, and under the care of mine host Calnan, will prove of incalculable benefit.

THE COLUMBIA HOUSE.

If the reader needs a new supply of Crocker's, Glass, Tin or Wooden Ware for the furnishing of house or kitchen, the place to go or send is the popular and large establishment of Messrs. Kingland & Heath, Columbia, S. C. Every article in their line which can be called for can be obtained there.

CAMP MEETING.

The Camp Meeting at Wicket's Camp Ground terminated, as before stated, on Tuesday morning, and resulted in thirty-seven conversions and twenty-one additions to the church. We understand that the number present on the Sabbath was unusually large, exceeding any previous gathering in years, and it is gratifying to state that notwithstanding the large and mixed crowd that the utmost order prevailed. This was in a great measure owing to the fact that the gentleman appointed to see to this matter—remembering last year's unseasonable conduct of certain youth who were undisciplined in Christian grace or common decency—had determined to prevent a recurrence of like conduct. The consequence was everything passed off quietly, and properly as it should be.

Our notice last week of the change of locality for the next meeting was rather premature, and it is now corrected by saying that the matter is in the hands of a committee, who will decide as to the place most suitable. Some are anxious to have the Trinity Church section chosen, others would have the Camp just where it is, while on another side the call is urgent for Ebenezer Church. Ten acres, it is said, is the area needed for the purpose.

A soldier named Boo Hjarne, of Maj. James Stewart's Company "K," 18th Infantry, died in Post Hospital, at the Garrison, Tuesday afternoon, August 4, 1874, of consumption. He deceased was a native of Göteborg, Sweden, and came to this country in 1870. He was about 27 years of age, had a good education, and here an excellent character during the time he served in the company, which was about 3 years and 7 months.

His genial disposition and soldierly bearing endeared him to his "companions in arms," who testified to his worth by the manner they attended him through his long sickness, and finally in the solemn, impressive and tender manner they deposited his remains in their last resting place.

The funeral services were duly conducted at the Garrison, by the Rev. H. W. Kuhns, of the Lutheran Church, who spoke in eloquent tones of the character of the deceased, and made some touching remarks relative to the "loved one he had buried, far away beyond the briny deep." The funeral took place at 5 o'clock, P. M., August 5th. The officers, non-commissioned officers and private soldiers—in full uniform and in procession, marched to Rosemont Cemetery, where the funeral services were concluded. After which a "Guard of Honor" fired a military salute of three volleys.

The handsome coffin was purchased from Mr. A. C. Chapman, Undertaker, who also furnished the hearse, &c. The whole arrangement reflecting credit on the members of the Garrison, as also on Mr. Chapman, for his endeavor to give satisfaction.

BASE BALL.

Considerable interest is being manifested in this excellent field game, by the young men of our town, who have organized a club, and are practicing every opportunity, getting themselves in trim to play such crack clubs as those at Asheville, Columbia and Greenwood. Their principal practice is with the garden club, &c., by the way, have you seen under the "non-fulfillment of the 'W. T. Sherman' B. B. C., and is now ready to run the "Blossom" with any club in this vicinity? A practice game was played between these Clubs Aug. 6th. The "Blossom" won on batting and on fielding, but the opponents, as will be seen by the following scores:
