INDEX TO NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—J. C. Leahy—Citation. Hugh Rodgers—Note Lost. Messrs. Hart & Co.—Scientific American.

Any one who will bring us new subscribers at $2.50 each, will be given one extra for himself, and a year's subscription either at the rate of $25.00 per annum, or the Home Journal, Rural Carolinian, Southern Cultivator, Science of Health, Peterson's Ladies' Magazine, Saturday Evening Post or Penn's Monthly. This offer places it in reach of the canvasser to get two papers free of charge.

On five subscribers at $2.50 each, brought in at one time, will entitle the getter up of the club to either one of the above named papers or magazines.

Twelve months ago we erased from our subscription books about one hundred and fifty names of subscribers, who were severally indebted in periods ranging from two months to two years, the aggregate loss of which was considerable.

Single subscriptions $2.50, always and invariably in advance.

See card of F. Werber, Jr., Deputy Surveyor.

"H." Edgedale—Thought lost to memory dear. A Happy New Year to all in the home. Knew it was an oversight, and would not mention it for a kingdom.

SONS OF TEMPERANCE.—This Tuesday (5th) being installation night and the commencement of a new year, it is desired that all will turn out, and that the brothers will see to it that the ladies are escorted.

REMOVAL.—D. M. Ward & Co., having removed from their old stand on the corner of Pratt and McKibben to corner of Boyce and Nance Streets, respectfully call the attention of their friends and customers to the same.

Col. A. Pope, General Passenger Agent, has sent us maps and time tables of the Atlantic Coast Line, and the Midland Line Passenger Routes. These maps are very convenient and travellers should possess them.

THE FIRST ANNIVERSARY.—Doda-mead will accept our thanks for an annual ticket on the G. & C. R. It is a most acceptable New Year's gift and is highly appreciated.

Col. Jas. Anderson, Superintendent of the Charlotte, Columbia and Augusta Railroad, has also sent us his New Years' offering in shape of an annual.

At a regular meeting of Silver Street Grange, No. 55, held on the 19th ult., the following officers were elected for the ensuing year, and will be installed the 24th Saturday in January:

Master—M. Werts. Lecturer—J. E. Higgins. Overseer—W. B. Werts. Assistant Steward—D. Werts. Secretary—G. Andrews. Treasurer—J. C. Stewart. Gate Keeper—Chas. Schulz. Ceres—Mrs. A. L. Spearman. Pomona—Mrs. Mary Reeder. Flora—Mrs. Amelia Andrews. Lady Ass't Steward—Miss L. Kelly.

GIVE HIM PRAISE.—Mr. John A. Kinard, the efficient Loading Clerk at the Newberry Depot, in a spirit of philanthropy, has erected by his own labor a platform in front of the passenger entrance. This is a great accommodation, and especially in wet weather, as passengers are enabled to step from vehicles to the office without getting into mud. Mr. Kinard is entitled to praise for this act of consideration.

Messrs. Hart & Co.—In our columns this week will be found the large and attractive card of Messrs. Hart & Co., of Charleston, proprietors of one of the oldest and most reliable hardware establishments in the city. The advertisement to which attention is here called is especially interesting to farmers and planters, and besides the various articles therein mentioned, they keep a general stock of everything in their line.

THE PLACE.—Under the Columbia Hotel, on Main Street, Columbia, at the People's Store of Messrs. Kingsland & Heath, seekers of Christmas and New Year's fancies cannot fail to be pleased. The articles kept by them are legion, for there are to be found all things under the sun.

A TREMENDOUS LEAP.—On Friday last a negro girl was taken up and lodged in jail on account of improper conduct, and while the door of her temporary prison was being locked, she rushed to the window—the third story—and sprang out into the darkness of the night.

SALE-DAY.—In spite of the shocking condition of the roads a large number of people were in from the country on Monday. Business was lively. There were sold the following tracts of land: 147 acres bringing $200; 300 acres, $700; 200 acres, $2,200; 366 acres, $2,300; 247 acres, $3,600; 215 acres, $1,005; 118 acres, $1,200.

Only one drunk seen. The number of subscribers who came and renewed was gratifyingly large.

PULASKI LODGE.—At the regular meeting of Pulaski Lodge, No. 20, I. O. O. F., Friday evening, Jan. 1st, the following officers were installed to serve the ensuing term:

CHAPMAN & CRAWFORD.—The reader will see that there are two capital 'C's' in this combination. It is a new firm, and a very firm one at that, and they commence the year in a way which will not only give satisfaction to the public, but will result in success to themselves.

FOR THE HERALD. MOUNT PLEASANT, S. C., Dec. 29, 1874.

EDITOR HERALD: The truck farmer here had a busy time, and every effort has been strained to get to all the Marrowfat peas could. And now comes the race, after the first week in January, to avail themselves of all the good weather possible to get in the Extra Early variety.

TO NEW FIELDS OF LABOR.—The Rev. Manning Brown and Rev. J. L. Shufford, late of the station and circuit of Newberry, left here on Wednesday last for their new fields of labor, and they carry with them the regrets not only of the charges which they respectively ministered to, but of the entire community, for their eminent Christian example and social qualities endeared them to the people, and the two years spent in our midst have been not only profitable, but pleasant ones.

It is Not Generally Known. That the shortest possible route between the South and Great West is through St. Louis, Kansas City, and Chicago.

THE YOUNG LADIES' ENTERTAINMENT.—We dislike very much to acknowledge it, but we were completely outdone by the young ladies on Wednesday night last. At nightfall the rain came down so lively that it never entered our imagination that they would venture out, but rather that the entertainment would be "postponed on account of weather," so throwing on an extra piece of wood we struggled up to the fire, and felt easy and comfortable, and never knew any better until the last pleasing act of the programme was ended, and the splashing of pedestrians in the outside mud was heard as they returned to their homes.

ABOUT THE TOWN AND COUNTY.—The weather is just so so. Slight snow and sleet on Friday. It is almost a matter of wonder where all the mud on the streets has come from.
