LITERARY.—The latest and most successful of American story writers of to-day is the Rev. Wm. M. Baker, pastor of a Presbyterian Church in Boston, and they do say, he gets more for a single serial than his whole year's salary. He has already written "The New Timothy" and "Moses Evans," and is now engaged upon a story entitled "The Golden Shore." His stories are laid in "the most interesting city of the South," during a residence there. The story, we learn, is to be published in the Rev. Dr. Talma's paper, the Christian at Work.

The past success of the Piedmont and Arlington Life Insurance Company is the ample guarantee that its surety is in the South, and especially in South Carolina and Virginia, has been far in excess of that of any other like corporation. During the past nine years this company has paid on account of death claims over $2,000,000, a very large part of this amount has been paid to beneficiaries in this State. It is a comment on the system of life insurance, and cannot find a company that more thoroughly deserves success than the Piedmont and Arlington of Virginia.

Do not use inferior paper when you write, but call at HERALD Book Store and get FINE'S best note, finest commercial note, etc., etc., together with Repp's initial and various other kinds of papers.

KINGSLAND & HEATH are better prepared than ever before to supply the needs of the great human family in all that pertains to housekeeping. Their stock is large and extremely varied, and there is no article of any conceivable utility but can be found in their establishment. Anticipating a large number of visitors to the city, they have wisely prepared for their reception. Their store is under the Columbia Hotel.

OLD SILVER WANTED.—One thousand ounces of old silver wanted at the Jewelry Store of J. F. Speck. The highest price will be paid for it in any quantities.

Mr. J. W. L. Arthur, the efficient agent of Wheeler & Wilson's celebrated Sewing Machines, having accepted an agency for the HERALD, is authorized to solicit subscriptions and collect dues for which his receipt will be valid. We commend him to the kind consideration of our patrons.

TO THE SMOKER.—Statistics show that whereas once upon a time the consumption of cigars was on an average of two to every male inhabitant, now it takes twenty to supply the demand. How many of these Great Smokers who have no knowledge, but we do know that Perry & Slawson sell as many if not more than any other dealers of their business capacity in the whole country. They have been constantly forced to increase the dimensions of their store and conveniences, and to-day they occupy a position of which they may well be proud. Their favorite brands grow from East to West and North to South, East and West the demand is made for Perry & Slawson's Segars. Do not forget the place when you visit Columbia. One door next to John C. Dial's Hardware Store. Orders promptly filled.

Tissue Paper, Leaf Paper, Bristol Board, Perfected Board, etc., etc., at HERALD Book Store.

The Best Protection.

The best safeguards against epidemic disease are thorough digestion and firm nerves. It is because they assure the regular performance of the digestive process, and invigorate the nervous system, that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters are such a sovereign protective against the influences which threaten to disturb the stomach and bowels. If the nerves are healthily tranquil, the assimilation of food perfect, as they are sure to be under the influence of this standard tonic and nerve, malaria may be defied; and if, in the absence of the latter, the system is prey to an intermittent or remittent type, the Bitters will, if persisted in, eradicate every vestige of the malarial miasm, and bring about the permanent relief with certainty to the operation of this potent vegetable alterative.

DEATH.—Again it is our sad and painful duty to chronicle the death of a citizen.—Mr. Charles P. Pope, who died on Sunday last, at the residence of Dr. Sampson Pope, in the 38th year of his age. The deceased had been in declining health for many months, and though his death was neither sudden nor unexpected, yet the announcement that the end with him had come was received by his many friends with painful surprise. We leave it to some one better acquainted with his eventful life and character to write a tribute to his memory.

NEWBERRY DIVISION, No. 8. S. of L.

will meet as usual to-night (Tuesday, Nov. 23rd) at 7 o'clock.

ILLUSTRATED PAPERS.—Call and get the popular illustrated papers at the HERALD Book Store. Leave an order for any particular one not kept on hand.

DANCING CARD.—Attention is called to the card of Mrs. Teasdale, to be found in another place. All persons contemplating taking lessons on the light fantastic are invited to signify their desire between this and the 1st of December.

CATALOGUE.—We acknowledge receiving a handsomely printed catalogue of Williamston Female College for 1875.

We are pleased to state that this popular institution is in a highly prosperous condition. The Winter Commencement is the 14th December.

ACCIDENT.—On Friday last, while Mr. F. D. Graham was feeding a gin, his left hand was caught by the revolving teeth and in a second it was drawn in, the third finger taken off and the remainder horribly mutilated. Our sympathies are extended.

LOOK OUT.—It is predicted that the weather in December and January will be uncommonly severe. Snow is to fall in vast quantities. See to it, and have a large supply of wood and coal on hand, so as to be prepared against any emergency. See to it, also, and prepare shelter for your stock, a little care bestowed in this way will be returned to the farmer in large measure.

WHAT HAS BECOME OF THEM.—A note on gilt edged paper from a charming correspondent, asks what has become of the Jalapa, Pomaria, Prosperity and Williamston correspondents. Alas, we cannot tell. Gone glimmering perhaps. The fact that enquiry is made, and from such a source, should certainly wake them from the lethargy into which they have fallen. Did they know what we know they would immediately resume their pens.

CHEAP AND GOOD.—On the corner of Caldwell and Friend streets stands the modest store of a modest and unassuming gentleman, Mr. Patrick Scott, and in that store is an admirable and cheap stock of clothing and gents' furnishing goods, to which we take infinite pleasure in calling attention. He has in a way peculiar to himself captivated the fancy of our little folks at home, and they unanimously declare that he is a nice old gentleman, all of which we agree to. If the reader-gentleman reader—wants pantaloons, vest, coat, shirt, &c., he cannot do better than to visit Mr. Patrick Scott.

A WANT.—That the Express Company which realizes so much from Newberry does not furnish a wagon for the delivery of its parcels excites the surprise of our business men. Surely the company can afford it, and too, its patrons are entitled to such an accommodation, for the rates charged are, to say the least, exorbitant. In every other place of importance, Express companies deliver goods, and why not here, and besides, they have offices in convenient distance of business for the reception and storage of parcels, but not in Newberry. Here the merchants have to take things just as they are found and not as they wish.

CLARA WILDMAN.—The many admirers of this charming young emotional actress will be pleased to learn that she is coming this way, and will shortly appear in Newberry for a few nights only. She is accompanied and supported by the New York Comedy Company, Imperial Cornet Band and Operatic Orchestra. This information reaches us by card from Mr. F. J. Wildman, proprietor and manager. As the date of coming is not named, and the company is at present in Charlotte, it is presumed that it will not be long ere they will reach this place. Further particulars, we are told, will be given through the papers and by programmes.

'SPONSIBLE.—A hefty citizen of good character bought some chickens from a darkey on Saturday, and not having any small change about his clothing, said he would step round home and bring the amount. As he had the chickens in hand, the darkey seemed dubious, when the purchaser said—'looking at the 'local' standing near—he will be responsible for me.' 'To be sure,' said the local, 'he's all right.' Well, the local never was more bedevilled in his life. An hour elapsed, and citizen had not returned, and the darkey not liking the situation, laid violent hands on the local, saying he was 'sponsible for de chicken.' The local managed to elude him for awhile, but again the darkey came on 'de 'sponsible man' unawares, and again he escaped. Two hours later—citizen not yet returned with the change—the local was again overhauled, and this time the darkey's dander was up. Said he, 'Lo k, mister, you'n 'sponsible 'fore Go'l and dat money's got to come.' Just then citizen hove in sight with the change, which he had been carrying about in his hand for over three hours, and all was well. We will never go security again.

THE LECTURE.—Col. Hamilton's Lecture on Monday night for the benefit of the Ladies' Monumental Association, was delivered to a moderately full house, many being kept away in consequence of the unfavorable aspect of the weather. We were pleased to see so many ladies out, notwithstanding the outside appearances, and have no doubt they were pleased at the many warm and truthful enunciations passed to the credit of fair, noble woman by the speaker, and also well paid in the eloquence of the subject. The Lecture is a most appropriate tribute to the cause for which it was prepared, and in behalf of those who were permitted to enjoy it, we return thanks to Col. Hamilton for the gratification conferred.

JALAPA ITEMS.—

The health of this place is no where to be excelled in the United States.

J. R. Campbell will soon complete another house—the third in the past eight months. His head is level.

An old citizen tells us that Mr. Martin, the present mail rider, exceeds any previous rider since the mail commenced this route. He is punctual, and in fact is all that constitutes a good business man. We long to see him handle the mail on the train.

Nathan Swindler, who was severely stabbed with a knife in the left breast, between the fifth and sixth rib, on Friday night, by the skillful treatment and prompt attention of Dr. R. P. Clark, is thought to be out of danger.

Our esteemed townsman, Col. G. S. Cannon, has been feeble for the past week, but is now improving.

This market is well supplied with choice beef, at from 6 to 8 cents, and Messrs. Wright and Rhode are satisfied.

Mr. William Dilland, while on his way home from Newberry, near Jalapa, fell off his wagon as one wheel suddenly fell into a deep mud hole. The wheel ran over him, breaking an arm and inflicting other injuries. The arm was properly treated by Dr. R. P. Clark, assisted by Drs. Thos. Weir and J. W. Folk.

Will not the Commissioners have our road worked, as it has not been worked in a year.

As the bird law is out, Snib and Sligh are making the birds fly. I think they should remember the editor, as partridge is next to chicken.

Jesse Clarey, while riding on a wagon, had an epileptic fit, and the wheel ran over him, inflicting injuries. Dr. J. W. Folk was called, and being prompt, soon gave relief to the injured man.

JALAPA.

*The gentlemen above alluded to, having an established reputation as birdists, requests us to say that if "Jalapa" would convey the impression that they do no more than make the birds fly, that he is incorrect. They are dead shots every time.—ED. HERALD.

ABOUT THE TOWN AND COUNTY.—

The weather is cold and bracing.

According to predictions heavy snow falls may be looked for this winter.

Wild ducks have already been noticed flying very low.

Turn down your cabbage heads if you have any and they will take on white.

A. G. Maybin again fills the editorial table—this time it is large turnip. He will certainly turn out to be a great man if he meets with no turn up.

A bale of water packed hay was sold here on Wednesday last—the dirty scamp was a negro.

Mr. Durham Lovelace has returned from his mountain farm and will fight it out on this line during the winter.

George Lane's oranges are sweet, and various other goods in the confectionery line very nice.

Dr. Barr has left Newberry for Atlanta, Ga., where he designs making his home. We regret losing so good and quiet a citizen.

Little Bob, three years old, has an eye to the beautiful. Walking out one night and looking up, said he, 'ain't the stars beautiful.' And they were.

From the sublime to ridiculous—look out for that car load of hogs. This is the time promised for them to be here.

If anybody has a grey kitten they will do a great kindness by bringing it to this office. Only one wanted.

Parties indebted to this office will oblige by settling immediately. A paper cannot be printed without some money.

Don't ask for any credit at the HERALD Book Store, but come prepared to pay for what you want.

Orders sent for books or stationery will be in accordance with the cash.

Bear this in mind.

Uncle Philip Sligh, one of the best old men in the County, paid us a visit on Wednesday. He is eighty-three years of age and sows all of his own wheat, although in feeble health. He is always in advance with his subscription besides.

The matrimonial market holds its own—every now and then souls are made happy. Invitations printed cheaply at this office.

Pin backs are still triumphant. Pin it back, another, pin it back tight, let me make a sensation just for to-night.

The Hook and Ladder Company at a late meeting barely had a quorum. That is not the way to do boys. When you undertake anything stick to it.

Our butchers are doing first rate now, only occasionally do they run in anything on the Centennial plan. The best of families are liable to mistakes though, and we excuse them.

W. H. Dickert should be careful and not fool any one. Fifteen cents pasted inside the show case on the glass made a gentleman of color feel bad. He saw it, and thinking it lying around loose, fell for the amount in goobers, then called for the money for the change, which wasn't there. "Wonder what that fifteen cents gone to," said he, when accidentally looking round with a bright smile cast on the case, "dar he is." We went for it, and the reader will understand how it was. No doubt Alexander had something to do with it.

This reminds us that the lamented Dave Crockett was once heard to say, be sure you are right, then go ahead.

It is strange how short sighted men become when they meet any one to whom they are indebted. Do you know how it is, reader?

Why don't some one agitate a rail road from Newberry to Chester, and a continuation to Augusta. Such a road would double the price of real estate, and twice as many goods would be sold.

Latest improvements in town—a back room to the post office building, and a shed room in the back of the Hotel lot.

HAVE YOU SEEN IT?—The Centennial Bole Pipe, sold by Perry & Slawson, of Columbia, is the latest wrinkle and the best thing out. These gentlemen have button-holed us, and will be happy to supply orders for the same at 75 cts. each, postage paid. Send for one by all means. In the meantime come and view the one which we sport.
