UNDER THE COLUMBIA. Attention is so often called to this model establishment in the Columbia Hotel, Columbus, S. C., that the readers of the Herald are by this time pretty well posted in regard to Messrs. Kingsland & Heath, the proprietors, and in the line of business, to keep the fact before the people, that in China, Glassware, Crockery, Fancy Goods, and a thousand and one household articles, they cannot be excelled either as to variety and excellence or in prices. As everybody wants something at this season, our advice is to try them. 50-f

IF YOU WANT TO SEE something nice, call at John F. Speck's, and you will not regret your visit. Ladies are particularly invited to call. No charge for looking.

PREPARE FOR WINTER. Don't let the cold winds of winter find your windows without sashes, or good wood doors, but have them fitted at once from the factory of Mr. P. P. Toole, whose address is given in another column. He is also agent for the "National Mould Paint Co.," who warrant their paint not to crack, peel or fade. Any one can apply to him. 50-f

WHAT IS THE USE FOR you to throw away your money on worthless Christmas Presents, when you can get something good and serviceable at John F. Speck's.

THE PEACE. The holidays approach and men are looking out for the best place to get the best things to make them comfortable, and to solace them after the perplexities of business. The greatest solace to the smoker is a good cigar, and to the cheever a cut of fine tobacco. The stringency in the times to make it necessary to get the most and the best for the least money. Under these circumstances we take pleasure in recommending Messrs. Perry & Slawson to the highest consideration. Their elegant and well fitted store, as the place where the largest amount of satisfaction can be obtained. We affectionately commend them to all who indulge in the solacing weed. 50-f

The Piedmont and Arlington Life Insurance of Virginia, continues to prosper despite the serious financial embarrassments that have afflicted the people of the Southern States during the past few years. Our people are becoming educated to the idea that by life insurance a head of a family can most certainly provide for the necessities of his family, and by the liberal terms of policy in the Piedmont and Arlington, if one should fall - after paying premiums for several years - he would be entitled to a paid up policy without extra pay, generally in amount to the payments made.

OLD SILVER WANTED. - One thousand ounces of old silver wanted at the Jewelry Store of J. F. Speck. The highest price will be paid for it in any quantities. 39-1f.

CHANGE OF SCHEDULE. - The schedules on the L. & C. Railroad were changed on Monday last. Up passenger train arriving here at 10.50, and down train at 2.55.

AGAIN. - Our mention that the work on the Laurens Railroad was completed to within about four miles of Laurens was incorrect. The workmen being still this side of Clinton - where for the last week they have been in a mud hole.

W. H. DICKERT presents his Christmas card to the public and makes announcement that he is prepared to suit all wants in his line of business, and the best of it is that his prices are low down to suit the times. Give him a ball.

THE SAME OLD PLACE. - Mr. W. A. Kinard, in this issue, makes pleasant mention that he is in receipt of his holiday goods, which he has commenced to sell cheap for cash. He has some of the nicest things out in the sweet line, besides substantial, and is determined to please. Do you forget the place, the old and familiar "Baltimore Corner."

CAPT. J. F. SPECK will make such a display of beautiful fancy goods during the holidays as never was seen in Newberry since Adam was a boy. With the good now in store and those still to come, his stock will be unusually large and brilliant, and those seeking pretty and serviceable presents are invited to call.

At a regular Communication of Amity Lodge held Monday night, 6th inst., the following officers were elected: W. H. Dickert, W. M.; H. C. Moore, W. M.; W. T. Larrant, S. W.; J. O. Peoples, J. W.; A. G. Maybin, Treasurer. J. E. Chapman, Secretary.

A FINE DISPLAY. - The stock exhibited by Messrs. Geo. Lane & Co., in Confectionery, Fruits, Canned Goods, &c., is unusually large, and the sight of the well-filled shelves is a refreshing one. They are certainly prepared for the holidays, and can supply every demand in their line. They will in a few days make such a display of Toys as will run all the youngsters in the land wild.

TRANSFERS OF REAL ESTATE from Dec. 6 to Dec. 13: L. V. E. Folk Charlot B. Counts, 100 acres, $100. D. A. Dickert and Mary C. Dickert to Alice A. Fulmer, wife of W. W. Fulmer, 70 acres, $1,000. J. J. Carrington, Sheriff, to Richard Clark, 466 acres, $3,885. James O. Meredith to Ezekiel P. Mathews, 283 acres, $2,800. Benjamin M. Beto to Mary C. Taylor, 50 acres, $813.22.

THE JAPS. - Temperance Hall was not crowded on Tuesday night last, but the turn out was good, considering the weather, and there was not one who did not appreciate the truly wonderful performance. Owing to the want of room on the stage and the low ceiling, several of the best things in the programme were omitted, to the regret of all. What was performed, however, was better than anything of its kind ever witnessed in Newberry. The law of gravitation was indeed set at defiance by these sharp eyed, quick handed and apparently boneless strangers.

LET THE PEOPLE KNOW. - The Christmas holidays approach, and many men have chanted being widely advertised, we prepared extensively to supply the thousand and one wants of this festive and generous occasion. As it only comes once a year, money is spent freely, and it behooves our merchants to let the people know what they have on hand. To make both ends meet, that is, to accommodate merchants and public alike, we have thrown open our columns for any and all advertisements which may be brought. Some have already come in, and we invite the reader to look over the paper and see who has good and reasonable articles.

CLARA WILDMAN COMPANY. - This favored Comedy Company, largely increased since last winter, will make its appearance here this season on Wednesday evening at Temperance Hall, on which occasion will be presented "Married and Divorced," with the Musical Extravaganza, "Our Prima Donna." We feel assured that Miss Clara, Mr. Wildman, and the Company generally, will have no reason to complain of the opening night or good, and the treat which is now offered after so long an interregnum will be highly appreciated. The management announces a stay of six nights and perhaps more. Reserved seats to be had at Speck's.

EFFECTS OF EDUCATION. - One of the blighting effects of education was shown in our town on Friday. Four Harmon, two of them were either not tainted with the prevailing epidemic, rascality, or knew nothing about the three R's, especially the one relating to figures. The other two, however, were more advanced, and on receiving their cotton tickets with the weights, changed the first figure of their bales from 4 to 5, and presenting them, received pay for 500 lbs. instead of 400. As soon as it was discovered, Harmon went for them, and found one, who paid $20 to get out of the scrape, and was "berry thankful for dat." The other put out, but sent up his donation just as the sun declined, and to the same amount. Both realize now that honesty is the best policy. We advise our cotton buyers before paying hereafter to examine tickets closely.

FRANK LESLIE, at his Mammoth Publishing House, 537 Pearl Street, New York, issues seven cent beautiful illustrated newspapers and magazines. Mr. Leslie was the first in the United States to undertake the publication of a weekly illustrated newspaper. The subscribers would have 2,258 pages, equal to the publisher of "The Oldest Illustrated Newspaper in America." The person who secures the agency for these publications for a certain year will make the most accurate and valuable illustrated History of the Nation published. We advise our readers who have the honor of being Newberry Herald, to secure one of Frank Leslie's illustrated periodicals, and with it the beautiful chromo.

SAD ACCIDENT. - James Alewine, a white lad about 13 years old, with a colored boy, Calvin Henderson, went out shooting on Saturday last. Through the foolishness of the gun the ramrod became fast loading, and while in the hands of Calvin, who was endeavoring to get it out, the gun discharged, forcing the ramrod through the stomach of young Alewine from left to right side, from which he died on Sunday. It appears that the deceased had cocked the gun previous to its discharge and was assisting his companion in getting out the rod, and was told by the latter to let it alone. The coroner, J. W. Eichetberger, who gave us the facts, says that Alewine declared earnestly that it was not Calvin's fault. Dr. L. B. Bates was called in, but could do no more than alleviate the dying boy's agonies by opiates.

PERSONAL. - Another handsome drummer put in an appearance last week. Mr. McKellar of the stationery house of Edward Perry, of Charleston. We regret to say he found the stationery business dull.

Among the visitors to town on Monday we were pleased to notice Mr. Jacob Singley, of Prosperity. Col. Peake, of the Laurens Railroad, visited us Thursday last. He was on the way to Charleston on official business.

A Valuable Medical Treatise. The edition for 1876 of the sterling Medical Annual, known as Hostetter's Almanac, is now ready, and may be obtained, free of cost, of druggists and general country dealers in all parts of the United States and British America, and indeed in every civilized portion of the globe. It combines, with the soundest practical advice for the preservation and restoration of health, a large amount of interesting and amusing light reading, and its calculations, chronologies, items, &c., are prepared with great care, and will be found entirely accurate. The issue of Hostetter's Almanac for 1876 is now ready, and is a valuable addition to a medical work ever published in any country. The proprietors, Messrs. Hostetter & Smith, Pittsburg, Pa., on receipt of ten cents will forward a copy by mail to any person who cannot procure one in his neighborhood. 48-3f.

Cotton active and firm - middling upland 13; middling Orleans 13-1/2; December 13 - Cotton firm - middling 12 1/2; December 13 - Cotton quiet and demand moderate - middling 12 1/2.

ABOUT THE TOWN AND COUNTRY. It rained, hailed and thundered on Saturday night last, and for the first time in five weeks the Sabbath was clear. The day was charming.

The sun shined out on Thursday, and the sight was refreshing. This minds us that the street shiners during the late snow drop a fine business in cleaning boots.

A man always on time - and who does nothing else and well that he undertakes - Mr. J. J. Amick. Dr. S. F. Fant is happily able to sell the celebrated Astral Oil at 50 cents a gallon.

Everybody is wild now. The adorable Clara Wildman is in town and will remain for a time. The little brown jug of the elder Jap attracted lively attention. It seemed actually to be imbued with a spirit.

Politeness costs no man anything, and yet some men are so ignorantly that they withhold the commonest civilities. They don't know any better. McFall & Pool have the most elegant stock of goods for ladies, gentlemen and youth in the country. Go and see, too, if they don't sell cheap.

The Laurens train took up a valuable cargo on Thursday, both in passengers and freight, and conductor Jas. O. Meredith was all smiles.

When a man to whom you lend money says he will be indebted to you forever, you may believe him. He would not tell a lie for such a small matter.

On the recommendation of Sol Smith Russell, we have tried "goose" - and regret to say that it was a trial of pain. Two days were required to cook it tender. No doubt the bird was old.

Mrs. Somebody with a book was in town last week. If industry and perseverance will accomplish anything, she will certainly succeed. We feel slighted at not receiving a visit or getting a chance to buy a book.

Mr. Martin Harris deserves credit for the substantial granite pavement in front of his establishment. It is much superior to the old zig zag affair further on. He intends to continue the walk. If no one else does we give him credit.

Our streets again present a familiar winter aspect. Mud is everywhere, and there is so much of it that the single mule and cart of Council cannot haul sand enough for the crossings. The best is being done, however, and we take to the sloop like a mud turtle.

Christmas is one week nearer than when we last alluded to it, and the little ones are that much nearer to the good things they are to receive. We wish them every so much luck, and trust that old Kris may not withhold his gifts.

Dickert and his lieutenant, Alexander, though they do not show vast abdominal proportions, carry big hearts under their vests, and guarantee to make good all of their promises in feeding the hungry and in supplying the various wants of mammas and children.

A man sometimes gets into a mess when he least expects it. We got into one on Saturday night, which came from the store of Mr. Durham Lovelace. It was a nice mess too, very fine indeed, and if anybody is curious, an inquiry at the store will satisfy.

Bargains can be had as I am determined to give satisfaction to my customers, and sell lower than any other merchant in the County. I see that the merchants of the city of Newberry, held a meeting and resolved to sell standard prints at 10 cents, and it is said and believed by people generally, that the merchants of Newberry city sell cheaper than in any other city this side of New York, except the FOUR MILE HOUSE, therefore to carry this out I must sell standard prints at 9 1/2 cts., and other articles in proportion.
