In readjustment of our agricultural economy, in duced by the results of the war, we need the counsel of every man who has secured success since. In the pages of this journal we find such counsel, indeed, every question of vital interest to us is handled with perfect candor, and in a spirit that must lift up the hearts of many who remain cast down in our Southern country. The present number gives in full the splendid address of B. The Fence Law.

Every week we see a recommendation of the passage of the fence law in some of our exchapes. Whenever we have a public meeting let the opinion of the county be had in regard to it. We are in favor of low taxes, but do not let us become monomaniacs on the subject, keep up an eternal croaking, and forget everything might enable us to pay a mill or two.

FOR THE HERALD.

We note with pleasure the placing of a lamp before the post office by our respected city fathers. This adds to the convenience of the public, and is in pleasing harmony with recent imsale, and to pay the cash portion of provements within. But we submit respectfully to our worthy Town Council-in the belief its desirableness will be appreciated by them-the continuance of a lamp on one of the intersecting corners of Friend and Caldwell streets as a serviceable convenience to a portion of the public attending night service in some of our churches, as well as to merchants and other citizens of this section of town, having to wind their way home after nightfall from their respective places of business. 'Tis true the lamp where now stationed lights Caldwell street, but as positioned before on the corner, it lit both Friend and Caldwell streets, thereby giving light where much needed to pedestrians reaching divine service at the Baptist and Lutheran Churches by Friend street, after turning street corner in rear of Mr. Wicker's. Besides we will be pardoned for suggesting-which is done with respect-that the commercial interests of the business houses situate on the respective corners of Friend and Caldwell streets-though possibly The New Era of Greenwood has not as extensive as some other merchants-are still entitled to the respectful consideration of the Council, and we believe will receive it. FOR THE HERALD. December 29th, 1875. MR. EDITOR :- Your humble servant had occasion to spend Christmas in Prosperity, on the G. & C. R R., and give you a few dots for the HERALD. Early in the morning, pedestrians, horsemen, and countrymen in various vehicles, began to pour into town. Soon the merchants were busy showing and selling various and numerous articles of merchandise, wares, etc. Each house, it seems, had supplied itself with an extra salesman or two for the occasion. Everything passed off as joyous as a marriage bell until late at evening, when an altercation occurred between one Pink Phillips (col'd) and Dr. J. D. Cureton (white), in which the latter received two severe wounds from a knife in the hands of Phillips. Phillips seemed to be the aggressor, and soon after was arrested by the marshal and posse and conveyed o Newberry jail. Prosperity is a live place, and a place of interest. It has surely arisen Phœnix-like. While I admire the indomitable will and perseverance of these people, I hope the Town Council will not think me meddlesome if I make a suggestion or two. First, I known and appreciated to require a more extended notice. We will only state that each consignment is subject to the severest towards Prosperity church, is very badly drained; also the cross street leading by the shops of Simpson, Holly & Paris. These places need draining badly, both for the health of the place and for vehicles and pedestrians. "A word to the wise is sufficient."

I was somewhat mortified and greatly surprised at the disposition among the merchants to "cut" each other. For instance, I saw N. O. syrup, $1 the Prosperity merchants, which are Thomas M. Paysinger, as Sheriff of the ruinously low, and have been so reduced by "cutting." My friends, allow me to say to you (as one having a knowledge continue to do business in this manner your commercial ruin is only a question of time: Every "cut" you thrust at your own intersst at home and your credit abroad. I would suggest, gentlemen, that if possible you STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA remedy this evil among you at once. Do not handle any article of merchandise without a living profit. NOTICES OF THE PRESS. The ever-increasing circulation of this excellent monthly proves its continued adaptation to popular derires and needs. Indeed, when we think into how many homes it penetrates ever month, we must consider it as one of the educ tors as well-as enter siners of the public mind [Bos-on Globe. The char ter which this Magazine possesses for variety, enterprise, artistic wealth, and literary culture that likept page with, if it has not led the times, should cause its conductors to regard it with justifiable complacency. The Magazine he done good and not evil all the days Magazine no done go a and not be a since.—Brooklyn Eayle.

Some of the most politar of modern novels have first appeared as serals in this Magazine. In a respects, it is an excellent periodical, and fully deserves its great success.
