

THE NEWBERRY HERALD.

Special and Local.

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 31, 1877.

INDEX TO NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

D. Epstein—Clothing. J. C. Leahy—Citations. W. M. Moore—Angusta Hotel. Osburne L. Schumpert—Notice. Wm. F. Nauco—Fire Insurance. L. E. Brown & Co.—Cooking Utensils. Day, Tannahill & Co.—Carriages, Wagons, &c. G. V. DeGraaf—To the Public—Price List of Furniture.

SPECIAL NOTICE.—Business notices in this local column are inserted at the rate of 15 cents per line each insertion. Obituaries, notices of meetings, communis, tributes of respect, &c. are charged as regular advertisements at $1 per square. Notices of administration, and other legal notices, obituaries, tributes of respect and notices of meetings, as well as communications of a personal character must be paid for in advance.

TAKE CARE OF NO. 1.—The papers are scanned eagerly by the public to find out who has the best goods, in the greatest variety and at lowest prices, and the public is right. Taking care of No. 1 is the governing principle these days. Among the many dealers who advertise in the HERALD, there is no more reliable firm than Messrs. Kinard & Heath, the large Crockery and Fancy merchants of Columbia. We can confidently recommend them in all business respects—they have a large stock, keep everything in their line which is known to the trade, sell cheap and give satisfaction. Visitors to the city will do well to examine their stock. Cash orders promptly attended to.

HOW IT IS DONE. The first object in life with the American people is to "get rich"; the second, how to regain good health. The first can be obtained by energy, honesty and saving; the second, (good health) by using GREEN'S AUGUST FLOWER. Should you be a despondent sufferer from any of the effects of Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Palpitation of the Heart, Sour Stomach, Habitual Constipation, Dizziness of the Head, Nervous Prostration, Low Spirits, &c., you need not suffer another day. Two doses of AUGUST FLOWER will relieve you at once. Sample Bottles 10 cents. Regular size 75 cents. Positively sold by all first-class Druggists in the U. S. 88—e-o-w.

REFER to advertisement of Good Books for the Farm and Garden, and also to that of the Dispensary of the United States. Any of these books will be furnished by us at the prices named. Books of all kinds at regular publishers' prices. Orders solicited at the Herald Book Store and prompt attention given. Cash in all cases to accompany order. 18—lf.

POMONA NURSERIES, GREENSBORO, N. C. J. VAN LINDLEY, Proprietor. This is to certify that S. H. & J. M. Hampton are regular authorized agents for the above named Nurseries during the Summer, Fall and Winter of 1877. All orders taken by them will be filled by my supervision. J. VAN LINDLEY, Proprietor. Oct. 10, 41—5t.

DIED.—A six year old son of Mr. W. H. Sloan died Sunday night of Croup.

Hon. D. Wyatt Aiken will accept our thanks for interesting Congressional favors.

To OUR MERCHANTS.—The merchants of Clinton and Prosperity say they sell goods lower than those of Newberry. Is it so? And if so, why? THOMPSON, Dentist, Square above Post Office.

Never hesitate to use some good remedy at once, to stop the progress of a cough or sore lungs. Shriver's Balsamic Cough Syrup will cure you; it is a cheap and sure remedy.

R. R.—Don't forget the Railroad Convention in the Court House next September. Let both the advocates and opponents attend, so that there can be a full, fair and free discussion of the question.

Abrams Satterwhite (col.), living on Mr. W. Waldrop's place, has shown us a specimen of his Irish potato crop (new). The potatoes are the Rose, and measured ten by twelve inches. We are obliged to him for a mess.

A grand ball will be given in the State House during the Fair. Among the committees for the occasion we find the names of Geo. Johnstone, Y. J. Pope, C. H. Suber and O. L. Schumpert.

We are pleased to learn that the old Baltimore Corner will in a short time be occupied by Mr. H. C. Hudgins, who will cater to the citizens of Newberry a choice stock of Family Groceries.

There is no stage of Consumption in which it is so late to administer Dr. J. C. Schumpert's Consumptive Cure and Lung Restorer. Thousands have been cured by it when there seemed to be no hopes. Trial 50c., large $1.50. Sold by all Druggists. For sale by Dr. S. F. Fant.

We return hearty thanks to Mr. Jas. O. Meredith, of Helena, for a very liberal supply of fresh vegetables—new Irish potatoes, green pepper, Lima beans, &c. And to Mr. J. B. Werts for a similar favor.

Our reporter says that at a certain church in town Sunday a gentleman and his wife were sitting together when the collection basket came round. The gentleman had forgotten his change, and didn't put anything in. His wife leaned up towards him and whispered in a severe undertone, "I'd have put a button in if nothing else." O, the deceitfulness of women!

Attention is invited to the card of the Angusta Hotel. This hotel is justly popular for various considerations—it is in splendid order and handsomely furnished, is located in the centre of business, with telegraph office in the building. Express office close by, and its rates are only $2 per day. All of these are recommendations worthy of attention. The traveler is assured of good attention, the best of fare and comfortable rooms.

"SURPRISING TO ALL," How Jones & Satterwhite can afford to sell Mens', Boys', Children's and Ladies' Shoes so cheap. Their stock is now complete, and they get cheaper and cheaper. Bottom in prices almost out.

"SWEET MUSIC." What selling goods for cash with but little profit will do.

It will keep you busy selling; looking up bargains for your customers; your patience worn out waiting for New Goods to come in to supply the wants of cash buyers. This is fully realized at The Leading One-Price Cash House of Jones & Satterwhite, THE LEADERS OF LOW PRICES AT NEWBERRY C. H., S. C. 43—2t.

"HEAR WHAT YOUR NEIGHBOR SAYS." "John, what did you pay $2.50 for those shoes for?" "Why just because I was bulldozed by a man who told me he was selling at cost, and to my sorrow I found that Jones & Satterwhite were selling them at $1.90. But I'll go there for the balance of my shoes." 43—3t.

NOTICE. The undersigned having this day entered into a copartnership, to be known as Jones & Satterwhite, respectfully invite the public to a favorable consideration of their stock in trade.

A. C. JONES, D. S. SATTERWHITE. Sept. 1st, 1877—35—4t.

NEW ARRIVAL OF DRESS GOODS AT THE ONE PRICE CASH HOUSE OF JONES & SATTERWHITE.

We can show you the largest, prettiest stock of Fall and Winter Dress Goods ever offered for sale from any of the Dry Goods counters in Newberry. We have all the new shades and styles: Blue, Navy Blue, Irresistible Green, in both solids and figures. Also, all other popular shades that are out this season.

JONES & SATTERWHITE. Oct. 2d, 1877. 40—1m.

PERSONAL.—Prof. Joseph P. Pritchard, son of Rev. C. H. Pritchard, of Newberry, has been elected Rector of the Cokesbury Conference School. He is a graduate of Wofford College, and has a fine reputation as a teacher.

Jno. W. Ferguson, Esq., a member of the Laurens Bar, was in town last week.

Bishop Wightman passed up the road yesterday on his way to Texas.

Attention is invited to the card of Messrs. A. K. Long & R. S. Gilliland, Book Binders and Dealers in Stationery of all kinds, Columbia, S. C. This is a young firm and both of the gentlemen practical and up to business and can accommodate the public in their line in the most satisfactory manner. The junior member, Mr. Gilliland, for several years with Mr. R. L. Bryan, is well known in Newberry. We ask for them a share of patronage. Any work in Book Binding entrusted to them will be promptly attended to.

A copy of a neatly printed catalogue of the St. Matthew's Academy, near Orangeburg, is received. Such of our readers as are not apprised of the fact will be pleased to learn that Mr. J. B. O'Neal, Hollower, of our county, is at the head of this institution, and that Miss Lizzie W. Chapman, of our town, is assistant in the primary department and instructress in music. The institution is in a flourishing condition, with a rapidly increasing number of students. Our best wishes are extended to principal and assistant; both are accomplished teachers.

Mr. D. Epstein, one of the great clothiers in Columbia, has a place in the columns of the HERALD this week and in anticipation of that great occasion—the State Fair, which will attract so many people to the city. As many of these things that are prepared for sale in the attractiveness of new suits of clothes (prefering to rig up at headquarters after getting there) Mr. Epstein extends a most cordial invitation to them to give him a call at his store, under the Columbia Hotel, where every article of gentlemen's and youths' wear can be had.

GIN-HOUSES BURNED.—Mr. W. Y. Fair's gin-house was burned down Monday morning. The fire was so intense that it was supposed to have been produced by friction. Two or three bales of cotton were burned, and a considerable quantity of cotton seed. Loss $1,500; insurance $500.

Mrs. Senn, living three miles from town on Bush River, lost her gin-house Friday night by fire. The gin, which was turned by water, was running at night, and the lamp used exploded, setting fire to the cotton. Four bales of cotton and a large quantity of cotton seed were destroyed with the house. No insurance.

Day, Tannahill & Co., of Augusta, Ga., is another of those large and popular houses which like to let their light shine by the liberal use of printer's ink. Their specialties are carriages, wagons, coach material, harness, saddlery, &c., and a No. 1 stock they have too, and so large that their mammoth building on Broad street, being insufficient to contain it all, a shed room one hundred feet long on the back street had to be brought into requisition for its accommodation. This house can sell a good wagon as low down as $44, baby carriages from $8 all the way up to $40. If Newberry wants anything in Day, Tannahill & Co.'s line, a most favorable opportunity is now afforded for getting it.

THE CIRCUS.—Friday, the day fixed for the appearance of Cole's Mammoth Circus in Newberry, dawned in mud "ad drizzle. But notwithstanding the rain and mud, the crowd came. The first man we saw, on coming down street from breakfast, had ridden thirty miles "to see the show;" and another fifteen "to see the show;" and another fifteen in gangs from two to fifty, on foot, horse, mule, donkey, wagon, and every other conveyance available. By 11 o'clock the streets were full. The procession through the street was just like all similar exhibitions. First came a chariot drawn by eight camels and two horses; then an elephant and a great many of the darkeys; a Greek chariot driven by a rafter dandy-looking Amazon in tinsel and other flummery; a grand chariot, upon which was seated a very pretty "lady" that everybody said was a boy, etc., etc. The exhibition under the tent was by no means a dry performance, for it was raining hard, and the darkeys, clowns and the rest performed well. The show was considerably above the average. No less than twenty-five hundred persons were under the tent.

We got these points from a man who went to see the animals.

ABOUT THE TOWN AND COUNTY.

The charm is broken, and we may expect bad weather for a while.

The Concert and Hot Supper has been postponed to Thursday evening.

Apples are abundant, both Northern and mountain.

The Baptist Church was filled Sunday night to hear Mr. Eason's sermon on Moral Heroism.

As the hart panted after the water-brooks so panteth the soul of the small politician after office.

Can't somebody keep a market where not only beef, but chickens, vegetables, eggs, &c., can be always found?

A select party of young gentlemen and ladies met in Temperance Hall Tuesday night and spent several pleasant hours in the misty mazes of the dance.

What those Helena workmen can't mend isn't worth mending, whether it is wood, iron, or what-not. We believe they'd best go and learn to mend, and if the pole of the earth were to break they could splice it together again or make a new one.

There are not many patridges about—at least so says a gentleman who went out last week and came back with the bark rubbed off his heels, and his hands scratched up by the briars.

Sol Smith Russell, the inimitable Comedian, with his troupe, will exhibit in Newberry Saturday evening, Nov. 3d.

The "Simmons House" has undergone another improvement. The front yard has been so arranged that the gate is opposite the front door. It helps the looks of things a great deal.

A much needed rain last week laid the dust.

And at the same time gave us a fore-taste of mud.

The oldest inhabitant thinks the mud was muddier in that brief time than ever before.

What made it worse, five thousand colored people—more or less—waded through it on their way to the circus.

Speaking of the circus, although advertised to come on three special trains it got here comfortably on two; and

A prominent church member who went in only to see the animals says the circus part of the performance was pretty good, and

Several who did not attend in the afternoon on account of the rain were there at night; but

The best thing was the old darkey and his son Jim: When the steam piano began to toot the old man yelled "Please God, what you Jim?" The boy had followed the "eamonies." "What you, Jim?" could be heard above the steam notes. The old man wanted Jim to hear and see and enjoy it with him.

The liquor drunk on Friday last would have floated a seventy-four gun-ship.

FIRE INSURANCE.—We call attention to the card of W. F. Nance, Insurance Agent. The companies represented in this agency are perfectly sound and trustworthy, and have paid to citizens of Newberry, and vicinity, since the war, nearly $100,000. Insure your property. No better agency can be found than the above.

CHEAP FURNITURE, in every variety and at every price, is advertised in this issue by that wide-awake Furniture dealer, Mr. G. V. DeGraaf, of Augusta. His price list shows to the reader what he has and at what price the various articles can be bought, and is so graded that it suits every man's pile. It shows to Mr. DeGraaf's knowledge what he is about in giving a list of his prices, as it enables parties who need furniture to make up their minds without trouble or delay what they can afford to buy. Another advantage is that in case the purchaser cannot spare time to go to Augusta, he can make a selection and send his money, and feel satisfied of getting just what he wants.

TAXES.—To-morrow (Wednesday) is the very last day for paying taxes. If you haven't paid yet, go and do it at once.

The County-Treasurer has been at his post "from early morn to dewy dawn," and has given complete satisfaction to all citizens, and to keep any one from being subjected to the fifteen per cent. penalty, he will keep his office open till late at night to-morrow.

Up to yesterday 2,200 persons had paid their taxes, leaving over 1,500 yet to pay.

The poll tax will be larger this year than it ever was before. It will be in the following circular has been issued: COMPTROLLER'S OFFICE. COLUMBIA, October 28, 1877. The time for the collection of taxes, without penalty, will be extended to the 15th of November.

JOHNSON HAGOOD, Comptroller-General.

UNPRECEDENTED.—In the history of taxpaying a livelier time than that seen at Capt. White's office on Monday has never before been experienced. Anticipating a rush the indefatigable Captain and energetic assistants crawled out of their blankets at 3 o'clock in the morning to make preparation, and from that early period till 10 o'clock at night they were kept busy. Four thousand dollars were paid in and yet all were not made happy, for a large number who could not remain all night left their money in the hands of friends to pay in when the excitement subsided. Two hundred receipts in one day is considered a large number.—on this day, however, three hundred and fifty were filled.

The Captain says at one time the crowd pressed so close as to break the glass in the partition in front of the desk, and he was forced to threaten a call on the police to prevent being altogether run over. We imagine there will be but few executions against delinquents.

THE NAAMAN ANECDOTE MODERNIZED. But the father was wrong, and, upon the doctor's departure said, "Behold now, I surely thought he would have come gipsy, as usual, to diptheritic son, I grieved by the laws, forced a swob between them, lacerated his esophagus, excoriated with some incomprehensible jargon, given mercurials, chlorates, sulphates and carbonates, and thus healed the disease. Are not the pharmaceutical preparations with tri-compound, unpronounceable names far better than the vulgar phials of Sicily? Why, then, may I not swallow them and be healed? Then the son, pleased at the prospect of being killed by some less cruel method than that of a pole in his throat, replied: My father, if the doctor had prescribed Flores-sulphuridis-tigularia-mixta-celata-sesquipedalis, would you not have gone for it at twenty fold speed as the best remedy in the world?"

By James C. Leahy, Probate Judge.

Whereas Ebeuzer P. Chalmers, as Clerk of the Circuit Court, hath made it me, to grant in Letters of Administration, to the bona non, of the Estate and effects of John N. Floyd, deceased.

These are therefore to cite and admonish all and singular the kindred and creditors of the said deceased, that they be and appear, before me, in the Court of Probate, on the 20th day of November next, upon publication hereof, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any they have, why the said Administration should not be granted. Given under my Hand, this 4th day of October, Anno
