

LOCAL DOTS—

This paper is pro bono publico. It is an addendum to the Herald. Christmas will fall on the 25th inst. Hope no one of our readers will do likewise. Egg nog, Tom and Jerry, and hot Slings must be handled with care.

Fathers and mothers are advised that their little ones can be made happy for a small sum.

Pretty picture books and alphabet blocks are the very things, and they can be found at the Herald Store.

All Christmas presents intended for this office must be brought in through the front door. Houses and lots excepted.

The lack of editorial matter in this issue is attributable to the unprecedented run on the advertising columns.

Newberry is a live town and is full of live business men, and her women, God bless em, cant be excelled.

Subscribe for the Newberry Herald, and thereby support your county paper.

This paper is circulated free; it goes all over the county; it is a good advertising medium with cheap rates; if the merchants of Newberry like it, it will be continued; all who wish cards in another issue will hand them in by first of January.

Two men were riding in the cars the other morning, when one asked the other if he had a pleasant place of residence. "Yes," was the reply; "we have seven nice large rooms over a store." "Over a store! I shouldn't think that would be a quiet place." "Oh! it's quiet enough. The folks don't advertise."

When a man returns home at night and kisses his wife with more than ordinary tenderness, she may be pretty certain that he has been in mischief.

If a married woman complains that she has no peace of mind, you can safely bet it's because she's continually giving her husband a piece of her mind.
