

The Palmetto State Erect.

Ex-Senator Robertson, of South Carolina, entered the reception room of the Ebbitt House yesterday in response to a card from the Post.

"Can you give the Post something about the condition of affairs in your State?" said the reporter.

"I have not been in South Carolina very recently," he replied. "I have been seeking my health at Clifton Springs, but I receive letters from there every day, and during my absence I have talked with a good many men just from the State."

"As it quiet down there?" "Is it quiet as it ever was before the war. The State is peaceable and prosperous. It could not be otherwise under Hampton. He is the most progressive man I ever knew; high toned, honorable, truthful and noble. He is of too high grade for a politician. He has kept every promise he made during the campaign in his speeches. That's saying a great deal for a man isn't it?"

"Will the Republicans make any contest this year in the State?"

"Oh, there's no opposition in the State ticket you know; and it would not make any difference if there was. Hampton would beat anybody who could be brought against him so overwhelmingly that it would practically be no opposition. He could beat any man for Governor in the State with the white vote left out. Just take the colored vote and he would be elected over anybody. He's as popular with the colored people as with the whites, and I said when he was elected he would be before he served his term out."

"Except as to the State ticket will the Republicans make a fight?"

"They may in the First and Second Congressional Districts; I think they will, but that is all."

"Will they carry those districts?"

"It is very doubtful. I scarcely think they will. The Republicans acted so badly when in power that even the colored people became disgusted. Then Governor Hampton's influence takes many of them over to the Democrats, and so the political contest is nearly all one way. The Legislature will be almost entirely Democratic, but I am gratified to learn that a better class of our citizens are to be elected this year than at the last election. The last Legislature was composed, as a rule, of very good men, but there were too many young men there. They lacked experience. This year many of our best citizens—men of ability and experience—have been selected."

"And will Hampton be elected Senator?"

"Undoubtedly; and I am sorry to see it, because I will take him away from us, and we need him there. It's a pity he can't hold both positions—Senator and Governor."

"Will you have a fair election and count in South Carolina?"

"Yes, sir; Hampton has promised it, and he never breaks a promise."

"He is mentioned as a Democratic nominee for Vice-President in 1880?"

"And I would be proud to see him have this position. He would honor it."

"Then Senator the Republicans are not likely to get more than two members of Congress?"

"I don't think they will get two. They may organize and contest the election in the First and Second Districts, but the colored vote has changed so much it is doubtful if they can elect a member."—Washington Post.

Gov. Rice to Gov. Hampton.

BOSTON, October 2.—Gov. Rice declines to put Gov. Hampton's letter relative to the Kimpston matter upon the files of the Executive Department, and has forwarded the following communication:

COMMONWEALTH OF MASS., EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, BOSTON, Oct. 2, 1878. His Excellency Wade Hampton, Columbia, S. C.

Sir: I received, on Saturday last, an extraordinary official communication addressed to me, over your signature, the contents of which I had read in the newspapers three days before. I beg to remind your Excellency that any attempted rebuke of Massachusetts by South Carolina for non-observance of constitutional or statutory obligations is the rebuffment of sarcasm, which renders any other defense of the former State unnecessary. The treatment of the case of Hiram H. Kimpston by the authorities of this Commonwealth was uninfluenced by any personal or political considerations. Massachusetts had no quarrel with South Carolina, and was bound to extend to each their respective rights under the laws. Every courtesy, official and personal, was extended to the representatives of South Carolina. Unusual care was bestowed upon their investigation and consideration of the case, and its decision was reached upon grounds of perfect impartiality, in accordance with the law and facts and with convictions of public duty.

In communicating the decision to your Excellency, my statement that the object of the requisitions did not appear to be for the purpose of trying Kimpston for a crime charged against him, but for a different purpose, was a simple recital of facts contained in the report of the Attorney-General—a copy of which was furnished with my letter to you, and in his opinion and mine clearly established by the evidence.

Greenbackers.

We had a very sensible article last week from "Broad River" on this subject, urging the Democrats who may be inclined politically to this new party to keep the matter in abeyance, at least till after the ensuing election. This is good advice and is appropriate to the occasion.

Ex Pres. Grant has given $500 to the yellow fever sufferers.

Your Excellency's letter requires no argument in reply. It is sufficient to say that it contains statements to mislead the public where the facts are unknown. Its language and untimely publication are offensive and unjustifiable. I decline to accept it or permit it to be placed upon the files of the Executive Department of this Commonwealth. It is herewith returned.

Your obedient servant, ALEXANDER H. RICE, Governor.

The Campaign in the State.

Only a little while remains to prepare for the election. The campaign, beginning at Newberry September 10th, has been prosecuted with vigor. For the first week the meetings were rather flat, and a dead calm seemed to pervade the minds of the people. On the 18th Governor Hampton made his first speech in the campaign, and the redshirts, from the mountain to the sea, have rallied to the call of their leader. In the middle and lower counties the enthusiasm has been equal to that of 1876. Darlington, Sumter, Marlboro' and other counties have had rousing meetings. Even Richland, heretofore so hard to arouse, has distinguished herself by her zealous work. But the grandest display of the campaign was witnessed at Charleston the 2nd. Old men and young, including a very large proportion of colored men, donned the red shirt, the emblem of democratic zeal and earnestness. Ten thousand people were present. Speeches were delivered by Gov. Hampton, Lt. Gov. Simpson, Senator Butler, Gen. Hagood and others. The Charleston democracy are up and doing, and are determined to win.

The meeting at Columbia, for Richland County, Saturday, was truly a glorious one. Richland will not be behind in her work. Her people are thoroughly enthused. She has a good ticket in the field, and is determined to elect it. The procession Saturday of red shirts was a mile long. Speeches were made by Hampton, Butler, Kennedy, Cooke, Youmans and others.

Judge Shaw Dead.

Hon. A. J. Shaw, Judge of the 3d Circuit, died at his home Wednesday, the 3d instant, after a long and painful illness. He was regarded as one of the best Judges in the State. It fell to his part to hold the Fall Courts in the 7th Circuit. So it is certain now that we shall have no Fall Court here unless an Extra Term be called.

The fall elections in the different States take place on the days named below: Colorado, October 1; Georgia, October 2; West Virginia, October 6; Indiana and Iowa, October 14; Mississippi, November 4; Connecticut, Delaware, Florida, Illinois, Kansas, Maryland, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, Nevada, New Jersey, New York, North Carolina, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas and Wisconsin, November 5. In the Territories, Idaho holds her election November 4, and Arizona, Dakota, Montana, New Mexico and Washington, November 5.

The Roll of Candidates.

The Marion Democracy have nominated J. G. Blue, Thos. C. Moody and Dr. W. M. Davis for the Legislature.

The Democratic primary election in Fairfield nominated for the Legislature, H. A. Gaillard, T. S. Brice and R. C. Clowney—two old members and one new.

The Chester Republicans have nominated the following ticket: For the Senate, Jno. Dickey; for the House, J. A. Bradley, Jr., Purvis Alexander and Lark Stevenson.

The Republican Convention of Laurens County has nominated the following ticket: For the Legislature, W. H. Fowler and A. W. Moore, white Democrats, and A. H. Johnson, colored Republican; for Probate Judge, A. W. Burnside, the Democratic nominee; for School Commissioner, D. T. Dial, Democratic nominee; for Coroner, Jno. Nabors; for County Commissioners, Berry Owen, Ellidge and Dendy.

FOR THE HERALD. Our Washington Letter.

WASHINGTON, D. C., October 2, 1878.

On election day, in November next, Roscoe Conkling, as he sees Republicans throwing about one-third of the votes, can count the remaining days of his Senatorial life. Cameron, in Pennsylvania, can do the same. In the East, just as certainly as in the South, the Radical party is going to pieces. It has not held its own in any election during this year. In what State, looking fairly at the prospects, can it hope to do so? At the October election it has given up all hope of holding their own. In Oregon the change gave us a Senator. In Maine it was sufficient to have done so, and an opposition Senator is sure to be selected when the time comes. In Vermont the change was not so great, but a good beginning was made.

The Republicans say that they have taken "the only honest ground" on finances. Not one dollar of the hundreds of millions they have stolen in the last twenty years but has been stolen in the name of "God and morality." They have always been full of professions. Look at the present head of the party, selected by its reformers who were too honest to train with the rest of the party. He has appointed more soundboreds to office than all his predecessors, and violated not only his own civil service reform rules, but all the traditions of propriety which were always a law to Presidents. The truth is that the Radical party has reached a condition in which honesty is impossible to it. Any appearance of honesty is a delusion and a snare.

The Chinese Embassy called formally and was received at the White House last week, and is now making preparations for permanent residence here. Cards of the Minister have been left on all the Foreign Ministers. The sum of $100,000 to the credit of the Embassy at San Francisco was placed at its credit here, through the politeness of Secretary Sherman, without any cost whatever. Various Washington bankers had been applied to, and the lowest responsible offer for making the transfer was about $200.

Secretary Sherman should have credit for doing a very sensible thing and, although the amount involved was very small, the courtesy will doubtless be remembered.

Mrs. Geo. Sherman has been dangerously ill at Atlantic City, but, at last accounts was out of danger. The General is in New Mexico and will not return before the last of this month. Since his son's entrance into the Jesuit Society (in opposition to his well known wishes, but in accordance with Mrs. Sherman's advice,) the husband and wife have not met. Gen. Sherman showed very much feeling about his great disappointment regarding his son's choice, strongly reproached his wife and bitterly blamed her Catholic friends, since which it is said that Mrs. Sherman has changed her plans, has rented her St. Louis house, given up her religious labors, and is going to live with her husband in future and join him in the society of which he is so fond. This will be a gratification to Gen. Sherman's friends, but a sore disappointment in Catholic circles where she is very prominent and influential. SOLON.

The Fat Men's Convention.

We can see some pleasure, if no reason, in the convening of a baby show, but we confess we could never see the slightest cause, reasonable or otherwise, for a fat men's convention, unless it be the fact that misery loves company. For fifty or a hundred men whose several weights range from two hundred to three hundred pounds, to hold a convention simply because of so much surplus adipose tissue is absurd to say the least. It becomes doubly so when we reflect that obesity is a disease. What would we think of so many persons emancipated by consumption holding a convention to compare their relative weights. There is but one ground upon which we would advocate another fat men's convention, and that is that they will meet to discuss the merits of Allan's Anti-Fat, the only known remedy for obesity. It is safe and reliable. Sold by druggists.

FOR THE HERALD.

NEWBERRY, S. C., Oct. 7, 1878. The Newberry Agricultural and Mechanical Society met pursuant to adjournment, Mr. W. D. Hardy, Fourth Vice-President in the Chair.

The minutes of the meeting held on the second day of September, 1878, were read and approved as read.

Mr. Alan Johnstone reported in behalf of the Executive Committee, that the time fixed for the Fair was the twentieth and twenty-first days of November, 1878, and that the place selected was the lot and buildings of Geo. S. Mower, Esq., in the town of Newberry. The Secretary and Treasurer reported that the Premium List would be ready for distribution about the twenty-first of this month.

On motion of Col. John R. Leavell these reports were received as information and the action of the Executive Committee was confirmed.

On motion of Col. John R. Leavell it was resolved that a committee of three be appointed to revise the Constitution. The Chair appointed Col. John R. Leavell, Alan Johnstone and Dr. James McIntosh.

On motion the Society adjourned subject to call of the Executive Committee. GEO. S. MOWER, Secretary.

New & Miscellaneous. VEGETINE

REV. J. P. LUDLOW writes; 178 BALTIC STREET, BROOKLYN, N. Y., Nov. 14, 1877.

H. R. STEVENS, Esq. I feel bound to express my personal benefit received by its use, as well as from personal knowledge of those who have benefited by its use. I was restless at night and had no appetite. Since taking the VEGETINE I rest well and relish my food. Can recommend the VEGETINE for what has done for me.

JAMES P. LUDLOW, Late Pastor Calvary Baptist Church, Sacramento, Cal.

VEGETINE SHE RESTS WELL.

SOUTH POLAND, ME., Oct. 11, 1876. Mr. H. R. STEVENS:—Dear Sir:—I have been sick two years with the liver complaint, and during that time have taken a great many different medicines, but none of them did me any good. I was restless at night and had no appetite. Since taking the VEGETINE I rest well and relish my food. Can recommend the VEGETINE for what has done for me.

Yours respectfully, Mrs. ALBERT RICKER. Witness of the above, Mr. GEORGE M. VAUGHAN, Medford, Mass.

VEGETINE GOOD FOR THE CHILDREN.

BOSTON HOME, 14 TYLER STREET, BOSTON, April, 1876. H. R. STEVENS:—Dear Sir:—We feel that the children in our home have been greatly benefited by the use of your VEGETINE. I consider it a valuable remedy for the ailments of children, and I recommend it to all who may need an invigorating, renovating tonic.

Yours truly, Mrs. N. WORMELL, Matron.

VEGETINE REV. O. T. WALKER, SAYS: PROVIDENCE, R. I., 104 TRINITY STREET. H. R. STEVENS, Esq. I feel bound to express with my signature the high value I place upon your VEGETINE. My family have used it for the last two years. In nervous debility it is invaluable, and I recommend it to all who may need an invigorating, renovating tonic.

Yours truly, Mr. WALKER. Formerly Pastor of Bowdoin-square Church, Boston.

VEGETINE NOTHING EQUAL TO IT.

SOUTH SALEM, MASS., Nov. 14, 1876. Mr. H. R. STEVENS:—Dear Sir:—I have been troubled with Scouring, Canker, and Liver Complaint for three years. Nothing ever did me any good until I commenced using the VEGETINE. I am now getting along first-rate, and still use the VEGETINE. I consider there is nothing equal to it for such complaints. Can heartily recommend it to everybody.

Yours truly, Mrs. LIZZIE M. PACKARD, No. 16 Lagrange Street, South Salem, Mass.

VEGETINE Recommend it Heartily.

Mr. STEVENS:—Dear Sir:—I have taken several bottles of your VEGETINE, and am convinced it is a valuable remedy for Dyspepsia, Kidney Complaint, and General Debility of the system. I can heartily recommend it to all sufferers from the above complaints.

Yours truly, Mrs. MUNROE PARKER.

New & Miscellaneous.

45 Years Before the Public. THE GENUINE DR. C. McLANE'S CELEBRATED LIVER PILLS FOR THE CURE OF Hepatitis, or Liver Complaint, DYSPEPSIA AND SICK HEADACHE.

Symptoms of a Diseased Liver. PAIN in the right side, under the edge of the ribs, increases on pressure; sometimes the pain is in the left side; the patient is rarely able to lie on the left side; sometimes the pain is felt under the shoulder blade, and it frequently extends to the top of the shoulder, and is sometimes mistaken for rheumatism in the arm. The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness; the bowels in general are constive, sometimes alternating with the disease, but cases have occurred where few of them existed, yet examination of the body, after death, has shown the LIVER to have been extensively DERANGED.

AGUE AND FEVER.

DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, IN CASES OF AGUE AND FEVER, when taken with Quinine, are productive of the most happy results. No better cathartic can be used, preparatory to, or after taking Quinine. We would advise all who are afflicted with this disease to give them a FAIR TRIAL.

For all bilious derangements, and as a simple purgative, they are unequalled.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS. The genuine are never sugar coated. Every box has a red wax seal on the lid, with the Impression DR. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS.

The genuine McLANE'S LIVER PILLS bear the signatures of DR. McLANE and FLEMING BROS. on the wrappers.

Insist upon having the genuine DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, prepared by Fleming Bros., of Pittsburgh, Pa., the market being full of imitations, the name McLANE, spelled differently but same pronunciation.
