1876 and 1878. There are some important differ ences between this campaign and the last. We hear complaints and surprise expressed that there is not more enthusiasm exhibited. The reason of this is plain. There were inspiring elements in the campaign of 1876 that are lacking in this In the first place, the national democracy were fighting for the Pres idency, and with strong hopes of success. No state in the Union was more anxious for success than was South Carolina, and none worked harder to bring it about. None had greater reason to desire success than she. She had seen, for eight long years, vagabond thieves from the North, assisted by rascally scallawags, and backed by United States bayonets in the hands of the republican party, lording it over her own people. She had seen her halls of State disgraced by an ignorant, malignant and thieving crew, whose parallel has never been known in a civilized country. She had seen enormous taxes wrung from her citizens, to be squandered in the most wreckless and corrupt manner by those in authority. She had seen all this brought about and sustained by the National Republican Party, and in 1876, when her people saw a prospect of release, is it any wonder that they strained every nerve to free themselves? The name of Tilden was a tremendous power in or by both such fine and imprisonthe last campaign. That element ment. is wanting now.

Again, in 1876, besides a contest for the Presidency, there was a vigorous contest for Governor. The arch thief Chamberlain was running against Gen. Wade Hampton, then and now the most popular man in the State. This contest called forth all the force and energy, all the en- tics. Just as sure as Democrats with Dr. Pope as alternate. Dr. Mayer in thusiasm and zeal of the people. insist on taking part in Republican They were wrought up to the highest pitch of determination in this contest. This element is wanting in the present campaign.

In the 3d and 4th Congressional Districts the people have nothing to fight for but County offices. They have no President to elect, and they are sure of the Governor and their Congressmen.

All these facts taken together account for all the apparent indifference in this campaign. We believe, however, that the indifference is more apparent than real. We believe the Democratic party in the State is just as determined to win as it was two years ago. The misfortune is that the people do not perceive and do not feel the great in Charleston, the 9th instant, in importance of the campaign. The the eightieth year of his age. Who are the Candidates?

Several democrats of this County so in its immediate consequences, and far more so in view of its effect have been nominated as independ ent candidates. Persons whose blood is thin, digestion weak and liver sluggish, are extra-liable to the attacks of malarial disease. The most ble, but give not the slightest pretrifling exposure may, under such conditions, infect a system which, if healthy, would resist the miasmatic taint. The only way to secure immunity from malaria in localities where it is prevalent, is to tone and regulate the system by improving weak-ened digestion, enriching the blood, and giving a wholesome impetus to biliary secretion. These results are accomplished by nothing so effectively as Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which long experience has proved to be the most reliable safeguard against Dr. Eli Geddings died at his home fever and ague and kindred disorders, as well as the best remedy for them. The Bitters are, moreover, an excellent invigorant of the organs of urination and an active depurent, eliminating from the blood those
