"Change is written on the tide," and we suppose that little Dombey was impressed with that idea when he asked his sister "what are the wild waves doing now." Everything changes, nor can we do without change, small change particularly. "This world will be a wild" without it. One of the notable changes of the day to which we feel called upon to invite attention is that being made in the city of Columbia, on the Main Street and directly opposite the Columbia Hotel in the store of Messrs. Kingsland & Heath. It consists in the addition to their already large stock of all the latest novelties in China, Glass, Wood, Iron, Crockery, and Fancy Articles; and the pleasant feature about it is that a very little change will buy a great deal, that when you have parted with it, you experience a change for the better. Presto change. 39-4f.

GRAND RALLY OF THE DEMOCRACY! OLD AND YOUNG!

WHITE AND COLORED!

CARLINGTON, LIPSOMB, BAXTER, SUBER AND JOHNSTONE.

A political mass meeting, gotten up by the Carolina Club, was held in the Court House Wednesday night, the 23d inst., and was largely attended, a considerable portion of the audience being colored men. The meeting passed off admirably; the speeches were very appropriate, and no doubt did much good. President J. E. Brown presided. J. F. Caldwell, County Chairman, after a few introductory remarks, introduced

GEN. A. C. GARLINGTON, of Greenville. He was greeted with rounds of applause. The people of Newberry have often listened to the flowing eloquence of the General in days past, and when he appeared they expected something fine. They were not disappointed, for though unwell, he spoke in his happiest style. He referred in touching language to associations of the past in this County, his family and social ties, and the honors that the people of Newberry conferred upon him in former days. He said that he had come to advocate no man and no clique, but the cause of Democracy. Upon the success of that cause depends honest government in this State and County. He drew a vivid comparison between the anti-slavery days, when the ermine of our judges was without stain, our Legislature without suspicion, and when the public officers were adorned by such illustrious names as Calhoun, Pickens, Hayne and Weston, and the days after the war, when the judiciary was corrupt and venal, and the Legislature a den of thieves. Coming down to the Hampton administration, we see the old days returning again. We must carry on the work of regeneration. We must buckle on the armor and carry this country through the present and future. We must rout, horse, foot and dragoon, from the seaboard to the mountains.

Next came HON. JAMES N. LIPSOMB, our Senator. Most of his speech was directed to the blacks. He reminded them of the manner in which they had used their franchise since freedom; that they had not been free men, but had given up their rights and franchises to robbers and scoundrels who used them for their own selfish purposes. When we see white men and colored men sitting together we know that these robbers are gone. With your franchises come duties and responsibilities to the government. As much your duty and as much your interest to support honest men as is the duty and interest of the whites. And you have been freemen long enough to know, and do know, an honest and capable man from one who is incompetent and dishonest; and while we are prepared to recognize your rights and privileges, we call on you to do your duty. Use the ballot box to put honest and competent men in office. Some of you try to draw the color line in politics. You say that the Democratic party is not willing to give you proper representation as a race. Color has nothing to do with representation. Our standard is character, qualifications and record. These made famous our Governor and Aiken Congressman, and by this standard you must be tried—not by your color—and the white man must be tried by the same standard—not by his color—when you compete for political offices and honor. Colored men in Sumter and Charleston have been selected by the Democrats because they came up to the standard. All that you can ask is equal rights and privileges with the white man; you cannot demand more. You must take your chances as a citizen, not as a colored man; and when you can show the requisite character, proper qualification and a good record, then, and not till then, can you demand political preferment.

He then appealing to the whites to lay aside all party animosities and dissensions. We give more room to his remarks to the colored people because he gave the true explanation of the color question in politics with great plainness and accuracy.

The Chairman next introduced MAJ. JAMES M. BAXTER, who made one of his best speeches. He said that he feared the Democrats in this County were sleeping on their rights; neglecting their interest. We are in the midst of a serious crisis in this County, State and National affairs. There is no calculating the result that the election in this County may have for good or evil. We have gained a success that could scarcely have been hoped for, because we were united and aroused. There is some dissatisfaction now, as there always has been and always will be, but we are in more danger now than at any time since the war. Craving and dissensions will cease. It is most important to carry this election than that of 1876. If we had failed then we should have had the sympathy of our sister States; but if we fail now we will have their condemnation and reproach, and will deserve it. Keep the clubs organized, but do not scorn the aids of Democrats who do not belong to clubs. We have in this State a good government; but the crime has diminished and crime has diminished and more honestly and economically applied. We cannot jeopardize all we have gained for a little family quarrel. He said that the two races had been brought into unnatural antagonism by Northern men for selfish purposes, men who did not represent the North; but the mass of the Northern people are kind and generous and have proved it by their noble sacrifices in behalf of the Southern cities scourged by the yellow fever. All the bad feeling engendered by these political carpet-baggers would be effaced by a few years of good government. Gov. Hampton, by his impartiality, has already done much towards accomplishing this end.

Messrs. Suber and Johnstone, though not down in the programme, were called out by the audience and made short and stirring speeches.

The elementary mechanical powers are only five in number. Chemistry has already discovered nearly twenty times as many elements. Shall we permit fossils to frown down chemical discoveries, when we see such results as DR. HARTER'S IRON TONIC, LIVER PILLS, and ELIXIR OF WILD CHERRY?

Horse Thief Caught.

A young negro man brought a good looking mare into town Monday, 28th, and offered to sell her; at first he asked $40, then fell to $10. Policeman Lathrop arrested him on suspicion of stealing the mare. When put into the jug he confessed that he had stolen the mare that morning from Mr. Wesley Perry, who lives in Edgefield County, four miles from Kinard's Ferry. He didn't seem to care for the consequences much, and said that he thought Mr. Perry would let him off with a "good cussin;" but more likely he will get a new suit of clothes with fancy stripes and free lodging at the Hotel de Farnelo.

"Palm." Crampton Brothers' Soap at B. J. Ramage & Son's Grocery. It is the best. Try it. 41-2m.

Barbecue and Speeches. There will be a free barbecue at Japala Saturday, November 2d, to which all persons of whatever sex, party or color are invited. Ladies are respectfully requested to bring baskets. The red shirts from other townships are invited to attend and participate. Political speeches will be made by some of the County candidates and by speakers from abroad.

There will also be a free barbecue and picnic at St. Matthews Thursday, the 31st inst. Everybody is invited. Gen. A. C. Garlington, of Greenville, and the County candidates will speak.

Supervisors of Election. The United States Circuit Court met in Charleston, on the 22d inst. S. T. Linton, the Chief Supervisor of Elections, made the following nominations of Supervisors for Newberry County, which were confirmed by Judge Bryan: Newberry, C. H. W. Tarrant; Gibsons Store, A. J. Gibson; Maybinton, P. B. Angbury; Cromer's Store, L. P. W. Riser; Japala, W. W. Riser; Williams Store, Wm. J. Wallace; Longshore's Store, Thomas M. Noel; Prosperity, Francis Booth; Dead Fall, W. E. Welch; Jolly Street, J. D. A. Kibler; Pomaria, Enoch Lake; Glymphville, J. A. Hentz. All Democrats; no Republican nominations received.

Consumption may be prevented by checking a cough or cold in time, and nothing equals Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup for throat and lung affections.

Biggs Released. Charles E. Biggs, agent for the sale of Louis Cook's bargies, who was arrested and placed in Newberry jail, July 7th, on a charge of a breach of trust, made by his principal, was released Saturday. Cook has withdrawn the charge and paid up all the costs of the case; the Solicitor has signed the papers for his discharge and they have been sent to Judge Wallace for his signature, which there is no doubt he will give.

Mr. Biggs has borne his imprisonment with the greatest patience and cheerfulness, never having been heard to utter a complaint, and we believe everybody here is glad of his release.

Personal. Capt. J. C. Wardlaw is now conductor on the Laurens Railroad.

Revs. R. A. Fair and T. C. Ligon and Mr. S. P. Boozer, attended the South Carolina Synod of the Presbyterian Church in Spartanburg last week.

Mr. W. J. Arrants, traveling agent for the Straight-Out Democrat, of Columbia, spent several days of last week in Newberry canvassing for his paper.

Mr. Jap. A. Kinard has been elected delegate to the Lutheran Synod, which meets at Mt. Pleasant Church, Barnwell County, November 12th. Mr. W. P. Housale is alternate.

Melancholy Mention. With unutterable sadness we record the melancholy fact that our smoke house (senior editor) was broken into and robbed on Tuesday night last—and it a raining—of flour, meat, lard and soap. They were fastidious thieves, and made a selection of the "good" flour instead of meal, emptying a sack of the latter into an empty flour barrel so as to have a bag for the flour, and with a like evidence of taste eschewed pens and potatoes. Sweet scented rascals, would we know who they are.

On the same night they visited the kitchen of our neighbor Dr. Thompson and took his meat, coffee, pot, etc., and all the contents of the "cool" cabinet.

Next door they called on Dr. Fant and finding him in bed, went to his chicken coop and cleaned that out.

We learn that the same parties or others, visited Mr. Hornsby and also the premises of Maj. Baxter.

Early Saturday night some one entered Mr. W. H. Dickert's store room and cleaned it out of flour, meal, meat, rice, hominy, etc., and stole some clothing besides. The stealing was done early in the night, before Mr. D. had gone home from the store.

A Dastardly Trick. The Laurens train Tuesday brought the following letter addressed "To the Editors of the Newberry Herald." It was certainly mailed at Martins Depot, for the envelope bore the stamp of the Post Office there.

MARTINS DEPOT, October 22, 1878. Messrs. Editors.

Dr. L. A. East, which occurred this morning, he being killed by his horse throwing him against a tree. His death is a great loss to our community, as he was a young man of great promise, kind and generous; he was beloved by all.

I inform you of his death because of his numerous friends at Newberry. Very respectfully, WM. R. SMITH.

Knowing two gentlemen by the name of Wm. Smith near Martins Depot, and close neighbors of Dr. East, we thought that one of them wrote the letter, and not a shadow of a doubt entered our minds in reference to the genuineness of the signature nor the correctness of the statement. It was evidently intended for publication, and would have been published had it reached the office an hour earlier. We showed the letter to several of Dr. E.'s friends, and the report soon became general. The universal regrets expressed and the numerous fine eulogiums on the Doctor showed the high esteem in which he is held in this community. Great was the surprise and gratification when the Doctor rode into Newberry, Wednesday evening, with three gentlemen, Messrs. A. C. Jones, Ed. Scholtz and Harry O'Neill, who had gone up to attend his funeral.

In regard to the letter, neither of the Smiths wrote it; the signature is undoubtedly fictitious, and the whole thing was a dastardly deception planned and perpetrated by some person too stupid to realize the magnitude of the offence he was committing, or too mean to care.

Weather cool.

Big rain Thursday.

Liver is King. The Liver is the imperial organ of the whole human system, as it controls the life, health and happiness of man. When it is disturbed in its proper action, all kinds of ailments are the natural result. The digestion of food, the movements of the heart and blood, the action of the brain and nervous system, are all immediately connected with the workings of the Liver. It has been successfully proved that Green's August Flower is unequalled in curing all persons afflicted with Dyspepsia or Liver Complaint, and all the numerous symptoms that result from an unhealthy condition of the Liver and Stomach. Sample bottles to try, 10 cents. Positively sold in all towns on the Western Continent. Three doses will prove that it is just what you want. 22-c-o-v.

The Eclectic Magazine. For November contains nineteen articles, and is sufficiently varied in topic and method of treatment to please all classes of readers. The portrait this month is a fine steel engraving of the Rev. William Adams, D. D., for nearly forty years one of the leading clergymen of New York and now President of the Union Theological Seminary. The leading paper on "Giordano Bruno and Galileo Galilei" is rich in biographical interest and also contributes a most instructive chapter to the early history of science. "The Age of the Sun and Earth," is another scientific paper of the highest interest and value, and the editorial department of "Science and Art" is fresh and varied in its record of scientific progress. In "The New Principles of Industry," Mr. George Jacob Holpake expounds the philosophy and narrates the history of Co-operation; and in "Cyprus" the reader will find what he most craves to know about this famous Mediterranean Island. "Brookden Brown," is an appreciative biographical and critical sketch of the earliest American novelist; and the account of the "Platonic Museum at Antwerp," is wonderfully curious. Other articles are: "The Poetic Place of Matthew Arnold;" "The Old Home;" (a poem) "Child's Play;" "A Ballad of Heroes;" "The Speaker of the House of Commons;" "Our Dream;" (a poem) four chapters of Black's "Macleod of Dare;" and the well-filled editorial departments. TEACHERS AND PARENTS, ATTENTION!

Among the books recently adopted by the State Board of Education for the Schools of South Carolina, the next five years, are Sanford's Analytical Arithmetic, by S. P. SANFORD, A.M., LL.D., Mercer University, Macon, Ga.

These Arithmetics have been in acceptable use in leading Schools in this State and other States for several years. Hon. Hugh S. Thompson, State Superintendent of Education at Columbia, says of them:

"Sanford's Arithmetics are superior to any that I have seen in the fulness of the examples, the clearness and simplicity of the analyses, and the accuracy of the rules and definitions. This opinion is based upon a full and thorough test in the schools of the State. To those teachers who may examine these Arithmetics with reference to introduction, I would especially commend the treatment of Percentage and Profit and Loss. No text-books that I have ever used are so satisfactory to teachers and pupils."

For ninety days from Nov. 1st next, Sanford's Arithmetics are prepared expressly to cure Sick Headache, Nervous Headache, Dyspeptic Headache, Neuralgia, Nervousness and Sleeplessness, and will cure any case.
