SPECIAL NOTICE.—Business notices in this local column are inserted at the rate of 15 cents per line each insertion.
Obituaries, notices of meetings, communications relating to personal interests, tributes of respect, &c. are charged as regular advertisements at $1 per square.
Notices of administration, and other legal notices, obituaries, tributes of respect and notices of meetings, as well as communications of a personal character must be paid for in advance.
The subscription price of the Herald is $2.00 for twelve months, $1.00 for six months, 50 cents for three months and 25 cents for one month in advance. Names in future will not be placed on the subscription books until the cash or its equivalent is paid.
Mr. L. S. Bowers, post master at Prosperity is our authorized agent at that place.
Bergner & Engel's celebrated Beer received a medal at Paris Exhibition. For sale by TOM Q. BOOZER.
The List of Appointments
For services in the various churches will be printed and furnished from this office on Saturday morning free to all interested. Call and get one.
A choice lot of Teas, at H. A. Burns.
Y. M. C. A.
A mass meeting of this Association will be held in the Baptist Church, Thursday evening, and addresses will be delivered by Revs. Coke Smith and H. F. Chritzberg. Public cordially invited.
Our Band
Celebrated its first anniversary Tuesday night last, and elected the following officers for the ensuing year: A. W. Hammer, President; T. A. Thompson, Secretary and Treasurer. The organization is a credit to the town.
Pure Mountain Whiskies and Brandy, from $1.75 to $2.50 per gallon, at 40-41 TOM Q. BOOZER'S.
The Southern Cultivator
For December is on our table with a most excellent table of contents. This monthly is such a universal favorite and so generally taken that it is scarcely necessary for us to speak further in its praise. We will say, however, that this is a favorable time to renew subscriptions. Send $1.60 to the publisher, W. L. Jones, Athens, Ga., and secure it for the year.
The little people find that Burns keeps the sweetest Confectionery, and the old people encourage them to go there because they know it is so. Go to 40-41 TOM Q. BOOZER'S.
Seasonable.
For variety in good things and pretty things we do not think that it will be necessary for any one to go farther than to H. A. Burns' store, round the corner, where can be found almost anything and everything that fond mamma and papa, and sweet and good children can possibly desire in the line of sweet things and toys. Go to Burns' by all means and look at his stock.
Chaw Jackson's Best Sweet Navy Tobacco. 48-49
Let Your Light Shine.
People spend money now with freer hand than at any other season of the year and they read the advertising columns of the HERALD to see who has the best, the nicest and the biggest variety of goods. In view of this we invite the merchants to use our columns by giving the necessary information. Advertise what you have for the holidays. Our charges are very moderate.
Ogburn's Best, Free and Easy and T. C. D. Tobacco, at H. A. Burns'. 21-41
Christmas Goods.
We take pleasure in calling the attention to the opening by Mr. Woolsey, in Wright's old Tin Shop, next to Cash's, of a nice assortment of confectioneries, nuts, fruits, canned goods, &c. The proprietor is a practical man and will give satisfaction. He has also opened a restaurant where can be had a square meal, nicely prepared, and at moderate price. Give him a call.
Thompson, Dentist, over Mower's Store.
New Way to Make Love.
Pelham is not far wrong, if any, in advertising love candy, for it is not only lovely to look at but we believe will, if administered under favorable circumstances, be productive of love for the giver. What advantages youths of the present age have compared with those who lived and courted in days gone by. It was hard work then to woo a fair maiden, now it is as easy as falling off a log backwards. Santa Claus must indeed have made his headquarters at his establishment, perhaps because of the "iron columns" which afford a secure fastening for his steeds. So call and examine his goods.
Go to Burns' for your Fruits—Oranges, Apples, Bananas, Lemons, to be had at the Confectionery of 40-41 H. A. BURNS.A Kind Act.
Messrs. Leavell & Speers have presented a very prettily executed memorial slab to the Orphanage, with the names and date of the organization of the institution. It will be put up next week.
Of course, it is needless to say that the work is well done. So well satisfied are the people of this community with the work of this firm that nobody else can do any work here.
Messrs. Leavell & Speers have also recently put up some excellent work in the Clinton Cemetery.—Our (Clinton) Monthly.

Annual Meeting South Carolina Conference.

One Price, and that the Lowest.

Ministers, delegates and parties attending Conference are invited to call and see Jones & Satterwhite's large and fine assortment of staple and fancy dry goods, boots, shoes, hats, dress goods, domestic goods, gloves, handkerchiefs, hosiery, silk handkerchiefs, ladies ties and scarfs and thousands of nice things we haven't space to mention.

Wednesday—Opening Session of the Conference at 9 o'clock, A. M., at the Baptist Church.
Wednesday evening—Sermon before the Undergraduates, at the Methodist Church, by Rev. Henry M. Wood.

COMMITTEES ON EXAMINATION.

I. Committee on Applicants will meet at Mr. L. E. Folk's.
II. Committee of the 1st Year at Station Parsonage.
III. Committee of the 2nd Year at Mr. C. C. Chapman's.
IV. Committee on 3rd Year at Circuit Parsonage.
V. Committee of 4th Year at Return of Y. M. C. A.

Preaching in the Methodist Church every evening following.
Solid Comfort Cigars, 2 for a nickel. Smoke and be happy, say TOM Q. BOOZER.

Now is the Time.
At this season of the year every one is on the look out for something new, nice and cheap, something extra, for it is holiday time, Christmas is at hand, and every one, big and little, must be made to feel just a little happier than common, the cost being a secondary consideration, for it only comes once a year, you know. Its a settled fact that something has to be bought, perhaps many things, for some men and women do things on a grand scale in the happy Christmas time, make ever so many little and big ones happy and feel the better for it in the doing. This point settled, the question arises what shall these good, nice, cheap things be, and where can they be had; well, we answer the whole by saying at Kingsland & Heath's immense establishment in Columbia, where can be found the greatest variety of such goods as are needed at this particular time. Their stock is bewilderingly large. 50f.

Peterson's Magazine
Is already on our table for January, a triumph of art, literature, and fashion. Either of the two best magazines, 'The Playmates' or 'The Letter at the Gate,' is worth the price of the number. Then the treble-sized colored pattern, 'Persian Embroidery in Applique, &c.,' the very newest thing out, would be cheap at fifty cents. As for the mammoth colored fashion-plate, it is simply unrivalled; and besides this, there are some thirty other fashion illustrations. Then, too, there is a Surprise with a full-size of a Winter Mantilla, the very latest style. To praise the stories in 'Peterson' is unnecessary; they are always original, and always the best. Two powerful novelets are begun, one by Ann S. Stephens, another by Jane G. Austin; and in addition there are stories by Frances Hodgson Burnett, Rebecca Harding Davis, Frank Le Benedict, 'Josiah Allen's Wife,' &c., &c.

Now is the time to subscribe. 'Peterson' is unquestionably the cheapest and best of the ladies' books. The price is only two dollars a year. To clubs it is cheaper still. viz: 4 copies for $6.50, with an extra copy gratis to the person getting up the club, or 5 copies for $8.00, and both an extra copy and a superb premium engraving, 'Christ Blessing Little Children.' Specimens of the magazine sent gratis to persons wishing to get up clubs. Address CHARLES J. PETERSON, 806 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

Something New—A Rare Opportunity.
We have lately had brought to our notice a new kitchen utensil, of real merit of which entitled it to something more than the passing notice we can give to it. We allude to the PERLESS FLOUR AND MEAL SIFTER, manufactured by the Peerless Sifter Company, of Cincinnati. A Combination Sifter, Washer, Mixer, Rice Washer, Flour Scoop, Tomato, Pumpkin, Fruit, Wine, Jelly and Starch Strainer. Twelve distinct articles combined in one, and is sold at a price within the reach of every family. To purchase separate utensils for all of the above purposes would cost more than ten times the amount asked for the Peerless Sifter.
Housekeepers will appreciate the Peerless Sifter for the following reasons: It does away with the putting of one's hands in the flour, which in cold weather is very unpleasant; can be worked so easily and rapidly; will sift five times as fast as the common sieve, and much faster and better than any other sifter ever introduced. It is operated with a simple and easy lever motion, and is acknowledged by every one to be far preferable to the awkward and unhandy rotary motion in sifters heretofore sold. It seems to us that it would be no trouble for an energetic lady or gentleman in this vicinity to sell a Peerless Sifter up into every kitchen in this county—without a single word being said that would pay anything like as well, and would recommend it to drop a postal card at once to the PEERLESS SIFTER COMPANY, GEORGE AND ELM STREETS, CINCINNATI, Ohio, for territory and prospecting circulars and terms, mentioning our paper.

Particular Notice.

Bear in mind that we open a new subscription book on the first of January, and all subscribers in arrears are requested to pay up by that time. Subscribers whose time expires between now and January (look for the red X mark on the margin) are invited to renew their subscriptions. Remember that the HERALD can be had for 12, 6, or 3 months to suit the circumstances of all.
Those in arrears after January first, will have to pay at the rate of $2.50 per year.

Conference Notes.

The Methodist preachers began to come on Saturday and have come in a steady stream since. All the traveling preachers of the State, and some are hundred and seventy in number, and only a members of them are absent. There are, in addition, fifty lay delegates.

The Baptist congregation has kindly tenanted the church for the sessions of the Conference, and it has been thankfully accepted.

Bishop Pierce, of Georgia, who was to preside, has been taken sick and is unable to come. Bishop Wightman, of Charleston, will fill his place.

Rev. S. P. H. Elwell preached in the Methodist Church last night (Monday.) Rev. Samuel Leard will deliver an historical lecture to-night at the same church—Subject: 'Life Sketches of the Fathers of Methodism in South Carolina.'
The Sessions of the Conference will be opened at 9 A. M., to-morrow (Wednesday) at the Baptist Church. Sermon before the undergraduates at the Methodist Church at night by Rev. Henry M. Wood.

The sessions of the Conference are open, and the public is invited to attend.
Thomas and Jeremiah, (Hot Scot.), at all hours of the day and far into the night, in the inimitable style peculiar to 50-21 TOM Q. BOOZER.

The Greenville and Columbia Railroad offered to pay its taxes on its property in this County this week. The Board of the Bank of the State, Treasurer Whites declined to receive them, and levied upon the property of the road to secure payment. Wednesday he was served by Gen. James Conner, Receiver of the road, with a rule to show cause why he should not be attached for contempt for levying upon and taking said property in his possession while the same was in the custody of the Court. The rule was heard by Mr. R. B. Keene at Newberry, on Friday last. The Treasurer made his return to the rule through his attorneys, Messrs. Moorman & Schumpert. His Honor discharged the rule, and passed an order allowing the Treasurer to file his petition praying to be made a party to the proceedings before the Court at Columbia. The petition will be heard at Columbia one day this week.

The Treasurer was very desirous that His Honor should decide upon the question of tender by the road—whether the tender in bills of the Bank of the State was a sufficient tender; in other words, whether the Treasurer is bound to receive such bills for County taxes—it has already been decided that the State must take them—but His Honor declined to give any decision on the question.

QUERY: 'Why will men smoke common tobacco, when they can buy Marburg Bros. Seal of North Carolina, at the same price?' 5-ly.

Court.
The Special Term of the Circuit Court was opened Thursday, 5th, Judge B. C. Presley presiding. Only criminal business was taken up, and not a great deal of that kind was got through, on account of the shortness of the time allowed. Judge Presley dispatched business with regularity and care and without unnecessary delay. The Grand Jury, having already and recently made a full presentation this year, had no report to make this term, and their duties were confined to considering bills of indictment. They were discharged Saturday. They were detained thus long because many witnesses, not having had notice of the Special Term, were absent and had to be waited for.

The following cases have been disposed of:
State vs. Phebe Ruff alias Cooper, Assault and Battery—Guilty.
State vs. Geo. Spence, Stealing grain from the freehold—Pleaded guilty.
State vs. Preston B. Chappell, same offence—Guilty; recommended to the mercy of the Court.
State vs. J. P. Satterwhite, Fayette Satterwhite, Betty Cannon—Assault and Battery—Continued.
State vs. Arnold Cato, Grand Larceny—Guilty.
State vs. Wm. Sheppard, Wesley Williams and Robert Bang, Burglary, and Grand Larceny—Continued.
State vs. Walker Tobias, Assault with intent to kill, and assault and battery—Continued.
State vs. John Daniels and Kent Gallman, Stealing—Continued as last term.
State vs. Moses Thompson, Assault with intent to kill, and assault and battery—True bill; guilty of assault and battery.
State vs. Albert Gilliam, Bastardy—Pleaded guilty.
State vs. Caesar Cannon and John Werts, Grand Larceny—Guilty as to both.

State vs. Isaac Smith, alias Glenn, Stealing grain from the freehold—True bill.
State vs. Henry Davis and Berley Davis, Grand Larceny—True bill.
State vs. Pierce Perry, Horse stealing—True bill. Continued in order to allow an inquiry whether the defendant is not a lunatic.
State vs. Zachariah Taylor and Lawrence Livingston, Riot, and assault and battery—Struck off the docket.
State vs. Louis Crede and Charlotte Crede, Breach of the peace; appeal from Trial Justice Court—Struck off.
State vs. H. C. Moses, Official misconduct—Continued.

State vs. Jno. C. King, Receiving stolen goods, knowing them to be stolen—Not proved.
State vs. Wm. Nance, Obtaining money under false pretences; the horse trading case, appealed from Trial Justice Court—Struck off.

State vs. H. C. Moses, Refusing to turn over money, &c.—Continued.

All communications relating to personal interests will be inserted at regular advertising rates, one dollar per square, cash in advance.

Various.

Weather ugly.
Conference in session.
Hosts and delegates happy.
Fowl murders every day this week.
Hope none of the preachers will take messes.

Subscriptions must be paid by the first of January or no paper will be sent. Printers cannot live on hope.

Never before has there been such a lot of pretty things brought to town for the little folks' Christmas. Our stationery store is fully supplied.

This is the month for merchants to send bills down to their debtors. The HERALD office is prepared to print the necessary papers in nice style.

Doors were made to shut out the cold in winter as well as to admit comers. When you find a door closed do not leave it open.

If you want to subscribe to the HERALD and can't spare the money, bring its value in something else. Printers are very accommodating.

The community generally have had a taste of spare-ribs and sausages. Some are looking and waiting for more of the porcine quadrupeds to come this way.

'Jacob' in the drama of Jane Eyre was inimitable and 'hazogized' the house. 'A little nonsense now and then is relished by the wisest men.' Would that we had more of it.

Christmas trade is beginning to be felt in all the various branches, and a brief period the merchant will feel that he is to allow his children to hang on their head, while he will take sugar in 'his'n.' Happy times.

Four souls made happy since our last issue. 'What is love? Two souls with one a single thought, two hearts with beat as one. We wish them much joy.'

The individual that was to bring in cats—where is he? And that chunk of lightwood—where is it?

Did you receive a notice two weeks ago? Did you see the red cross mark last week? You know what they mean surely.

Sad is the degeneracy of the times, formerly men said what they meant, now they don't mean. Its mean still, however.

Telegraph poles are being placed along the Laurens Rail Road preparing to connect Laurens with the outside world by wire.

Mr. R. B. Keene is having built by Mr. Cline a two-story dwelling house on Adams Street, adjoining M. A. Carlisle's.

A white man was convicted of stealing from a negro, on the testimony of negroes, and by a white jury last week.

An item or two for the ladies.
How to produce a telling effect—communicate a secret to a woman.
There is only one thing stronger than a woman's will, and that is her 'won't.'
The strongest propensity in a woman's nature is to allow her children to do as they please to know what was going on, and the next thing is to boss the job.

A woman hearing a great deal about 'preserving autumn leavels' put up some, but afterwards told a neighbor they were not fit to eat, and she might as well have thrown her sugar away.

The Abberville Press and Danner says double weddings are the fashion in Newberry. Of course, Bro. Wilson, how can folks marry without doubling?

Follow the fashion old fellow.
Cokesbury and Newberry have been joined together by another link in the matrimonial chain. Newberry gains by the operation a charming addition to her already beautiful sisterhood.

The handsomest and cheapest lot of Paperettes, Picture Books, Bibles, Alberts, Blocks, Games and other suitable presents for Christmas ever seen are to be found at the HERALD Store.

If you have any faults, or have committed errors during the year set about reforming now reader, and start with a clean record January 1st, 1879. One of the sins, that of borrowing the HERALD, we should like to see atoned for—a paid up subscription will pay all damages.

Our city will be brim full this week—every house will be full—the household hands will be full—'hearts will be full—and judging from the extensive preparations making the visiting sive preparations will be kept full. In a time of such universal fullness it is hoped that this office will be filled with subscribers anxious to settle up.

No head of a family performs his whole duty, unless he keeps on hand a supply of Dr. Hartner's incomparable remedies. DR. HARTNER'S LIVER PILLS, or DR. HARTNER'S FEVER AND AGUE SPECIFIC may be needed at any day, to preserve or restore the health.

For sale by all Druggists. Dowie & Moise, Wholesale Agents, Charleston, S. C.

Personal.
Gen. A. C. Gartling paid us a short visit Wednesday last. He was on his way to Columbia.

F. W. Fant, Esq., has gone to house-keeping in the house belonging to L. J. Jones, Esq., on Boundary Street.

J. F. J. Caldwell, Esq., has moved into Mr. Pool's new brick house on Johnston Street.

O. L. Schumpert, Esq., goes to Charleston this week as a delegate to the Grand Lodge of Free Masons.

We were pleased to receive a visit on Friday morning from Mr. H. N. Reid, the genial and go-ahead agent of Messrs. Printup, Bro. & Pollard, manufacturers of Augusta, Ga. His house is rich in premiums from the Georgia State and County Fairs.

Something for the New Year.
The world renowned success of Hostetter's Bitters and their continued popularity for a quarter of a century as a stomachic, is scarcely wonderful than the welcome that greets the annual appearance of Hostetter's Almanac. This valuable medical treatise is published by Hostetter & Smith, Pittsburg, Pa. under their own immediate supervision, employing 50 hands in that department. Ten cylinder printing presses, 50 rolling machines, 6 job presses, &c., are running about eleven months in the year on this work, and the issue of each for 1879 will not be less than ten millions, printed in the English, German, French, Swedish, Italian, Spanish, and other languages. Refer to a copy of it for valuable and interesting reading concerning health, and numerous other subjects. It contains a great deal of Bitters, amusement, varied information, astronomical calculations and chronological items, &c., which can be depended on for correctness. The Almanac for 1879 can be obtained free of cost, from druggists and general country dealers in all parts of the country.

Charlotte Thompson as Jane Eyre.

Charlotte Thompson and her company played Jane Eyre to a full house Wednesday evening. The drama is constructed from Charlotte Brontë's novel of that name. In its adaptation to the stage several changes have been made, and made most horrible and disagreeable parts of the novel being omitted. For instance, the novel makes the maniac the wife of Edward Rochester, while in the drama she appears as the widow of his elder brother; in the novel she is burned up in the conflagration which ensued from her secretly setting fire to Rochester's bed and he had his eyes burned out, while in the drama she and both escape unhurt. This makes the play a pleasant one.

Miss Thompson acted her part splendidly. As a young girl at the house of her aunt she was very natural, and equally so as the governess. She had a good support. Mrs. Fairfax made everybody like her. Mrs. Reed soon earned for herself the name of the devil's angel, and many a hand itched to box the ears of her 'daring boy.'

Another lot of these French Crackers in variety, and French Candy, at H. A. Burns.

This Will Pay.
Many times the small cost will be returned to every person, in the country, or village, or city, who supplies himself and family with the plain, practical, reliable, useful paying information given in the American Agriculturist. It was so named because started 37 years ago as a rural journal, but is now greatly enlarged in size and scope, and profusely illustrated, so that it meets the wants of all classes—of cultivators of the smallest plots, or of the largest farms—of Housekeepers and Children—of owners of Cattle, Horses, Sheep, and Swine—of Fruit Growers, Florists, Builders, Mechanics, &c. From 600 to 800 original Engravings in every Volume, bring right to the eye and understanding, many useful, labor-saving, and time-saving contrivances, largely home-made, and for out-door and indoor work; also plants, animals, construction of dwellings, &c., etc. These numerous Engravings make this Journal greatly superior to every other one treating on the same subjects. The persistent, caustic exposures of Humbugs and Swindles are of great value to all its readers. Over $25,000 a year are expended in collecting useful and interesting information and engravings, the benefit of all which can be enjoyed at the reduced price of only 1.25 each, or ten copies at $1 each.
