Higher in Price.

All kinds of material have advanced in price in the last month or two, and yet we have not advanced in our prices for job work. Think of this, merchants, and give us your work.

Popularity.

One evidence of the increasing popularity of the HERALD was shown by the number of subscribers who came in on last Sale-day. Never in our experience did we receive so many. Thanks, good friends, one and all. Since the late unpleasantness we have not had so good Advance.

If white paper continues to advance in price we will be forced to adv. nce the price of subscriptions to the HERALD. It is now a third higher than it was two months ago, and still going up. We advise all persons contemplating subscribing and those who have not yet renewed to do so at once before we advance the price.

Renew and Pay Up.

Those of our subscribers whose time has just expired, and some few who are over the time will find blank notices in this week's paper. We ask each one to renew and pay up at once. This is imperative, we cannot send out the paper without the money. Those whose time has just expired will nouty is with the cash if they want the paper continued. Be prompt reader, for we mean bus, less.

Of the stores in town we find bil heads, letter heads and other kinds of printing bearing the imprint of oflices elsewhere. Why is this so? Should it not be to the interest of the merchant to sustain his home printing office? Don't the printers have to buy their goods at home? Can they succeed if the work is sent out of town? Think for a moment. We will do the work as cheaply, 3-3 and as well.

Fine Oysters.

The good people of Newberry have luxuriated on fine oysters this season from M. B. Bateman's celebrated house in Columbia. The first were served by the ladies of the Methodist Church, the second by the ladies of all the churches for the Y. M. C. A., and the third by the Knights of Honor. Bateman's oysters are all the rage now. Better than all there came a note to us last week conveying the agreeable intelligence that the editor should have a weekly treat from this time out. Mr. S. P. Boozer's meat house, in and two hams, a quantity of sausage and a live turkey were stolen. The thief, or thieves, got in by digging away the brick foundation. They left at the meat-house a crowbar, a long handled spade and a four-pronged digging fork; whether by way of exchange or because they had no further use for them is not known, as they left no note of explanation. It is probable that they stole these implements to effect their purpose.

On the night of Sale-day last Mr. Jno. F. Banks, who lives in the neighborhood of St. Paul's, was robbed in town of $200. Mr. Bank's account of the affair is somewhat as follows: He had been drinking that day; after THOMPSON, Dentist, opposite Herald office dark he found himself on Main Street, between Mr. Foot's store and the freight depot with several negroes: he gave them money to go buy some liquor; when the liquor came he took a drink of it-he thinks the liquor had been drugged. After coming to his senses he found that both his pocketbooks-one containing papers, the other $200-were gone. The Chief of Police went to work and arrested the following parties, all colored; Spencer Wallace, alias Black Pete, Ben. Harrington, jr., Joseph Himes, Brantly Rutherford and Ailsey Lewis. Both pocket-books have been found but none of the money; the one containing papers was picked up by Myra Davis near the place of the robbery; the other was found by the Chief of Police in the old field beyond the depot, cut to pieces. The parties accused are in jail, and will have a preliminary hearing to-morrow (Wednesday) morning. The Chief deserves credit for the manner in which he

The Newberry Herald.

This veteran guardian of the interests of old Newberry has entered upon another year of its existence, and, like the County which it so well represents, the older it grows the more vigorous and prosperous it becomes. The proprietor and senior editor, Mr. Thos. F. Greneker, is the Nestor of the South Carolina Press, and he is ably seconded in his management of the paper by his junior editor, Mr. W. H. Wallace. The Newberry HERALD is essentially a County paper, full of lively paragraphs of local interest, while, at the same time, it keeps its readers informed of what is going on in the outside world, and does not hesitate to express its views on National and State affairs, especially when the interests of Newberry are more directly affected. Newberry is a thriving town, and the fact that it has a good newspaper is no small factor of its success -News and Courier.

Our esteemed neighbor, the Newberry HERALD, has just entered upon its sixteenth volume, with bright prospects of a prosperous future. We are gratified to see this, as the HERALD deserves a hearty support. It is one of our most valued exchanges, and is a credit to the town and County in which it is published. Its Editors, Messrs. Thos. F. Greneker and W. H. Wallace, are able, industrious and enterprising gentlemen, and issue a paper worthy the liberal patronage it receives from an appreciative public.
