R. W. BOONE, P. M.
Newberry, S. C., Nov. 3, 1879.

Mr. L. S. Bowers, post master at Prosperity is our authorized agent at that place.

Death.

Mrs. Elizabeth Werts, mother of Mr. David Werts, Sr., died near Silver Street the night of the 6th instant. She was about ninety years of age.

Lent.

To-morrow is Ash-Wednesday, which is the first day of Lent.

Religious.

The Christians are holding services nightly in their Hall this week. Elder F. M. Green preaches, and all persons are cordially invited to attend.

All Persons.

Having rods, old iron, brass, copper, &c., for which they have no use, can dispose of same to Mr. S. E. Stratton, whose advertisement appears in to-day's paper.

Pearl Millet.

Mr. D. B. Kinard, of Prosperity, has sent us a specimen of Pearl Millet, which he says makes first-rate forage. Mr. Kinard can give any information desired.

Lectures.

The Professors of Newberry College have arranged for a series of lectures, and the first will be delivered by Dr. Mayer Thursday next, at 2 P. M.—subject, Hygiene.

For Ireland.

Messrs. R. L. McCaughrin, Silas Johnston and E. A. Scott have forwarded a contribution of $15 to Capt. F. W. Dawson, of Charleston, for the Irish Relief Fund. Cannot all our citizens do something in this line?

Disorderly Conduct.

There is frequently more noise than necessary made by persons going out town Saturday nights. Sometimes this becomes a serious nuisance, as was the case last Saturday night. The residents on College Street will remember the negro that passed out of town in that direction about 8 o'clock, walking leisurely along, and yelling and shouting at the top of his voice—and such a voice! A night in the Guard House would have done him good.

Newberrians in Charleston.

The following Newberrians visited Charleston last week, on pleasure or business bent—some to attend the State Grand Meeting, others to see the races: B. J. Ramage, C. B. Buist, D. R. Fisher, G. T. Reid, D. V. Scurry, Alan Johnston, H. H. Evans, E. W. Stoddard, C. D. Boozer, Jno. R. Spearman, Rev. J. A. Sligh, A. J. Kilgore, S. H. Fellers, A. W. Monts, J. A. Riser, S. A. Henter, W. D. Hardy, E. C. Simkins, J. N. Lipscomb, T. W. Holloway, Mrs. Ruff, Mrs. Henry, J. P. Pool, W. S. Birge, and several others whose names have escaped us.

Great Bankrupt Sale.

Of Watches, Jewelry and Silver Plated Ware. Among our advertisements will be found one announcing the sale by auction of a fine stock of Watches, Jewelry, Plated-ware, etc., in Cash's New Store, by E. W. Thomason, Auctioneer. In speaking of the Myers Bros. the Athens, Ga. Watsonian says, "this is the last day that the Myers Bros. will offer in this city the bankrupt stock of the noted California Store. As this was their first visit to Athens, they labored under some disadvantages, but by offering customers the greatest facilities to have goods tested, and guaranteeing satisfaction or money refunded, they have in a short time built up a large trade, and we can assure them an immense business should they visit us next fall. They have, and are offering at remarkably low figures, an elegant line of fine watches, plated ware, and a great variety of line gold and rolled-plate jewelry of every description imaginable. They have certainly astonished Athenians at the prices they have sold goods for."

Lutheran Conference.

The Newberry Conference of the S. C. Synod (Lutheran) will meet at Beth Eden Church, Rev. J. D. Shirey's charge, Friday before the 5th Sunday of this month. Rev. H. S. Wingard has been selected to preach the opening sermon—Rev. J. A. Sligh alternate; Rev. J. Hawkins to preach the Sunday sermon; subject, "Pastoral Support"—Rev. Prof. S. S. Rahn alternate. Several questions of practical importance will be discussed during the session of the Synod.

A Slow Letter.

Two years ago a letter was mailed at Silver Street Post Office, G. & C. R. R., to Miss Florence Pitts, Thornwell Orphanage, Clinton, S. C.; the letter contained a dollar bill. It reached its destination the 28th of January, 1880, having been all this time making the trip. The mails are required to be carried "with celerity, certainty and security"; the celerity of this particular letter was at the rate of about sixty yards a day. The explanation no doubt is, that the letter was opened for the dollar bill, and that the party opening it was afterwards moved by a guilty conscience to remedy the wrong, and so remailed it to the proper party.

For the Best Horse and Mule Shoeing go to J. Taylor, opposite the Jail. Oct. 8, 41—6m.

CHATTERBOXES

AND OTHER HOLIDAY BOOKS, WILL BE SOLD AT GREAT REDUCTIONS AT HERALD BOOK STORE. 3-1f

Life is a Pleasure

Only when we are in the enjoyment of all our faculties and in perfect health. This can only be when all the important organs of the body are performing their functions properly. The Liver is more liable to get out of order than any other organ, and produces more unpleasant effects. A dose of Dr. Gilder's Liver Pills occasionally, will keep it all right, or set it right if it has gone wrong. Sold by all Druggists. 1-2m.

True as Preaching.

The holidays are over and people have subsided into the old every day way of doing things; they are not looking out now for Christmas and New Year presents to please the fancy and gratify their friends. The substantial and every day necessities now claim their attention, and we know of no place where we can direct with greater certainty of getting what they want if in the line of crockery, china, glass or other ware and house furnishing goods generally, than at the magnificent store of Kingsland & Heath, Columbia. The public are bound to be pleased and satisfied there. Go there when down, or send orders when you cannot find time to go. 5-1f.

'80. A SPLENDID OFFER. '80.

MILLER'S ALMANACS

AT HERALD BOOK STORE. 3-1f.

Death of an Ex-Legislator.

Joseph D. Boston, colored, died at his home in Newberry village the 2nd instant. Joe formerly belonged to Mr. Wm. D. Resgin, of this County. After the war he became a preacher, but finding politics more profitable he went into that, and for several years during the flush days of radicalism wielded a strong influence over his colored brethren. He was member of the Legislature for two or three terms. He was not a mean negro; and when not used as a tool by the "leaders", which was unfortunately too often, was comparatively harmless. In 1876 he voted for Hampton, and since that time has had no political influence in the County. For the last two or three years he has taught school. He died of consumption, from which he had been a sufferer for some time.

Court.

We propose to stereotype the following sentence, to save rewriting it so often: "There is a great deal of criminal business on hand, which will occupy nearly the entire session."

The business of Court has been pushed forward with all possible dispatch. The hours for sitting are between 9-12 A. M. and late at night, with an hour's recess for dinner. The first case tried was that of Rich'd Houseal, colored, for grand larceny. The jury were locked up in the jury-room all Monday night, but failed to agree upon a verdict—they all agree, however, in saying that they had the sort of a time that the parrot had with the monkey. It was awfully cold, and they had nothing to warm them, internally or externally. They stood eight for conviction, and four for acquittal. The Judge ordered a "mistrial" entered Tuesday morning. The next case tried was that of Sam'l Ryan for hog stealing. This was the case in which our friends Abrams and Bishop distinguished themselves by their detective skill. Sam "didn't know nothing about it", but the jury convicted him anyway, and the Judge sentenced him to the penitentiary for one year. The case of Wm. L. Harp, indicted for the murder of James B. Chappell, was next taken up. The Solicitor represented the State, and the defendant was represented by Messrs. Geo. Johnstone, Pope and Schumpert. Six witnesses were examined on the part of the State, and twenty-two on the part of the defense. Able speeches were made by Messrs. Johnstone, Pope and Schumpert for the defense, and by Mr. Ball for the State. The jury retired at 2 P. M. Thursday, and after a consultation of ten minutes returned with the verdict—Not Guilty. The next case was that against Theodore Mitchell, charged with grand larceny. The prosecutor, Caleb Hunter, claimed that he had a five dollar bill in a barroom, that the defendant "bugged" him very affectionately, and that shortly afterwards he missed the money. Verdict, not guilty. This case presented a new way of "getting your money back". Caleb and his wife, as witnesses in the case, got certificates for $2.50 each—the amount lost.

Mathias W. Miller, a gray-haired white man, was tried for assaulting Dr. Jno. N. Lindsay; verdict, not guilty. The case against David W. McCullough, indicted for buying seed cotton between sunset and sunrise, was not pros'd. As was also the case against Wiley Spearman, charged with obtaining goods under false pretenses. The two cases against Philip Epstein, charged with trespass upon land by stock, were heard together. They were appeal cases from a Trial Justice Court. The defendant had been convicted by a Trial Justice under the new stock law. The defendant's employes while driving defendant's cattle through the country, allowed said stock to trespass upon lands along the roadside—defendant was not present. The defendant's counsel took the ground that the defendant not being present nor in charge of the cattle when the trespass was committed could not be held criminally liable for the trespass, on the principle that a principal cannot authorize an agent to do a wrong. The jury brought in a verdict of guilty; but on motion for new trial the Judge granted the motion, on the ground stated. The Solicitor has not pros'd the cases.

Simon S. Abrams was tried for entry upon lands after notice forbidding the same. The title to the land came into question, David Boozer, the prosecutor, claiming it under purchase from Mrs. R. S. Abrams, and the defendant claiming that Boozer, having given Mrs. Abrams a mortgage of the land and having abandoned its possession, had no longer any title. There was also a conflict in the testimony as to the "notice", the prosecutor testifying that he tacked up a written notice, which the defendant testified he did not see or hear of. The jury said, Not guilty.

The case against Spencer Wallace, Maria Robertson, Brantley Rutherford, Benj. Harrington, Jr., and Joseph Himes, grand larceny—stealing money from Jno. F. Banks—was not pros'd. We understand Mr. Banks has recovered his money. The Court of General Sessions was adjourned sine die Saturday morning. The Sheriff has only one prisoner—Sam Ryan—for the penitentiary. Saturday was occupied in taking judgments by default and in "sounding" Calendar 1, preparatory to Monday's work.

The Court is now engaged in the trial of jury cases in the Court of Common Pleas.

Presentment of the Grand Jury.

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA, COUNTY OF NEWBERRY. IN THE COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS. To the Honorable William H. Wallace Presiding Judge:

The Grand Jurors for the County for the present year respectfully beg leave to make the following presentment: Having just entered upon the discharge of the duties of a Grand Jury for the present year, they have visited the Clerk's, Sheriff's, Judge of Probate, County Commissioners', County Auditor's, County Treasurer's, School Commissioner's and Coroner's Offices, and are happy to report that they have found the same in good condition. They desire, however, to call attention to the following matters in the different offices:

1st. They find on deposit in the Clerk's Office $2,580.40 which were tendered for State and County Taxes (of Bills of the Bank of the State) to the County Treasurer; they recommend that proper steps be speedily taken, especially in relation to County Taxes, to determine the controversy existing over these Bills.

2nd. They find that the sum of $3,200 which was left on deposit (by Jesse C. Smith, late County Treasurer), in the National Bank of Newberry, S. C., and which was ordered by this Court to be turned over to the present County Treasurer, still remains in the present Treasurer's hands without having been disposed of on account of uncertainty as to what fund or funds the same belong, and in justification to our own County Treasurer we would say, that in accordance with his instructions from his superiors in office, viz., the Attorney-General and Comptroller-General, he is bound to hold this fund until the matter is definitely determined.

We beg to call the attention of the proper officers to an Act of the General Assembly of this State, entitled an Act to regulate the distribution of moneys recovered from officers of this State in suits brought upon their official bonds or otherwise, approved Dec. 22, 1875. They also beg leave to call the attention of the Attorney-General and Solicitor to the fact that Jesse C. Smith, late County Treasurer, is a defaulter to a considerable amount of money, and that suit should be brought upon his Official Bond to recover the moneys justly due by him to the Public Treasury.

4th. Complaint has been made as to the office of Coroner, and in justification to him in the discharge of his duties we would say, that when a Homicide occurs he, the Coroner, is the first officer to be sought, and that no other officer has the right to perform his duties, only in case he cannot be had or his services procured.

5th. We desire to earnestly urge upon the County Commissioners their duty to repair the Jail and Court House at the earliest moment the financial condition of the County will permit. We find that some of the Public Roads are in bad condition, especially the roads from Hughes's Ferry to O. W. Wickers', from Langford's Mill to Dr. T. W. Boozer's; and would suggest that the Commissioners exercise care in appointing proper persons as Overseers of the Roads, and enforce the faithful performance of duty by such Overseers.

We would congratulate the County Commissioners upon their economical disposition of the finances of the County, and also in their appointment of a most efficient Keeper of the Poor House in the person of Mr. H. C. Wilson, the said Poor House being visited by the Grand Jury and found to be exceeding well kept, and at as little expense as it can well be.

6th. We have not examined the Trial Justices' offices of the County on account of information received from the Solicitor in open Court that they did not come within our jurisdiction unless complaint as to incompetency or malfeasance in office was made.

7th. We desire to call attention to the state of the Dockets or Calendars of the Court of Common Pleas, Calendar No. 1 containing 142 cases; Calendar No. 2, 132; Calendar No. 3, 22; Calendar No. 4, 14; Calendar No. 6, 26—total, 336—many of which are of long standing. In the opinion of this Grand Jury delay of administration of justice on the civil side of this Court is an evil of serious magnitude, and would recommend that an Extra Term of the Court of Common Pleas be ordered by your Honor at an early day for the purpose of clearing the Dockets as far as possible, or if your Honor's time be so occupied by your official engagements as to prevent you from so doing, that the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court order such Extra Term in accordance with law.

8th. We present Philip Koon, a citizen of this County, for violating the law governing the sale of Intoxicating Liquors by retailing the same during the year 1879 without a License as required by law, and within half a mile of a Church known as Soule's Chapel—witnesses Elijah Wells, J. H. Chappell, R. S. Bozman and F. Werber, Jr. All of which is respectfully submitted JNO. K. NANCE. R. T. REAGIN. A. M. WYSE. JOHN M. GLYMPH. E. J. LAKE. H. M. BARGER. W. F. SCHUMPERT. A. B. CROMER. P. M. DENSON. J. W. MCKITTRICK. S. A. WHITMIRE. S. J. MCCRACKEN. J. H. LONG. M. J. WALDROP. E. W. REESE. G. W. SENN.

Run Off.

The passenger coach on the Laurens R. R., jumped the track last Saturday near Gary's Lane, and was slightly damaged. Conductor Peake was pitched into a briar patch, and the umbrella of Col. Thos. Crews had some of its ribs broken. No other damage was sustained. Our hurried interview with the Col. did not allow us time to ascertain whether or not he would bring suit against the road for the injury to his umbrella.

Various and All About.

The cold weather of last week put a quietus on the wheat fly.

A Columbia correspondent of the Beaufort Crescent says that Hon. Jas. N. Lipscomb will undoubtedly be the candidate for Secretary of State.

Dr. J. K. Gilder has commenced building on his lot in front of Mr. Wm. Langford's. It is one of the prettiest lots in town, and he intends to put a handsome residence on it.

Measles has been quite prevalent in Prosperity and the surrounding country for a few weeks past. The disease is of a milder type than usual, and we have heard of no fatal cases.

Policeman Franklin made his first arrest one day last week. He did it fearlessly and promptly. He didn't stop to enquire whether his prisoner was rich or poor, white or black, or anything of that kind, but promptly marched that prisoner to the Guard House. It was a cow.

We quite agree with the fellow who gets off the following: Oh, that Monday could be postponed to the middle of the week! Everything goes wrong side up Monday morning. People get out of bed in a huff, eat breakfast because they are obliged to, and come down town in a fla of the sulks. The fact is Sunday just gives us rest enough to make a man feel the need of more, and Monday finds him mad because he can't get it.

Lose not thy own for want of asking it! Lose not your infant for want of Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup, which any druggist will sell you for 25 cents a bottle.

Personal.

Mr. T. B. Crews, of the Laurensville Herald, paid us a "pop call" Friday on his way to Columbia.

Dr. J. D. Bruce, of Prosperity, was in town Sunday. His new home seems to agree with him, for he is looking stouter than we have seen him for a long time.

Mr. C. H. Beard, traveling for the Columbia Register, paid us a visit last week. The Register has a large number of subscribers in this town and County.

Mr. J. Wallace Ainger, of Charleston, traveling for the Electric Magazine, visited Newberry last week. We are glad to learn that he obtained several new subscribers.

Dr. O. B. Mayer, Jr., one of the most enterprising and skillful physicians of his age in the State, has gone North on a two months visit to the large hospitals of New York and Baltimore. He neglects no opportunity for perfecting himself in his profession.

Mr. Jno. D. Brown desires us to say that he did not apply for the position of private policeman at either the first election this year or at the second election to fill the vacancy. He applied the first time for the position of Chief, supposing the salary would be $40 per month—he was elected; but the salary being reduced to $35 he declined. Mr. Brown has made a first-rate policeman, and we are sorry to lose him from the force.

Two Organs

Regulate first the stomach, second the liver; especially the first, so as to perform their functions perfectly and you will remove at least nineteen twentieths of all the ills that mankind is heir to, in this or any other climate. Hop Bitters is the only thing that will give perfectly healthy natural action to these two organs.

S60 A WEEK in your own town, and no capital risked. You can give the trade business a trial without expense. The best opportunity ever offered for those willing to work. You should try Hop Bitters for your own use, for you can do at the business we offer. No room to explain here. You can devote all your time or only your spare time to the business, and make great pay for every hour that you work. Women make as much as men. Send for special private terms and particulars, which we mail free, 35c outside. Don't complain of hard times while you have such a chance. Address H. HALLETT & CO., Portland, Maine. 25-1y.

North Carolina Presbyterian.

En efforts are spared to make this organ of the North Carolina Presbyterians both attractive and useful. To do this we present such a variety of moral and religious reading as will be read by young and old, rich and poor, clergy and lay, learned and unlearned. Our special aim is to publish a newspaper. It numbers among its correspondents Rev. Drs. Drury Lacy, J. Henry Smith, J. B. Adger and Geo. A. Miller; Rev. Messrs. Jos. M. Atkinson, E. H. Harding, D. E. Jordan, J. Rumpke, E. F. Rockwell, P. H. Dalton, L. C. Yast, H. G. Hill, W. S. Lacy, W. W. Pharr, F. H. Johnston, P. T. Peacock, E. Z. Johnston, S. H. Chester, J. W. Primrose, S. M. Smith, R. C. Reed, J. M. Whaley; Prof. J. B. McNeill; Mrs. Correll, Phillips Spencer, Mrs. H. M. Irwin, and many others. Price, $2.50 a year. Address, JOHN McLAUGHLIN, Editor and Proprietor, Wilmington, N. C. Jan. 28, 5-1f.

The Southern Cultivator.

Now is the time to subscribe for this old and reliable agricultural journal. It is in its XXXVIII volume, and stands at the head of all agricultural papers. It is now published by the CONSTITUTION, Atlanta, Ga. Price, $2.00 a year. Clubs of 25, $20.00. The Cultivator and Weekly to the same address, 25c. Agents wanted for liberal commissions. Address CONSTITUTION, Nov. 19, 45-1f.

THE WEEKLY FAMILY PAPER.

Price, $1.50 per annum. Clubs of 10, $12.50. Clubs of 25, $20.00. The Cultivator and Weekly to the same address, 25c. Agents wanted for liberal commissions. Address CONSTITUTION, Nov. 19, 45-1f.
