NEWBERRY, S. C. WEDNESDAY, MAY 12, 1880.

A PAPER FOR THE PEOPLE.

The Herald is the highest respect a Family Newspaper devoted to the material interests of the people of this County and the State. It circulates extensively, and as an Advertising medium offers unrivalled advantages. For Terms, see first page.

Mr. Joseph A. David, of Greenville, died the 8th instant.

Hayes vetoes every bill that has for its object a fair election.

The Supreme Court of Georgia has refused to grant a new trial to Cox, who killed Col. Alston. Cox goes to the penitentiary for life.

The delegates to the State Convention from Greenville are solid for Hagood for Governor. And so are those from Hampton County.

Rev. W. W. Hicks, formerly of Charleston, was nominated by Hayes as Supervisor of the Census for Florida, but the Senate rejected him.

Col. Tom Scott has resigned the Presidency of the Pennsylvania R. R., and the former Vice-President, Geo. B. Roberts, has been elected to succeed him.

Only a few County Conventions have been held so far. Most of those that have been held instructed their delegates to the State Convention to oppose the nomination of officers in June.

Wm. M. Entekin, who was sentenced in 1874 to the Penitentiary for 15 years for infanticide, has been pardoned by the Governor. Entekin formerly lived in Laurens County; he was sent to the penitentiary from Pickens.

Gen. Gary, in a card in the Edgefield Advertiser, says, he is in favor of a law prohibiting the granting of licenses for the sale of liquor at County seats; and that he also favors a law prohibiting the carrying of concealed weapons.

The Greenville Enterprise and Mountaineer doesn't much like the looks of the proposed Greenville & Laurens Railroad; it says it would undoubtedly be a good thing for Laurens and for the Air Line Road, but it might injure the trade of Greenville.

Gen. G. R. Talcott, of Richmond, Va., has been appointed Superintendent of the Charlotte, Columbia & Augusta Rail Road. Virginia used to be called the mother of States and statesmen. We move to amend by adding the words "and railroad men".

Prof. J. H. Carlisle, President of Wofford College, Spartanburg, and Rev. Dr. Haygood, President of Emory College, Ga., are the fraternal delegates from the Southern to the Northern Methodist Conference. They have gone on to attend the General Conference of the Northern Church, now in session in Cincinnati.

The members of the last General Assembly who opposed the bill to prevent the carrying of concealed weapons were mostly from the low country. Their reason, as stated by them, was, that in the lower Counties there are large areas of country almost uninhabited, or where settled at all, only by negroes; that planters in riding from home to town or to see their neighbors had to pass through swamps and long scopes of country in which they are exposed to any highwayman who chooses to knock them off their horses for the purpose of robbery—that the bill proposed would subject them to danger of assassination or robbery. Such, we think, would not be the effect of the bill if it should become law. It would only prevent parties from carrying their pistols concealed; they might still carry them on their saddles, or in their hands, or buckled round them outside their coats. This would not look well ordinarily; but if there is any real use for carrying a pistol there could be no objection to carrying it in one of these ways. The proper title of a bill of this kind should read, not, as the one presented, "to prevent the carrying of concealed deadly weapons", but, to prevent the carrying of deadly weapons concealed.

Timely Caution. Genuine Hop Bitters are put up in square paneled, amber-colored bottles, with white label on one side printed in black letters, and green hop cluster, and on the other side yellow paper with red letters; revenue stamp over the cork. This is the only form in which Genuine Hop Bitters are put up, and the sole right to make, sell and use them is granted to the Hop Bitters Mfg Co., of Rochester, N. Y., and Toronto, Ont., by patents, copyright and trade mark. All others put up in any other way or by any one else claiming to be like it or pretending to contain hops by whatever names they may be called, are bogus and unfit for use, and only put up to sell and cheat people on the credit and popularity of Hop Bitters.

The Southern Baptist Convention

Convened in Lexington, Ky., the 6th instant, with the largest attendance ever present. The following officers were chosen: President, Rev. Dr. Mell, of Georgia; Vice-Presidents, ex-Gov. Brown, of Georgia, Rev. Dr. Winkler, of Alabama, Gov. Leslie, of Kentucky, and Rev. Dr. Leaman, of Missouri; Secretaries, Rev. Mr. Dobbs, of Kentucky, and Rev. O. F. Gregory, of South Carolina. The foreign mission board reported $50,000 expended in missionary work in China, Africa, South America and Italy. The report from the home mission board was also encouraging. A mission has been established among the Chinese in California, and the work among the Indians has been faithfully prosecuted. The debt upon this board has been liquidated, and $20,000 besides has been collected and expended in the work.

Dr. Boyce, of the Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, Ky., addressed the Convention in the interest of that institution. He announced that an attempt had been inaugurated to raise $150,000 in cash in the next twelve months; that $10,000 had been contributed, besides the $50,000 gift of ex-Gov. Brown, of Georgia. A call was made, and between $7,000 and $10,000 more was contributed.

Rev. Dr. Morse, of Indiana, and Rev. Dr. Marston, of Missouri, fraternal delegates from the Northern Baptists, were introduced to the Convention, and were warmly welcomed.

A resolution was introduced to abolish the two existing boards, and to form a single board, to have charge of both foreign and domestic missions; the resolution was not adopted.

The next meeting of the Convention will be at Columbus, Miss.

Candidates.

Newberry does not seem to have a flush of candidates. We hear very few spoken of. Perhaps there are many aspirants who are lying low and biding their time. It is time that they should begin to come to the front. Let us know who they are—if there are any. There is no harm in being a candidate. It is nothing to a man's discredit to desire an office, provided he does not use improper methods to get it, and is incompetent to fill it. We believe the best plan, the most manly, and altogether the most satisfactory, is for every man who desires office to come out openly and let the people know what he does want.

It is not likely there will be many changes in this County. In the Legislature and County Commissioner's office there will probably be some change; but in the other offices there is not likely to be any. Why should there be?

Educational.

The State Board of Examiners met in Columbia the 4th instant; present, H. S. Thompson, Superintendent of Education, Chas. Petty, of Spartanburg, Rev. J. E. Dunlap, of Marion, and H. P. Archer, of Charleston. The Board decided to open a Normal Institute at Spartanburg during the coming summer. The Trustees of Wofford College have offered that building for the use of the Institute. Teachers of both sexes will be admitted, and tuition will be free. The agent of the Peabody Fund will contribute to the expenses of the Institute. Able teachers from this and other States will compose the Faculty.

A Normal Institute is for the training of teachers. The Board adopted a resolution recommending County Boards to hold examinations for teachers on the first Friday in January of each year.

Wm. H. Kemble and several other prominent Republican politicians of Pennsylvania were convicted recently of bribing members of the Legislature. They were sentenced by the Judge to pay a fine of $1,000 each and to one year in the Penitentiary. The Governor promptly pardoned them. It is next to impossible to punish a man who has plenty of money and influential friends, no matter what his offense may be.

A good argument was offered by a citizen of Newberry a few days ago in favor of primary elections; it is that this system gives every man a chance to run who wants to do so; that the great majority of political aspirants will thereby find out how weak they are, and will learn that the "people" don't want them. One primary election would thin out the candidates wonderfully. The larger the bill the more easily

Petticoats in the Pulpit.

A great many petitions have been presented to the General Conference of the Northern Methodist Church, now in session at Cincinnati, to allow women to preach. There are fanatics enough among the Northern Methodists to make a pretty strong fight for this point. The fanatics are not all North, either. Mrs. Inskip and Miss Painter didn't have to "hire a hall" when they passed through South Carolina, a few weeks ago. On the contrary, they preached in the Methodist Churches in several towns and cities, had large audiences, protracted meetings, revivals and all that sort of thing—all the same as a regularly ordained minister.

St. Paul had something to say on this subject in his day—but that has been a long time ago—and the world moves.

Grant still has the inside track for the Republican nomination; but Blaine is developing considerable strength. The anti-third-termers are making their influence felt. By the 3d of June the race between Grant and Blaine will be pretty close. Will the Republicans do as they did in 1876—decide on some "goody-goody," "namby-pamby," as a compromise candidate? It looks probable just now.

For the Democratic nomination the contest is between Field and Bayard, with the chances in favor of the former—his supporters are gaining strength every day.

The result of the "Working Men's" reform in San Francisco may be thus briefly summed up: Charles DeYoung, editor of the Chronicle, who a few months ago shot Rev. I. S. Kulloch, the candidate for Mayor, was shot and killed a few days ago by Rev. J. S. Kulloch, son of I. S. Kulloch. Dennis Kearney, the fomentor of all the discord, has been sent to jail for a year for seditious language, and I. S. Kulloch, his friend the Mayor, is under impeachment for gross misconduct in office.

The Charleston News and Courier has done a new suit. The type with which that paper has been printed since January 1, 1877, though still as clear and good as that used by nine tenths of the newspapers, has been discarded, and the paper is now printed on bran new type throughout. We note this sign of prosperity of our Charleston contemporary with pleasure. The News and Courier is certainly the ablest paper in the South, both in its news and editorial columns.

FOR THE HERALD.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 4, 1880.

Another veto is to be added to Mr. Hayes' already long list. The immediate Deficiency bill was operated on by him yesterday. His objections are dated as follows:

I am firmly convinced that appropriation bills ought not to contain any legislation not relevant to the application or expenditure of the money thereby appropriated, and that by a strict adherence to this principle an important and much needed reform will be accomplished.

That he is utterly insincere in this is established by the fact that on the same day he opposed the Army Appropriation bill, which also had a rider; and by the further fact that every appropriation bill for which he voted while in Congress had riders upon it. The better opinion among Democrats is that the money covered by the bill, except that for the pay of special Deputy Marshals shall be voted promptly and those Marshals be provided for on a separate bill to which the "rider" shall be attached.

But four appropriation bills have as yet become law, viz., the Pension, Fortification, Army and Navy bills. Three bills—the Indian, Consular and Diplomatic, and Military Academy—are in conference. The District of Columbia appropriation bill has passed the House, and is now before the Senate. The consideration of the Post Office appropriation bill was commenced in the House yesterday. The River and Harbor bill was reported to the House yesterday.

The Legislative, Executive and Judicial, the Sundry Civil and the General Deficiency bills are not yet reported.

There will probably be at least one million more added to the River and Harbor bill which, as reported, covers over eight millions. It is always necessary to pass this enormity under a suspension of the rules requiring a two-thirds vote, and any member who thinks his District has not been "let in" for enough can always have matters made right.

The larger the bill the more easily it can be passed. The resolution introduced some time since in the House, fixing a day for adjournment will be called up this week.

The Anti-Third Term movement is everywhere more potent on paper than in the hearts of the people. Its conventions are fizzles, and its discussions were vapor. One breath of common sense will blow the whole thing away as so much chaff.

Edgefield Democracy.

The Democratic County Convention of Edgefield met in the village last Monday for the purpose of selecting delegates to the State Convention.

Mr. D. R. Durison, a strong friend of Gen. M. W. Gary, was elected Chairman, J. R. Carlisle First Vice-President, J. C. Sheppard, Second Vice-President; J. T. Bacon and W. H. Folk, Secretaries and M. A. Markert, Treasurer. A motion to invite Gen. Gary and Hon. J. C. Sheppard to address the Convention was adopted and both these gentlemen spoke. Gen. Gary pledged his honor to stand by the action of the Democratic State Convention and denounced as false reports that he leaned to or encouraged Independence.

Mr. Sheppard announced his intention to support Gen. Gary in the State Convention.

The following delegates to the State Convention, were chosen: Gen. M. W. Gary, J. C. Sheppard, B. E. Nicholson, H. A. Shaw, W. S. Allen, Jas. S. Callison. This was the straight Gary ticket, and will, of course, be solid for him in the Convention.

Messrs. M. L. Bonham, T. R. Deany and J. H. Brooks were elected alternates. Six Tillman delegates were elected to the Congressional Convention.

The utmost harmony prevailed in the Convention.
